PROGRESS IN STATE WATER PROJECT FINANCING *

By

William E. Warne, Director

California State Department of Water Resources

It is with pleasure that I present to you today the modified financing program which we have developed for the State Water Project.

This means that we can at the same time build the full flood protection of Oroville Dam without financial problems, provide a certain cushion against escalation of construction costs and for other contingencies, and assure availability of greater funds for replenishment of the Delta through water development of the north coastal streams.

This new program has been developed as the result of intensive studies conducted by the department during the past two years. We have worked on this in close co-operation with our financial consultants, Dillon, Read & Co., Inc.

Our modifications, which carefully observe the basic principles of the Burns-Porter Act and of Governor Edmund G. Brown's policies relating to the State Water Project, consist of the two following major elements:

1. We will issue about $325,000,000 in revenue bonds to be supported by the power revenues of the Oroville complex. We expect to issue these bonds over a four-year period beginning next year. Revenue bonds are authorized by the State's Central Valley Project Act, which the Legislature incorporated in the Burns-Porter Act.

2. We will apply federal Oroville flood control reimbursement moneys as necessary to payment of general obligation bond interest during the construction period.

This modification will avoid the necessity of borrowings from the State's General Fund to meet the costs of bond interest during early construction years on the project. Under the original plan, we estimated that such General Fund borrowings would have totalled about $67,000,000 over the next six or seven years.

The modified plan will provide a balance of about $250,000,000 of authorized but unissued general obligation bonds available, if needed, as a cushion against contingencies for completion of the initial State Water Facilities. This compares with about $32,000,000 which would have been available under the original financing method. Since we do not expect to use this cushion, under our modified financing method, there will remain an estimated $463,000,000 in general obligation bonds available for additional water facilities, quite probably for replenishment of the Delta through north coastal developments. This is $218,000,000 more than would have been available under the original plan.

This modified financing method will not change the price charged for project water. The mode of determining this price is fixed by the water supply contracts without regard to the manner of disposition of power revenues or the interest paid on revenue bonds.

The modified financing method is consistent with and supported by opinions of the Attorney General. It requires no new authority from the Legislature. It has already been discussed with legislative leaders.

This does seem to be an appropriate time to report to you on our excellent financial situation.

Just last week the State Supreme Court validated the California Water Resources Development Bond Act, otherwise known as the Burns-Porter Act, and upheld the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California contract, which is the prototype water supply contract. Every point was decided in our favor.

One of the factors which stimulated the studies culminating in this modified financing method was the fact that the Burns-Porter Act did not make provisions, as many bond acts have done, for payment of interest during construction from other than the General Fund. Another was the decision by Governor Brown to proceed immediately with construction of Oroville Dam in order that its vital flood protection be provided at the earliest possible date. The wisdom of this decision has, of course, been demonstrated anew. A sharply peaking flood crest this January swept through the damsite, which was the third such event in the past 12 months, and seriously threatened a repetition of the disastrous 1955 Yuba City flood downstream.

A brief comparison of the results of our modified financing method with those of the original financing method is included in the material handed to you (attached). You also have a chart (attached) summarizing the sources of funds for construction of the State Water Project.

The figures I have cited and those used in the tabulations are necessarily preliminary in view of current revisions being made in our estimates.

INTRODUCTION

Senator Collier introduced Senator Harold C. Giss, Majority Leader of the Arizona State Legislature.

ADDRESS BY SENATOR GISS

Senator Giss stated that the delegation is here on official business today. After 10 years of meetings and public hearings, the Arizona and California Boundary Commissions have completed their work; the compact was signed today in the presence of the Governor of Arizona and the Governor of California. Senator Giss stated that the members of the Arizona Legislature have had some small part in this accomplishment.

He remarked at their pleasure in visiting Sacramento, noting they have flown over the lush valleys of California and were amazed at what they saw.

Their legislature is scheduled for adjournment next Saturday. They will introduce fewer bills than the California Legislature will pass this session. They have 28 Senate members, and 80 assemblymen.

He noted that they have much the same problems as the California Legislature and are sympathetic with the Legislature and its problems.

REMARKS BY SENATOR COLLIER

Senator Collier referred to Governor Paul J. Fannin of Arizona, who had been expected to address the Senate at this time but had been detained.

Senator Collier remarked that one of the fine things about being a member of the Interstate Cooperation Commission is the opportunity it affords to work with such fine gentlemen. He also praised Governor Fannin for his consistent attendance at these meetings, and the extreme helpfulness he has displayed in the field of highway transportation.

REASSEMBLED

At 4.01 p.m., the Senate reconvened.

Hon. Glenn M. Anderson, President of the Senate, presiding.

Assistant Secretary George B. Beattie at the desk.

CONSIDERATION OF DAILY FILE (RESUMED)

THIRD READING OF SENATE BILLS

Bill read third time.

Recommendation of the Governor

In accordance with Article IV, Section 34 of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the consideration of Senate Bill No. 115:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, March 8, 1963

To the Honorable Members of the Senate and Assembly:

Senate Bill No. 115, "An act to add Article 15 (commencing with Section 6451) to Chapter 6 of Division 6 of the Education Code, relating to special educational programs for culturally disadvantaged children, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately," in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

"I, therefore, recommend consideration of Senate Bill No. 115 as an emergency measure.

Respectfully submitted,

EDMUND G. BROWN, Governor

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communications were received and read, and on motion of Senator Collier, ordered printed in the Journal:

1025 P STREET, SACRAMENTO 14
March 6, 1963

*Hon. Randolph Collier
State Senator, Second District
State Capitol, Room 3048
Sacramento 14, California*

DEAR SENATOR COLLIER: In accordance with your request, a survey for fire and life safety was made of the basement area of the main portion of the State Capitol Building.

The results of this survey indicate that important fire exposure hazards to the main portion of the Capitol do exist.

Construction of the basement naturally varies considerably because of the age of the structure and changes made through the years. Many of the walls and interior partitions are of brick or hollow tile masonry; others, however, are of wood frame construction with gypsum board or thin wood panel coverings. Where ceilings remain unaltered, they are of brick fashioned into shallow arches and held in place by exposed unprotected steel beams. Where alterations have occurred, ceilings of wood frame with gypsum board or plywood coverings have been suspended below the arched brick assemblies. In either case, however, the existing ceiling materials provide no rated degree of fire resistance in spite of a thin concrete deck which we understand overlays the brick assemblies and forms the first floor of the building above.

Penetrations of ceiling-floor assemblies by pipes, ducts, and electrical conduits have created innumerable unprotected vertical openings through which upper portions of the building are directly exposed from the basement. In addition, two unprotected interior stairways provide further means through which fire could gain access to the areas above.

Fire protection for the entire area at this time consists only of portable fire extinguishers and some interior wet standpipe and hose equipment. Due to limited means of access to the basement area, fire fighting operations would be seriously handicapped in the event of a major fire incident within this portion of the building. In such event, it is doubtful that fire hose streams could be effectively placed into operation from the exterior. Today, and for many years, minimum fire safety standards in buildings of similar design would require all such areas to be protected by means of automatic fire sprinkler systems.

At the present time the Capitol basement area is used primarily for storage and maintenance workshop purposes. This involves the storage and handling of combustible materials of all kinds including state records, many of which we understand may be irreplaceable. We are advised that the majority of storage and workshop areas are not under continual observation, particularly during the night-time hours.

Under all of these conditions, it is our opinion that a fire originating within the basement portion of the building would gain access to upper floor areas within a matter of minutes. In this event, major damage or even loss of the State Capitol could be the result. Therefore, we are offering the following recommendations, the fulfillment of which we believe will provide a reasonable degree of fire protection and safety from the exposure hazard now created by the basement area beneath the original section of the building:

1. An automatic fire sprinkler system should be installed throughout all portions of the basement area. We suggest that the automatic sprinkler system now installed within the adjacent parking garage be examined to determine whether this system could be extended to provide adequate coverage for the basement area.

2. Approved type one-hour rated fire doors, including door frames and hardware assemblies, should be installed at basement openings to the two interior stairways. These doors should be normally kept in the closed position.
3. Openings around pipe, duct, or electrical conduit penetrations through basement ceilings should be grouted solid with incombustible materials.

Little imagination is necessary to visualize the impact on the people of California following a fire of any magnitude within the State Capitol. Not only would a historical state monument be subjected to irreparable damage, but the very seat of our state government might well be jeopardized.

This inspection was made on an advisory basis only. The state laws now exclude state-owned or leased office buildings from the Fire Marshal's fire and life safety regulations. Other state buildings, such as state colleges, universities and state institutions, are regulated by the State Fire Marshal's regulations. Assembly Bill No. 907, introduced in this 1963 Legislative Session, could possibly provide the machinery necessary to effect expeditious and reasonable remedial action in situations such as this. Passage of this bill would certainly reduce the possibility of omitting basic fire and life safety measures from new or altered state office buildings.

If we can be of any further assistance in this matter, please call upon us.

Respectfully submitted,

GLENN B. VANCE, State Fire Marshal

1025 P STREET, SACRAMENTO 14

February 28, 1963

Hon. Randolph Collier

Sacramento 14, California

DEAR SENATOR COLLIER: In accordance with your request, we have caused an examination and evaluation to be made of the parking garage located beneath the Capitol Annex. This study was made to determine whether reasonable fire protection and safety exists in connection with the parking and storage of automotive vehicles.

The garage area is situated below the Annex at the easterly end of the Capitol. Construction of this portion of the building is of reinforced concrete and would most nearly be classed as Type I in accordance with present day building code standards. The garage appears to be adequately separated from the remainder of the annex and from the older portion of the Capitol by means of fire walls and approved type automatic fire doors.

A complete automatic fire sprinkler system has been installed throughout the parking garage area. Interior wet standpipes and portable fire extinguishers of the carbon dioxide type appear sufficient and reasonably well located.

Housekeeping and general maintenance of the area is excellent. Garage attendants are to be commended for the manner in which the garage is maintained. During the time of our study we particularly noted that grease and oil drippings were not permitted to accumulate.

We are particularly concerned, however, with the severe congestion within the garage caused by the number of parked vehicles. At the time of our examination we noted that, in addition to regular parking spaces, aisles were utilized to park vehicles in a double file arrangement. In the event of fire under these conditions, it is entirely conceivable that firefighting operations would be severely handicapped due to an almost complete lack of aisle access to a major portion of the area.

In view of these conditions, we offer the following recommendations as a means to provide reasonable fire protection and safety in connection with the parking garage area.

1. Establish and maintain a maximum number of vehicles to be parked within the garage according to the actual number of spaces available.
2. Prohibit the use of aisle-ways for the parking or storing of vehicles. Aisles should be maintained free and clear as possible at all times.
3. Provide one 40-gallon wheeled foam fire extinguisher. This extinguisher should be centrally located to be readily available for movement to any portion of the garage in the event of a fire resulting from a flammable liquid spill.

It may be of interest to note that under existing statutes the State Fire Marshal is delegated direct authority to adopt and enforce minimum fire safety standards relating to the design and construction only in state institutions and state college buildings. There is however, a bill before the current session of the Legislature which would extend responsibility to the State Fire Marshal for the establishment of minimum fire safety standards in all state-owned buildings.

In the event we can be of any further assistance, please call upon us.

Yours very truly,

Senate Resolution No. 85

Relative to the administration of public education

WHEREAS, The position and status of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Board of Education, and the Department of Education in the structure of the system of public education in this State is not clearly set forth in the Education Code; and

WHEREAS, The determination of the exact status of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Board of Education, and the Department of Education has been the subject of legal opinions for many years; in 1943 the Attorney General stated with reference to the applicable sections of law that "an examination of these sections discloses an apparent conflict which, if literally interpreted, would render certain provisions meaningless" and that "the controlling sections of the School Code are quite contradictory and ambiguous" (1 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. 36, at 37 and 38); and

WHEREAS, The controlling sections of the law have not been substantially revised since 1929 and the ambiguities referred to above are present in the existing Education Code; and

WHEREAS, The legal and practical problems posed by the existing laws governing the status, and position of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Board of Education, and the Department of Education is one which recurs periodically and has not been resolved; and

WHEREAS, The nature and scope of the problem is complex and involves many policy determinations of far reaching effect which should not be resolved without adequate time for extensive investigation and study; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the Rules Committee of the Senate be requested to refer this subject matter to an appropriate Committee or a subcommittee thereof for study and public hearing with a directive to said committee or subcommittee to make recommendations and report on this subject to the Senate no later than the fifth day after the convening of the 1964 Regular Session of the Legislature.

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were offered:

By Senator Rees:

Commending Sam David

WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the Senate that Sam David on February 24, 1963, celebrated 51 years as a barber in the Los Angeles area, and on March 17, 1963, he and his wife will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary; and

WHEREAS, Sam David came to America from Poland when he was 15 years of age and in 1912 began his career as a barber in Los Angeles; and

WHEREAS, In 1920, Sam David started devoting his spare time and countless evenings to giving free haircuts and bobs to boys and girls in orphanages and children's hospitals within the greater Los Angeles area; and

WHEREAS, On a conservative estimate, Sam David has over the years trimmed the hair of more than 100,000 sick and lonely children gratuitously, thereby boosting their self-esteem and making them feel wanted and worthwhile; and

WHEREAS, Sam David is affectionately known as the Barber of Los Angeles and has scraped the chins of numerous important government officials and others who, over the years, have trooped into his tiny three-chair shop in the Los Angeles Times Building, in the heart of the city's Civic Center; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the Members of the Senate congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Sam David on their Golden Anniversary, commend Mr. David for his great humanitarian work, and extend their best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. David for a long and happy future; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Sam David.

Resolution read, and referred to Committee on Rules.

By Senators Christensen, Lagomarsino, Sturgeon, Holmdahl and Collier:

Senate Resolution No. 87

Relating to nuclear power at Eureka

WHEREAS, At Eureka, America's first economically competitive nuclear power plant is in the final stages of fuel loading and will commence operation in the near future, increasing by 50 percent the power now being produced by two conventional plants at Humboldt Bay; and

WHEREAS, The design of this Humboldt reactor is expected to set a standard for future commercial power reactors, particularly because of the high safety factor achieved by setting the core underground; and

WHEREAS, While this plant is not expected to produce power more cheaply than conventional fossil fuels, it does anticipate the day when coal, oil and gas will not be abundantly available; and

WHEREAS, This is the first nuclear power plant entirely financed with private capital, at a cost of some $20,600,000 by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California. That the members thereof look with pride on this splendid example, within our State, of the resource and initiative of which our free enterprise system is capable, and they express the hope that this kind of forward looking progress may curb the expansion of government into those areas so well served by private industry; and be it further

Resolved, That the directors, officers and employees of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company who conceived and executed this project are to be particularly congratulated on this accomplishment which must be a source of great personal satisfaction to them; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate is directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to the Chairman of the Board of Directors and to the President of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

"ARTICLE I

The Lake Tahoe area, lying both in California and Nevada, possesses outstanding features of special significance that make their preservation and public recreational use a matter of concern to both states. The purposes of this compact are to create, protect, preserve, develop and interpret an interstate park system in the Lake Tahoe area of outstanding natural beauty, and of scenic, recreational, scientific and historic importance for the inspiration, use and enjoyment of the peoples of the States of California and Nevada, and to enhance the economic development of the region. Mutual advantages and benefits will accrue to both states by such co-operative action.

ARTICLE II

The State of California and the State of Nevada agree to create, develop and operate such an interstate park system to be known as the Lake Tahoe Interstate Park within the area of the States of California and Nevada described as follows:"

Amendment No. 2

On page 5, strike out line 19, and insert

"ARTICLE III

There is hereby created the Lake Tahoe Interstate Park Commission, hereinafter called the commission, with the powers and duties set forth herein. The commission shall consist of three members from each signatory state to be appointed in the manner set forth by state laws, provided that one of the California members of the commission shall be a member of the California State Park Commission, designated by the Governor of the State of California to serve during his term as a member of said park commission, and one of the Nevada members of the commission shall be a member of the Nevada State Park Commission, designated by the Governor of the State of Nevada to serve during his term as a member of said park commission. The members of the commission shall be residents of their respective states.

Each commissioner shall hold office until his successor shall be appointed. If any office, other than the two designated by title, become vacant for any reason, the governor of the respective state shall fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term. Each commissioner shall take the oath of office required by officers of his respective state. Commissioners may be reimbursed by the commission for expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

ARTICLE IV

A majority of the commissioners from each state shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

All meetings of the commission shall be open and public, and all persons shall be permitted to attend any meetings of the commission.

The commission may hold executive sessions to consider the appointment, employment or dismissal of its officers or employees, or to hear complaints or charges brought against such officer or employee by another officer, person or employee, unless such officer or employee requests a public hearing. The commission may also exclude from any such public or private meeting during the examination of a witness, any or all other witnesses in the matter being investigated by the commission.

ARTICLE V

1. The commission shall have power to:

(a) Sue and be sued.

(b) Contract and be contracted with.

(c) Adopt, amend and revoke bylaws, rules and regulations and prescribe procedures for the provisions of this compact. A violation of any such bylaws, rule or regulation shall constitute a misdemeanor under the law of the signatory state where the violation occurred. Each state shall enjoy and exercise exclusive jurisdiction with respect to arrest and the prosecution of offenders for offenses committed within its boundaries.

(d) Establish such offices as it deems necessary.

(e) Appoint, and at its pleasure remove or discharge, irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of the party states, such officers and legal, clerical, expert and other assistants and employees such as may be required, and fix and determine their duties, qualifications and compensation. Employees of the commission shall be eligible for social security coverage in respect to the old-age and survivors insurance, provided that the commission takes such steps as may be necessary pursuant to federal law to participate in such program of insurance as a governmental agency or unit. The commission may establish and maintain or participate in such additional programs of employee benefits as may be appropriate to afford employees of the commission terms and conditions of employment similar to, but not exceeding, those enjoyed by employees of the party states generally.

(f) Borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any state or government, or any subdivision or agency thereof, from any intergovernmental agency, or from any institution, person, firm or corporation. Personnel of a party state borrowed, accepted or contracted for pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph shall be deemed to be employees of that party state for the purposes of enjoying, if qualified, the rights and benefits of laws relating to employment security, civil service, workmen's compensation, public employees' retirement, and other laws enacted for the protection and benefit of such state's employees.

(g) Designate as peace officers such persons as it deems necessary. Such persons shall have the powers and duties of peace officers in any park within the interstate park system.

(h) Acquire and hold either by grant, gift, purchase, lease or exchange, and when not inconsistent with the purposes set forth in Article I, sell or convey, all legal and equitable title to or in any property, tangible or intangible, and either real, personal or mixed, to be used or held as a part of, in connection with, or for the purposes set forth in Article I. The commission's cost of acquisition shall not exceed the fair market value as determined by a qualified appraiser or appraisers.

(i) Perform all functions required of it by this compact and do all things necessary, proper or convenient to the full and complete performance of the powers and duties hereunder, either independently or in cooperation with any state, federal or local agency or other entity or person. No discrimination shall be made because of race, religious creed, color or ancestry with respect to personnel referred to in subdivisions (e) or (f), or with respect to any use of the property described in Article II. The commission shall be deemed to be performing governmental functions in the performance of its duties hereunder, and shall have full governmental immunity.

2. The commission shall, as soon as possible, prepare and adopt a comprehensive master plan for the interstate park system described in Article I for the area described in Article II. The commission shall seek to co-ordinate or integrate its plan as appropriate, with any regional or area-wide plan involving the comprehensive development of the Lake Tahoe region prepared by any public body with such regional or area-wide planning jurisdiction.

3. The commission shall submit an annual report to the Governor, Legislature and Commission on Interstate Co-operation of each party state.

4. The officers, employees, peace officers, departments and boards of each party state are authorized to do all things falling within their respective jurisdiction necessary or incidental to the carrying out of the compact in every particular.

5. The commission may institute proceedings in either party state, and the courts of the party states shall have jurisdiction to enforce, as against any person, public agency, institution, firm or corporation, any and all of the provisions of this compact and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto. Either party state may institute and maintain any action or proceedings, legal or equitable, as against the other party state in any federal court of competent jurisdiction for the protection of any right under this compact or the enforcement of any of its provisions.

6. The commission may designate property required by it for park purposes within the area described in Article II, and by resolution request the appropriate state authority to institute condemnation proceedings in accordance with the laws of the state where such property is located. In any action instituted by any state agency pursuant to such request, a determination by the commission that such property is required for the purposes of this compact shall be conclusive evidence:

- (a) Of the public necessity of such proposed public improvement.
- (b) That such real property or interest therein is necessary therefor.
- (c) That such proposed public improvement is planned or located in a manner which will be most compatible with the greatest public good and the least private injury.

ARTICLE VI

The costs of carrying out the purposes set forth in Article I may be defrayed by funds from appropriations, grants, gifts, the use of money received as fees and charges for the use of such parks and facilities, or by a combination of such sources of funds. The commission may charge for admission to the parks within the interstate park system, or make other charges deemed appropriate by it and shall have the use of funds so received for interstate park system purposes. Construction of or repairs to improvements and facilities in a part lying within the interstate park system shall be made in compliance with the laws and rules and regulations of the party state wherein such part is situated.

ARTICLE VII

No gambling in any park within the interstate park system shall be authorized.

ARTICLE VIII

The commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under the bylaws. However, all receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the commission shall be audited annually by a certified public accountant licensed in one of the party states, and the report of the audit shall be included in and become a part of the annual report of the commission. Records of all receipts and disbursements and minutes and proceedings of public meetings of the commission shall be open to inspection by the public during regular office hours.

ARTICLE IX

The commission shall submit to the Governor of each party state for presentation to the respective legislatures, a budget of its estimated expenditures for such periods as may be required. Each budget so submitted shall contain specific recommendations of the amount or amounts to be appropriated by each party state.

The commission shall not pledge the credit of either state except as authorized by that state. The commission shall not incur any obligations prior to the availability of funds adequate to meet the same.

ARTICLE X

When the commission determines that suitable lands within the boundaries outlined in Article II, and not within the state park system of either party state as of the effective date of this compact, are available to the commission for park purposes, and that funds are available to the commission for the operation of a park system including said lands, the commission shall so declare by formal resolution identifying said lands and declaring their availability to the commission. Upon the filing of such resolution with the Governors of both states, title or other interest to or in any property, tangible or intangible and whether real, personal or mixed, lying within the boundaries outlined in Article II used or held as a part of, in connection with, or for the purposes of the park or parks which constitute a part of the state park system of either party state and which is under the jurisdiction, management or control of the state park commission of the respective party states, or connected with the maintenance or control thereof, insofar as the same shall have heretofore been vested in either of such states, is thereby transferred to and vested in the commission, subject to such liens, easements, permits, and other contracts relating thereto or in respect thereof as may now lawfully exist. All such legal and equitable title shall thereafter reside in the commission without further act or deed or transfer. All legal and equitable title to or in any property, tangible or intangible and whether real, personal, or mixed acquired pursuant to the provisions of sub-paragraph (h) of Article V shall also reside in the commission.

All lands the title to which is held by the commission shall be and continue to be under the jurisdiction of the commission and shall be used for the purposes set forth in Article I; provided, however, that the commission shall have the power to grant leases, easements, licenses, permits and other rights over or to any lands held by it when in the opinion of the commission the same are not inconsistent with the purposes set forth in Article I.

ARTICLE XI

To the extent that legal or equitable title to any property resides in the commission, no taxing provisions of either party state shall be applicable to such property interest.

ARTICLE XII

Except as permitted by federal law, nothing in the compact shall be construed to impair or affect any rights, powers or jurisdiction of the United States of America or those acting by or under its authority in, over or to any lands within the area described in Article II or to subject any property of the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities to taxes by either party state or subdivision thereof.

ARTICLE XIII

This compact may be amended, modified or terminated at any time by the mutual consent of the legislatures of both party states. Provided, however, that the legislature of either state may terminate said compact if within five years from the date of this compact, the commission has not filed the declaration provided for by Article X.

In the event that this compact is terminated by mutual consent all property acquired by the commission shall immediately revert to the state in which it is located and shall be maintained by the state of situs for park purposes, and residents of each party state shall enjoy like privileges of use therein.

ARTICLE XIV

Neither the State of California nor the State of Nevada shall be liable for any torts of the Commission, its members, officers, or employees, except as provided by the laws of such state, but each member, officer, and employee of the commission shall, with respect to any tort committed by him in the exercise of his duties or in the course of his employment as such member, officer or employee, be deemed to be an officer or employee of the state where such tort was committed, and any liability arising from such tort shall be governed by the laws of such state.

ARTICLE XV

ARTICLE XVI

If any clause, sentence, paragraph or part of this compact or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall, for any reason, be adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this compact and the application thereof to other persons or circumstances, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered and to the person or circumstances involved."

WHEREAS, Clyde Doyle was born on July 11, 1887, in Oakland, attended schools in Oakland and Seattle, and graduated from the Long Beach High School in 1909 and the University of Southern California College of Law in 1917; and

WHEREAS, Shortly thereafter, he entered the practice of law in Long Beach and embarked upon his lifelong career of service in the public interest as a member of the city's board of freeholders which drew up the charter for the expanding city; and

WHEREAS, Over the years, he served as the charter president of the Long Beach Kiwanis Club, first president of the Long Beach Boy Scout Council, counsel for and trustee of the Adelaide Tichenor Hospital School for Crippled Children, director of the Y.M.C.A., trustee of the California Junior Republic, and as member and officer of a score of other charitable and civic organizations; and

WHEREAS, In 1936, he received a meritorious citizenship award from the Inter-Allied Council of Service Clubs in Long Beach. He was also the recipient of meritorious awards from the Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, American Veterans of World War II and Korea (AMVETS), and the Disabled American Veterans; and

WHEREAS, He was a member in 1941 of the State Board of Education, an advisory member of the National Recreational Association, a trustee of the California Conference of Bar Delegates, and an executive board member of the California Conference on Social Work; and

WHEREAS, He was first elected to Congress in 1944, and since 1948 has served for seven successive terms, achieving a well-earned reputation as an honest, hard-working dedicated representative of the people; and

WHEREAS, Governor Edmund G. Brown, on hearing of his passing said, "I valued his friendship, and his death saddens me personally as I am sure it does the people of the district whose interests he guarded so diligently during his years in public service"; and

WHEREAS, President John F. Kennedy also spoke very highly of Congressman Clyde Doyle saying, "During my years of association with him as a Member of the House of Representatives and as President, I respected his dedication to duty and admired his love and compassion for mankind. His death is a great loss to our country and the area he represented so well"; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the Members hereby join with the many friends and colleagues of Congressman Clyde Doyle in expressing their deep regret at his passing, and extending their heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved family; and, be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate is directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to the widow of Congressman Doyle, his daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Stanton, and his grandchildren, Dan Doyle Stanton and Clyde Douglas Stanton.

By Senator Collier :

Senate Resolution No. 89
Relative to forest fire hazards

WHEREAS, Data collected in the State's March snow survey indicated that water supply conditions during the spring and summer of this year will be seriously short in many of the forest areas of California; and

WHEREAS, While recent storms have resulted in some snowpack in areas where there was none previously, snowpack conditions are still far below normal; and

WHEREAS, It would, therefore, appear that the State will be faced with an extremely critical threat of forest fires this year; and

WHEREAS, Thus, in order to protect and preserve the forest areas which are so important not only for recreational uses, but also to the entire economy of the State, it is imperative that immediate action be taken by public and private agencies using or having jurisdiction over forest areas to formulate plans for the control and use of the forests designed to diminish the expected forest fire hazard; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the Senate requests the State Division of Forestry, the United States Forest Service and all other public and private agencies which use or have jurisdiction over forest areas in California to take action immediately to formulate plans for the control and use of the forests which are designed to diminish the expected forest fire hazard; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate is directed to send copies of this resolution to the Administrator of the United States Forest Service and to the Chief of the State Division of Forestry.

Senate Resolution No. 90
Relating to an interim study of mechanics' liens

WHEREAS, The Conference of State Bar Delegates appointed a committee to study the California laws dealing with liens of mechanics and materialmen at its 1958 Conference; and

WHEREAS, The study continued during 1959, 1960, 1961 and 1962; and

WHEREAS, A comprehensive report was submitted to the State Bar by the Conference Committee appointed in 1962 which report runs several hundred pages in length and from which it becomes obvious that further study at the State Bar level would accomplish nothing to bring clarity to the now confusing lien laws; and

WHEREAS, It seems apparent that public hearings must be held to resolve differences which now exist between various segments of the building industry, lending institutions and other groups which should be heard before any comprehensive changes are made in the existing law; and

WHEREAS, It would appear that the subject matter of the State Bar committee should be referred to an interim committee of the Legislature for a thorough and comprehensive study of the lien laws; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the Senate Rules Committee is directed to assign to the appropriate interim committee the subject matter of this resolution for study of the problems referred to herein, and that such committee report thereon to the Senate by not later than the 30th calendar day of the 1965 Regular Session, including in the report its recommendation for appropriate legislation.

WHEREAS, The students at the El Cajon Valley High School and the inhabitants of the El Cajon Valley area are rightfully proud of the Braves Band, as in 1962 it won the Sweepstakes and Highest Musical Score Awards at the Hawthorne Band Review and the Sweepstakes Award at the Long Beach All-Western Band Review; and

Relating to Freedom From Hunger Week

WHEREAS, The State of California is blessed with special soils and climate as a result of which we are able to produce an abundance of fruits, nuts, vegetables, rice, feed crops, cotton, milk, livestock, eggs, turkeys and chickens to the point that the State continues to lead all states in the volume and value of its agricultural products; and

WHEREAS, This State is a basic center for processing and shipping this abundance to every part of the world, not only through commercial channels, but through public and private agencies, to build the stamina and health of some three billion people whose diets are still at starvation or substandard levels in yet underdeveloped nations; and

WHEREAS, By contrast, the people of California enjoy an exceptionally high standard of living and are thus able to provide themselves with food in adequate supply; and

WHEREAS, The President of the United States, because of the concern of this nation for peoples throughout the world who are unable to obtain sufficient food to maintain health and increase economic growth, has declared the week of March 17th through March 23d as Freedom From Hunger Week, during which every American should consider his own good fortune in contrast to the peoples of the "have not" nations; and

WHEREAS, The Governor of the State of California on March 8th asked all Californians to join in this national dedication to and sharing of responsibility for alleviating world hunger; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the Members thereof concur with the proclamation of our President and Governor and request all people in our State to rededicate their minds and hearts to the inspiring possibility of working together to free the world from the scourge of hunger; and be it further

Resolved, That the Members of the Senate of the State of California support the action of our national government in acting as host to a World Food Congress to be held in Washington, D.C. on June 4th through 18th and will do everything within their power to co-operate in making this Congress truly indicative of the recognition by this State of its responsibilities in solving the problems of world hunger in a world and age blessed with the technological facilities to end for all time the spectacle of starvation and to clothe adequately all the peoples of this earth.

DEAR MR. BEEK: I am pleased to transmit for the information of the California State Senate Bulletin No. 21-61 of the Department of Water Resources entitled "Irrigation and Water Storage Districts in California, 1961," dated January 1963. This is the latest of a series of similar reports which have been published periodically since 1929.

Irrigation and water storage districts are required by law to submit reports of their operations to the Department of Water Resources. Irrigation districts and, in certain circumstances, other districts are also required to file similar reports with the California Districts Securities Commission. The statistical information in Bulletin No. 21-61 has been obtained from these reports. The present supplement contains information on the field operations of the districts for the year 1961.

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM E. WARNE, Director

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 13

Introduced by Committee on State Affairs and Public Institutions

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A concurrent resolution, Requesting the Congress of the United States of America to propose an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to provide for the appointment of electors of the President and Vice President on a basis similar to the election of the Congress of the United States.

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of South Dakota, the House of Representatives concurring therein:

WHEREAS, Under the Constitution of the United States election of the President and Vice President is by electors in the several states, appointed in each state as directed by its Legislature, with each state having an elector for each of its Senators and Representatives in Congress; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature in each state has directed that the appointment of its electors be by popular election on a statewide basis, a method that is not representative of the division of the voters within most of the states; and

WHEREAS, The whole body of electors (the Electoral College) is the exact counterpart of a joint session of the two houses of Congress in the representation of the states as units as well as the population of the states, and should be elected on a comparable basis so as to give the President and the whole Congress the same form of voting constituency; and

WHEREAS, The executive and legislative branches of the government of the United States rest upon nationwide constituencies so altogether different as to make Presidential U.S.A. and Congressional U.S.A. two different countries within one national boundary;

Now, therefore, be it resolved, That the Congress of the United States of America is respectfully requested to propose the article of amendment as proposed in Senate Joint Resolution No. 12, now pending in the United States Senate, as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

Be it further resolved, That duly attested copies of this resolution be transmitted immediately to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, directed to the Secretary of each body; to the members of Congress from this state; and to each house of the Legislature of each of the other states.

Adopted by the Senate February 26, 1963.

Concurred in by the House of Representatives March 4, 1963.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE
SACRAMENTO, March 1, 1963

*Hon. Members of the State Legislature
State Capitol, Sacramento*

GENTLEMEN: The Local Allocation Division of the Department of Finance submits herewith its 1962 Annual Report in accordance with the provisions of the State School Building Aid Laws and other public works programs administered by this division.

During 1962, the State Allocation Board approved applications for $108 million to help finance new school facilities valued at $185 million. Application volume is again increasing after a two-year decline, the rise so far being confined to the elementary level. Projects approved in 1962 will provide school capacity for 113,000 pupils, a 13 percent gain over the preceding year. School plant capacity financed with state aid since 1947 now totals 1,368,000 pupils.

Rapid growth in attendance and low assessed valuation per pupil continue to be the outstanding characteristics of districts receiving aid. It is estimated that requests for aid from this group will obligate the unencumbered balance of the 1960 and 1962 state school building bond authorizations by mid-1964.

Respectfully submitted,

HALE CHAMPION, Director of Finance
H. H. JAQUETH, Chief
Local Allocation Division

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Statement of

GOVERNOR EDMUND G. BROWN

on

GOVERNMENT REORGANIZATION

To the Senate and Assembly of the Legislature of California:

Two years ago, when I put before this Legislature the first proposals for reorganization of state government in California, I told you that "proper reorganization can best be accomplished over a period of several years. Too drastic an upheaval can thus be avoided and the benefits of experience in the early stages can be applied as further steps are taken."

Today I ask that you consider measures which will constitute a second major stage in the modernization of the executive branch of government. The proposals now before you will, in my judgment, result in more economical and efficient government not only during the life of this administration but for all administrations to come.

Until 1961, when we took the first steps toward streamlining state government, there had been no improvement in the structure of the executive branch in almost 30 years. The trend was toward proliferation rather than reduction of the many elements of government directly responsible to the Governor. As a result, the number of departments, bureaus, agencies and commissions reporting directly to the Governor had grown to more than 350. On the face of it, no Governor could find the time to consult effectively with 350 advisors, and the inevitable result was a diminution of government's responsiveness to the requirements of our 17½ million citizens.

Certainly no modern corporation would tolerate a management structure of such awkwardness and complexity, and I determined to apply to state government the now proven techniques of modern corporate management.

When I became Governor four years ago, I appointed a committee to study the organization of the executive branch. Out of that study came the Agency Plan—a proposal for grouping existing departments, bureaus, divisions and commissions into agencies, each with an administrator directly responsible to the Governor. The logical effect of this was the formation of the first Governor's Cabinet in the modern history of our State—a cabinet similar to the President's on the federal level.

With your enactment of the first stage of reorganization in 1961, and my appointment of the cabinet, the immediate result was a simplification of the structure of state government, economies in its operation and a higher degree of responsiveness.

I can tell you, without reservation, that the partial Agency Plan now in operation is fulfilling the high hopes we held for it two years ago. At the time of its enactment, the Legislature, with my support, also established a permanent Commission on California State Government Organization and Economy (The Little Hoover Commission) to appraise the preliminary steps taken and to recommend further improvements.

The commission worked diligently on its assignment. Hearings were held in all sections of the State and testimony from more than 90 expert witnesses was evaluated.

The prime objects of the commission's study were the four agencies to which you gave statutory recognition—Health and Welfare, Youth and Adult Corrections, Resources, and Highway Transportation. But it also gave much attention to four ex-officio agencies created by executive order—Business and Commerce, Revenue and Management, Public Safety and Employment Relations.

After examining the four statutory agencies, the commission agreed unanimously that they:

“—had made the Governor’s responsibility as Chief Executive more manageable and more effective.”

“—had filled a needed, but previously missing, level of political administrative leadership created by the size and complexity of California state government.”

“—had provided a potentially greater opportunity for more effective legislative review and improved communication with the executive branch.”

“—had produced specific and tangible benefits of program co-ordination among related departments, the elimination of overlapping services, and more effective utilization of manpower, space and financial resources.”

To this I add my own observation. Reorganization leads to the logical question: “Is it saving the taxpayers money?” I can tell you that it is.

When the first reorganizational steps were taken in 1961, I had such confidence in ultimate savings that no appropriation was made available in that year’s budget for the salary of the administrators. I said they would have to meet their own payroll out of economies within the departments they were administering. This was done, and both the savings and the salaries are now reflected in the budget document.

But the salaries of the administrators are but a fraction of the total savings under the Agency Plan. I will give you but one example of large-scale economy. One department proposed a budget of $475,000 for the first year’s operation of a program to establish motor vehicle emission standards. The agency administrator recommended contracting with another jurisdiction for the services at a savings of $115,800.

Over the past two years, administrators have given you other examples of meaningful savings, and I refer you to them for specific instances in which elimination of overlapping services and more effective management have led to economies for the taxpayer.

The Little Hoover Commission believes that what we have done is sound and so do I. But only the first step has been taken. If we are to reach our goal, other advances are now in order.

I

High in priority is the Governor’s need for prompt and effective executive staff services which marshal all the pertinent information vital to policy formulation and administration.

Staff advice now comes to me through two channels—my personal staff and the Department of Finance. Each makes an important contribution. My staff has the resources for determining public requirements. The Department of Finance has the resources to develop data quickly and to propose alternatives for meeting those requirements within our fiscal limitations.

But under our present system of government, the Director of Finance has a dual role. His primary responsibility is to serve as my adviser on policy, management and fiscal affairs. But he also has other major assignments, many of them unrelated to his principal duty. The demands upon him have become so heavy that it has become increasingly difficult to carry out his basic responsibility. In addition to preparing and administering the budget, the department now must provide office space, printing, communications, purchasing, automotive management and a host of other general services to state agencies.

He must also represent the State on 31 boards and commissions and provide a link between the administration and the Legislature on major fiscal issues.

Because of his many areas of responsibility, the director has had to strike a balance in the allocation of his time between the competing demands of fiscal management and general services.

A Director of Finance relieved of responsibility for administering general services functions involving more than 3,000 employees would be able to undertake more basic program analysis within departments than has been possible in the past. This is essential if significant economies are to be achieved.

Thus, my first proposal to you calls for a reorganization of the Department of Finance. To accomplish this, I support a proposal now before you to create a new Department of General Services, to include the Division of Architecture.

I also propose that activities of the Department of Finance which do not have a direct relationship to the department's primary mission, and which are not general service and supply functions, be transferred elsewhere in state government. As an example, the Division of Fairs and Expositions should become a part of the Department of Agriculture.

My purpose in asking for a Department of General Services is not merely to reshape the responsibilities of the Director of Finance. An independently strong and conclusive case has been made for giving departmental status to the service and supply functions. The proposed Department of General Services would have approximately 4,000 employees, a budget of $10,000,000, and would be concerned with the expenditure of over $300,000,000.

To illustrate, the Purchasing Division alone is responsible for annual expenditures approximating $100,000,000. Service and supply functions require specialized professional attention which can be achieved only through departmental status.

I asked the Little Hoover Commission to study this proposal before I presented it to you. It has produced a cogent report which reads, in part:

"In summary, the commission concurs that a basic reorganization of the Department of Finance is both necessary and desirable if the executive branch of the state government is to meet effectively the present and future needs of the state government and in turn the needs of the people of California. It is recommended, for the reasons stated herein, that steps be taken by the Legislature and the Governor to establish a Department of General Services separate from the Department of Finance. Such a proposal has been regularly and responsibly put forward for the past 25 years. In the commission's view, it is time to act. This action, in the judgment of the commission, will not only facilitate an improved level of general services administration but will permit the Director of Finance to devote his energy and talent to his principal assignment—that of being the Governor's chief fiscal, planning and program adviser."

The commission also suggested that the Office of the State Fire Marshal be removed from the Public Safety Agency and be placed in the new Department of General Services, thereby aligning it organizationally with other central services. I concur.

As you know, I also have considered reshaping the program, management, fiscal and planning activities of the Department of Finance into an Executive Office. I asked the Little Hoover Commission to make an extensive, impartial analysis and present its views to you and to me. The commission does not favor such a move at this time. Its special report reads in part:

"... the commission endorses the basic objective of strengthening the program, fiscal management and policy advisory services to the Governor. It is believed, however, that these objectives can be attained, at this time, through the continued existence of a reoriented Department of Finance as a separately identified department. After sufficient experience with the operation of a General Services Department and the new agencies, together with related internal reorganization and changed emphasis in the Department of Finance and the Governor's office, judgments concerning the need for further major reorganization of the central executive offices can then be reached on the basis of much more additional evidence than is now available."

This is a reasonable approach. I accept the commission's judgment that we should move cautiously and will not propose an Executive Office at this time. Rather, I suggest that we proceed as the commission suggests by establishing a Department of General Services, removing certain other activities from the Department of Finance, and working within this framework to achieve better co-ordination between my personal staff and Finance.

Through this reorganization of the Department of Finance, it is my intention to (1) provide for more vigorous administration in the area of essential service and supply; (2) to provide for a more effective attack on fiscal, program, management and planning problems, and (3) to work for more direct co-ordination between my office and those units remaining in the Department of Finance.

II

Next, I propose statutory status for the Business and Commerce Agency.

Experience to date has shown, to my satisfaction, that this agency is an effective combination of activities which are of great service both in improving the economic climate of California and providing necessary regulation to protect the public interest.

The Little Hoover Commission similarly approves statutory recognition of this agency.

The agency would have the following components:

1. The Departments of Professional and Vocational Standards and Alcoholic Beverage Control, with related boards and commissions.
2. The Departments of Insurance and Banking, the Divisions of Corporations, Savings and Loan and Real Estate, and the Districts Securities Commission.
3. The three Boards of Pilot Commissioners, the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, the Horse Racing Board and the Athletic Commission.
4. A new Office of California Development, consisting of the functions now performed by the Economic Development Agency and the World Trade Center Authority. I also contemplate that the Director of California Development will have available for consultation a California Development Advisory Board.
5. A new Department of Housing will be proposed to the Legislature in a separate message, with the recommendation that it be included in the Business and Commerce Agency.
6. The Office of Consumer Counsel, an office created by the Legislature in 1959 which has served as a watchdog of the consumer's pocketbook, and has clearly established its value.

Before you is a separate proposal for establishment of a new Office of Tourism and Visitor Services. I give this proposal my full endorsement and if it is adopted by the Legislature, I will propose that it be incorporated into the new Office of California Development.

I believe inclusion of tourism, the World Trade Center Authority and the Economic Development Agency within the Business and Commerce Agency is a logical grouping. State regulation of major financial institutions within the state has a direct bearing on what is being done in other sectors to develop a stronger foundation for our economy.

III

I also propose that we consolidate gains already made in existing statutory agencies.

Health and Welfare Agency

California has long had a reputation for excellence in its vocational rehabilitation service. However, there is a clear need for re-emphasis of this service in an age of swift technological change.

I therefore propose that we establish a Rehabilitation Department within our Health and Welfare Agency.

It has become apparent that present placement of the service within a department having the vast responsibility of educating our children has made it difficult for vocational rehabilitation to secure the attention and status it must have. Thus, it seems appropriate to recommend moving this function from the State Department of Education to the Welfare Agency, where it can co-ordinate its functions with the Departments of Mental Hygiene, Public Health and Social Welfare.

The success or failure of the rehabilitation effort has a direct impact on the health and welfare programs administered by this agency. Experience has shown that the person not successfully rehabilitated will, almost without exception, become a recipient of one or more of the programs under jurisdiction of the Health and Welfare Agency. Certainly, this would give the agency the greatest incentive to develop an increasingly effective program.

The department I propose would consist of a number of organizational units now in the Department of Education. Included would be Vocational Rehabilitation Service, Field Rehabilitation Services for the Blind, the Orientation Center for the Blind, the Opportunity Center for the Blind and California Industries for the Blind.

In developing this proposal, consultations have been held with the Superintendent of Public Instruction and his executive staff. They have been most co-operative and their views have been considered in developing this more appropriate separation of functions which are primarily vocational rehabilitation from those which are primarily educational.

As a further step to improve our rehabilitation services, I have included in the budget of the Department of Industrial Relations a screening unit to review the cases of industrially injured workers. This unit's purpose would be to alert the injured worker to the opportunities and services available to him.

This is a function now undertaken by many other states, but one to which too little attention has been paid in California. The proposal is consistent with the recommendations of the Council of State Governments for 1963.

When we took the first steps toward reorganization two years ago, we recognized there were many boards and commissions that should be assigned ultimately to the most appropriate agency. An example is the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Aging. While this committee concerns itself with many other interests of our senior citizens, its major activities are related to, and require co-ordination with, programs that come under the jurisdiction of the Health and Welfare Agency.

I therefore propose that you enact legislation to place the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Aging in the Health and Welfare Agency.

When you approved my recommendation in 1959 for creation of the Office of Co-ordinator of Atomic Energy Development and Radiation Protection, the newness of the program, the degree of public concern, and the importance of assuring co-operation of all departments of state government, made it advisable to place this responsibility directly under me.

The program we have since developed places California in a position of leadership in both atomic energy development and protection. The United States Atomic Energy Commission in recognition of this, has transferred certain of its regulatory prerogatives to California.

I believe the program is now sufficiently established to integrate it with comparable public protection functions.

I therefore recommend that you place this office within the Department of Public Health.

IV

Highway Transportation

If, as I suggest, you transfer the Division of Architecture from the Department of Public Works into the proposed Department of General Services, the name "Public Works" would no longer be descriptive of that department and the name should be changed to Department of Highways.

I also believe the Division of Aeronautics and the Aeronautics Board do not belong in the Department of Public Works and should be placed in the Highway Transportation Agency but not within a specific department of that agency.

The original name of the agency, Highway Transportation, suggests it concerns itself only with highways. Actually, the agency is involved with the relationship of highways to other forms of transportation and with the broad, comprehensive planning and development of all transportation.

I therefore propose legislation that (1) re-names the agency Highways and Transportation; (2) changes the name of the Department of Public Works to the Department of Highways, and (3) places the State Aeronautics Board and the Division of Aeronautics as an integral part of the agency rather than as a part of Public Works.

V

Youth and Adult Corrections Agency

At the present time we have an inconsistency within the Youth and Adult Corrections Agency in that the Board of Corrections is a part of the Department of Corrections. I believe it should be given separate status. This board has agency-wide scope. The agency administrator is its chairman by law and its membership includes the director of the Youth Authority, the vice chairman of the Youth Authority Board and the Director of Corrections.

I therefore recommend to the Legislature that we give the Board of Corrections separate status within the Youth and Adult Corrections Agency.

VI

Once more I propose to you legislation and an accompanying constitutional amendment granting the Governor the reorganization powers now given the President and governors of certain other states.

It would give the Governor authority to develop reorganization plans along the following lines:

1. Transfer of any unit of government, or its functions, to the jurisdiction and control of another.
2. Consolidation or integration of the functions within a unit.
3. Consolidation or integration of the functions of various units.
4. Abolition of part or all of the functions of any jurisdiction.
5. Abolition of any unit whose functions have been found obsolete.
6. Authorization for an officer to delegate any of his functions.

Under this proposal, the Governor would develop reorganization plans and present them to the Legislature for consideration. The plans would become law 91 days after final adjournment of the Legislature, unless either the Senate or Assembly passed a resolution disapproving them.

This would increase flexibility in the organization of the executive branch. The Governor would be responsible for determining necessary changes, but the Legislature would have veto power.

In 1932, the federal government gave the President broad powers to reorganize administrative agencies by executive order. This largely was a reaction to an economic crisis. In 1939, however, the President was given more permanent authority.

Today, the President's responsibility and authority to organize his administration is universally accepted. The President annually submits his plans for reorganization to Congress. These plans become law if not disapproved by Congress. Thus, the President has the power to initiate structural and functional changes, while Congress retains review and veto powers.

Several states have followed the federal example. In 1955, Pennsylvania's General Assembly passed a reorganization act modeled after the federal law, and the Alaska Constitution authorizes the Governor to make changes in the executive organization, retaining for the Legislature the power to review and approve or disapprove.

VII

Finally, while we all accept the fact that structure is important, it is skilled and dedicated personnel which ultimately determines the effectiveness of government.

I therefore support legislation favored by the State Personnel Board which will make it more certain that managerial talent is used to its fullest potential.

This measure would permit the State Personnel Board to establish, within the civil service framework, as provided by Article XXIV (24) of the State Constitution, a special merit system of selection, tenure and personnel management for the higher civil service positions in state government.

It would be a different and entirely separate system from that which is applicable to the regular civil service and the statutes which regulate and control the operation of the regular civil service would not apply to it. It would be applicable only to employees who are now in the highest levels of the present civil service structure, the relatively small number of employees who are at the level of Division Chief or higher. It would meet the special problems encountered in the selection, placement and retention of top-level administrative employees. No incumbent in an existing high level classification would lose any of his rights.

I believe the affected personnel should have a closer identity with the programs of their departments. Their advice on departmental plans and policies is often critical.

A departmental director may well want to redeploy his managerial staff to meet shifting program needs. He also may wish to place in key positions persons in whom he has complete confidence. He also may wish to assign responsibilities to those who have developed outstanding managerial capacity.

Regular civil service processes do not always make possible such flexible use of top civil service executives. Further, the selection of men for top executive positions often calls for development of information and use of appraisal processes beyond the limitations that govern regular civil service tests. Similarly, the legal guarantees that accompany permanent civil service status in a position—with removal for cause being a matter of serious personal incompetence or turpitude—are at variance with the need for a flexible assignment of top managerial talent.

The purpose of the proposed legislation is to enable the Personnel Board to meet this problem by authorizing it to create a merit system specifically tailored to the personnel management needs of top administrative posts.

In the large body of the civil service where the popularity and proven worth of traditional civil service practices and safeguards are well established, there need be no change beyond the continued effort at improvement that already characterizes the administration of this system.

The proposed legislation does not attempt to create, full-blown, an untried system. Rather it provides the machinery whereby the board can, with care and deliberation, develop and adjust a merit system which remains continually responsive to the particular needs of the state for top managerial talent.

Separate legislation dealing with water quality control in California will soon be presented to the Legislature. While it deals mainly with quality control of one of our most precious natural resources, it also has major organizational implications within the Resources Agency. I urge you give this serious consideration when it reaches you.

VIII

My recommendations for this second stage reorganization of the executive branch are extensive but cautious. They envision major changes in the present executive structure but in every case are conservative and logical extensions of first stage reforms already in effect.

I have no doubt they will arouse controversy. It is, unfortunately, the nature of government to multiply, rather than simplify, its functions. Interests within and without government will resist changes in a system—however unwieldy—which they believe presently affords them special protections or services.

But controversy must not divert us from answering positively the question that confronts government at all levels today: How can we serve the people more efficiently, more responsively, and more economically?

This message contains my answer. I submit it to you in the confidence that we share a common concern for the increasing demands on state government and a common determination to prepare government for even greater demands in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

EDMUND G. BROWN, Governor

March 20, 1963

GOVERNOR EDMUND G. BROWN

on

TAX REFORM AND REVENUE RECOMMENDATIONS

To the Senate and Assembly of the Legislature of California:

With this message I am submitting a two-year, two-phase series of tax reforms which should enable us to finance the services of state government through the 1964-65 fiscal year without new or higher taxes.

My Budget Message, sent to you February 4, contained a general summary both of the proposals and the reasons for presenting them at this session of the Legislature. In the intervening weeks you have had an opportunity to weigh my recommendations in the light of your own fiscal philosophies and to consider the comments of your Legislative Analyst.

I address you today to present further evidence in support of tax reform and to correct misstatements which have given rise to an unfortunate degree of confusion.

Let it be clear at the outset that I am not proposing new or higher taxes. I propose only that tax payments become more current with the essential state services they finance.

There is in the 1963-64 Budget now before you a gap between revenues and expenditures. But we can close that gap with reforms I list below, exclusive of withholding of personal income taxes. My recommendations for withholding affect not this budget but the budget for the 1964-65 fiscal year. And I can tell you quite frankly that unless the withholding system is adopted this year the alternatives before us in the Budget Session of 1964 will be withholding or a tax increase.

I have made a pledge that I will neither propose nor support new or higher taxes in the 1963-64 fiscal year and there is nothing in my tax reform recommendations that contradicts or evades that pledge.

It is most unfortunate that partisan attempts have been made to confuse my recommendations for next year with my commitment of this year.

Even a cursory reading of my Budget Message shows that we do not need withholding to balance this year's budget, but that we will need it, or a tax increase, to balance next year's budget.

It is true that I could present to the current session of the Legislature only my recommendations for balancing the 1963-64 budget and remove all possible cause of confusion. But I have chosen to submit the withholding feature to you in this session, instead of in the Budget Session next year, because it will give us a longer time to prepare for the changeover and to consider possible amendments adequately in advance of enforcement.

If it is your decision to enact the two-year reforms over two sessions instead of one, that is your privilege. But, I repeat: the necessity for enactment of withholding will be even more urgent next year and the narrow time span between enactment and compliance would create difficulties both for the State and for the taxpayer.

Admittedly, the tax reforms I recommend over the next two years will produce one-time revenue windfalls in those years. But we must consider them not merely as methods of balancing our budgets over the next two years but as long-range benefits that will place this State in a much stronger fiscal position into the long future.

What I propose is not new or experimental. Pay-as-you-go is the policy of the federal government and of 26 of the 32 states with a general personal income tax. All have found it equitable to the employer and to the wage earner. All have found it sound public policy. Governors Rockefeller of New York and Hatfield of Oregon both assure me that the sound-and-fury precedes the enactment of withholding. But once it is in effect both employers and wage earners regard it as a tremendous improvement over former collection procedures.

I re-emphasize that withholding must stand on its own merits. We should adopt it not as a temporary means of holding the tax line but as a wise and prudent long-range policy.

The present system is grossly unfair to the taxpayer who must pick up the tab for the tax-dodger or the new family that comes to California but does not pay its first penny of income taxes until a year or more later.

The present system forces the State to borrow from itself during lean revenue months and the interest cost is borne by the taxpayer.

The present system is obsolete by all sound fiscal standards.

I urge you to replace it with a system which will insure an orderly cash flow into our treasury; which will close loopholes now costing us many millions a year, and which will distribute the tax responsibility fairly among all our citizens.

But my immediate concern, of course, is with the first phase of my recommendations—action that must be taken to balance the 1963-64 Budget now before you.

First, however, let me summarize the essentials of our financial position. My budget calls for General Fund expenditures in the coming fiscal year of $2.11 billion—an increase of $187 million over the current fiscal year. Of this increase

Eighty-five million dollars represents additional state support for local public schools and higher costs relating to school operation. This includes $30 million in new state apportionments, approximately one-third of the amount sought by local school representatives.

Eighteen million dollars represents additional operating expenses at centers of higher education, approximately one-half the amount sought by those responsible for the direction of our state colleges and university.

Fifty-one million dollars is to be found in payments for public assistance, traceable not to new programs but to the increase in number of needy children and needy disabled and to the fact that this year we are using the surplus in our premium deposit fund before calling upon current tax revenue for adequate medical care of our senior citizens.

Twenty-two million dollars represents General Fund salary increases ($8.9 million more will come from special funds) in sectors where present pay schedules are most seriously out of line with comparable positions in other public agencies and industry. This, again, is approximately one-half the amount sought by the State Personnel Board and less than one-half the adjustment sought by the California State Employees' Association.

The above requirements, together with a heavier workload in the field of corrections and moderate improvements in the field of mental hygiene, account for the increase in General Fund requirements in 1963-64.

There is, of course, a multitude of minor adjustments resulting from population growth, but the four basic appropriations—none of which satisfies those most directly involved—are the determinants of our rising outgo.

Tax collections and other revenues available to the General Fund in 1963-64 from existing sources are estimated at $1.94 billion. This leaves a gap of $165.3 million between revenue resources and expenditure requirements.

The First Phase—1963-64

I propose we close our revenue gap this year by using surplus oil and gas revenue for support of education and by taking the first step toward a current payment system for taxes on personal and corporation incomes and insurance premiums. This more current collection system, together with surplus oil and gas revenue and the closing of tax loopholes, will balance our budget. Elimination of the features in our present law which allow postponed tax payment will alone produce $139 million in additional revenue.

Let me re-emphasize that I am recommending neither an increase in the tax rate nor a broadening of the tax base, and that this first phase involves no elements of the withholding system proposed to take effect next year. Rates will remain at exactly their present levels, and I propose to cancel income tax liability of less than $5 in the case of a single person and less than $10 for a couple or head of household. This also would become effective in the 1963-64 fiscal year and would relieve 850,000 persons of income tax liability at a cost of only $2.5 million to the State.

I do not have to spell out for you the vital statistics of our continuing population growth. We are expanding at the rate of 600,000 new residents a year. More than half come to us from other states and the remainder represent births within the State. The dramatic element of our growth is that each year we become a younger State. Our median age in 1950 was 32.1 years. It was 30 years in 1960 and will fall to 27.3 in 1970 and 27 in 1975.

Earl Warren once said our population growth is a bargain in terms of its eventual return to the State, and I agree. It is not, however, free of immediate costs to government—costs which are not repaid in the same year we must furnish essential services. This lag in revenue collections must continue to plague us unless we act to phase income more closely with outgo.

Roughly half of our General Fund tax revenue is fully paid when due. There is no installment option to be exercised at the discretion of the taxpayer. Horse racing fees are paid daily during a racing meet. Excises on cigarettes and alcoholic beverages are paid monthly. The sales tax for one quarter is due the first month of the next quarter.

Except for gift and inheritance taxes, the income tax and levies on insurance companies, banks and corporations—which amount to 40 percent of all General Fund taxes—are the only levies we do not collect on a reasonably current basis. Instead, we must wait up to two years for payment of revenues we are spending today for today's needs. It is here that I propose we take corrective action for the 1963-64 fiscal year.

I recommend, therefore, that the installment privilege for the bank and corporation tax and the personal income tax be eliminated after January 1, 1964. This will have the effect of bringing 95 percent of all General Fund levies into greater phase with cost requirements.

Here are my specific recommendations as they will affect banks, corporations, insurance companies and individuals:

Banks and Corporations

1. Elimination of the franchise tax installment option after January 1, 1964.

2. Closing of tax loopholes to bring our procedures into greater conformity with federal law affecting entertainment expenses, gifts, club dues and similar deductions. This also will affect individual income taxpayers.

The franchise tax is levied for the privilege of operating in California as a corporation. It is measured by the net profits from California operations in the previous year and is payable in two installments—one accompanying the tax return, the other six months later. In the case of a corporation operating on a calendar year basis, the return and half the tax are due March 15, the remainder September 15.

As the first step toward a current payment plan, the revenue program would require full payment by corporations when the return is filed. Because banks and financial corporations pay taxes at a rate nearly double that of general corporations, the new schedule will allow banks and other financial firms two years in which to accomplish this first step. This feature will add $82.5 million in General Fund revenue during 1963-64.

Insurance Companies

The insurance tax is one of our oldest state levies. It is paid for the privilege of doing business in the year in which the premiums are received. In this respect it is much like the retail sales tax which is levied for the privilege of selling tangible personal property. However the retailers must remit their sales tax after each quarter, whereas insurance companies have until June of the following year to make payment.

I propose to place the insurance tax and the sales tax on equal footing with regard to collections—both due in the quarter following the taxable transaction.

In this respect we shall be following the lead taken some years ago by New York and in 1961 by Pennsylvania with respect to life insurance companies.

Quarterly remittance of this tax after January 1964 will add $22 million to available revenue in the coming fiscal year and will provide a continuing source of $1.5 million additional General Fund revenue in future years.

You will hear complaints that any change in California's insurance tax laws will invoke retaliation by other states against California companies. This is possible but by no means likely.

By sponsoring and securing enactment of retaliatory statutes in nearly all states, the insurance industry has insulated itself against tax increases. In many cases, a state which raises its insurance tax rate risks subjecting its insurance companies to higher rates on business done in other states. For this reason there have been few changes in the state levies on insurance business during recent years. The share of government support contributed by insurance companies has remained stable. In 1939-40 insurance companies accounted for 2.5 percent of tax revenue in all states. Last year their share was 2.9 percent.

In sharp contrast, twenty-two years ago corporate income taxes accounted for 3.0 percent of revenue in all states; last year their share was 6.3 percent.

The situation is the same for California. Where two decades ago the insurance industry accounted for 2.9 percent of state tax receipts, they contributed only 3.1 percent last year. Bank and corporation taxes have moved from 7.7 percent of the total in 1939-40 to 12.6 percent last year.

It may be alleged that quarterly payments of the insurance tax will also result in retaliation which will require similar payments elsewhere. Again, I say this is possible but unlikely. There was no retaliation against Pennsylvania when it placed life insurance companies on a quarterly payment basis two years ago. If California joins Pennsylvania and New York in requiring quarterly remittance of this tax, other states are likely to follow and the issue of retaliation on this point will be short lived.

Let me make it clear that I have no desire to injure California insurance companies, even though they may be caught in tax webs of the industry's own weaving. But I do not believe that the insurance companies should either write our tax laws or circumscribe those whose responsibility it is to write these laws. The mere possibility of retaliation by some states should not prevent us from adopting desirable changes in our insurance tax laws. If having made these changes, there are instances of retaliation, I shall be glad to consider measures of relief at the 1965 legislative session.

Individuals

I propose we eliminate, after January 1, 1964, the option of paying the personal income tax in three installments. This change will have absolutely no effect on the 92 of every 100 taxpayers who already follow the practice of paying in full at the time they file their return.

Those with substantial tax obligations who now use the installment feature will be placed in the same position as those in the lowest brackets who must pay in full if the tax is $50 or less.

The present law gives these people eight extra months in which to discharge their obligations. Cancellation of this privilege as the first step in the current payment program will result in prompter collection of $35 million during the coming fiscal year.

Second Phase—1964-65

As the second step in an orderly transition to current payment procedures, I recommend the enactment of legislation providing for a withholding tax on personal income, effective July 1, 1964, and estimated tax payments by California banks and corporations, beginning in 1965.

These changes in our state tax system will require careful advance planning both by the State Administrative Office and the business firms involved. Adoption of the program at the current legislative session, rather than during the Budget Session of 1964, will not only provide time for this planning, but will afford opportunity for perfecting amendments, if needed, before the new procedure is actually placed in operation.

Individuals

Essentials of the proposal regarding the personal income tax include:

1. Payment by means of relatively minor payroll deductions starting in July 1964, supplemented by quarterly remittances by those with substantial income not subject to withholding.
2. Forgiveness of one-quarter of the tax on 1964 income when the return is filed in 1965.

I want to emphasize three important facts in connection with this proposal: I am not proposing new or higher taxes. I am not imposing the income tax on any person who does not already have a liability to pay this tax. I am not asking individuals or employers to do anything they are not already doing under provisions of the federal income tax. In fact, millions of individuals who are subject to the federal tax will not be affected by this part of the state tax program.

On the contrary, in addition to the cancellation of tax obligations for those in the lowest tax brackets beginning next year, forgiveness of one-quarter of the tax in 1965 will reduce the amount to be paid by a great many retired persons, farmers, small business operators and others who will be in no way affected by this legislation.

Because the withholding tax is probably the most important and far-reaching part of the recommended program, I want to discuss it in some detail.

First, we will conform with federal laws exempting agricultural and domestic workers from withholding.

Withholding procedures will apply to only about half of those persons who are regularly employed as wage or salary workers. The remainder are not subject to the income tax because of our relatively high exemptions and the various credits allowed in determining taxable income. Of course, those who enter the labor force on a temporary or seasonal basis will be subject to withholding, if their pay rates exceed the minimums. In all instances, refunds of any amounts over-withheld will be promptly made.

Withholding provisions will apply to single persons whose annual compensation for personal services exceeds a $2,340 annual rate and to married couples whose wage and salary rate exceeds $4,680 a year. The point at which withholding starts will rise approximately $600 for each dependent. For a family of four with salary income of $10,000 a year, the payroll deduction will amount to $1 a week and there will be a refund of at least $4 after the annual income tax return is filed.

Employers will begin deducting state income tax in July 1964. Larger firms will send this money to the Franchise Tax Board each month, with a formal tax return once each quarter. Small firms, withholding less than $100 a month, will remit quarterly.

Individuals who receive income from sources other than wages and salaries will file an estimated tax declaration and remit quarterly, if the tax on such income exceeds $40. In this respect, state practice will follow that of the federal government, except that the state law will allow for a much larger income from these sources before there is an obligation to make a tax declaration and pay currently.

The transition from present income tax procedures will be substantially eased by the provision forgiving one-quarter of the tax due on 1964 incomes when the tax return is filed in 1965. In making this allowance, California will be the first state to adopt a forgiveness feature without at the same time raising tax rates or reducing exemptions. New York, Minnesota and Wisconsin, the only other states granting forgiveness, all increased the amount of their levies before cancelling tax obligations.

I do not claim this transition can be made without an overlap in tax payments. During the period which begins July 1, 1964, and ends June 30, 1965, many of our people will pay one and one-fourth year's tax. However, hundreds of thousands whose tax payments are not changed by the transition—those living on moderate retirement incomes, many small businessmen and farmers—will actually pay only three-quarters of their normal tax.

So let me quiet once and for all the specious claim that this is double taxation or two-years' tax in one, or any of the other false statements concerning this period of transition.

From the taxpayer's viewpoint the principal advantages of the proposed current payment plan are convenience and ease of payment. The great majority of taxpayers will find their state income tax obligation fully paid through the paycheck deduction.

There will be no more need to meet last year's tax debt from this year's reduced income, as now occurs in the year after retirement or after a reduction in current earnings. Similarly, there will be far less likelihood that the lump-sum tax payment, or an installment, will coincide with the unforeseen expense of an illness or an accident.

A more equitable distribution of the taxload is a third advantage of current payments. In a state such as California, even with outstanding tax administration and enforcement, many escape taxation entirely. Some leave the State. Others manage to keep one step ahead of the tax collector until collection expense becomes costly and the tax is written off by the State as a bad debt. Still others evade the tax until one or another feature of the present enforcement program uncovers their delinquency.

Under withholding tax procedures, these types of evasion and avoidance will become far more difficult, if not impossible, and these people will start to pay their share of the cost of state governmental activities currently for the first time.

On adopting the withholding system, New York collected $40 million more than it expected to receive on the basis of experience. This represented 5 percent of its total collections. Maryland raised its collections 11.5 percent; Kentucky 9 percent and Utah 6.5 percent. It is entirely reasonable to expect that California, despite excellent present administration, will uncover some evasion and the revenue estimate, therefore, contains an allowance of $10 million—an amount equal to roughly 3 percent of the present receipts—to cover this aspect of the improved tax program.

The cost of compliance should also be placed in proper perspective. All employers are currently deducting federal withholding tax. This plan will involve merely an extension of existing procedures. In all instances the cost should be nominal.

Similarly, there will be additional expense to the State. The initial cost is estimated at $2.5 million, but this expense will be reduced as present administrative practices are discontinued and the full economies of modern tax machinery and methods are realized.

Of the 32 income tax states, 26 now use the current payment plan in one form or another. The list includes such major industrial states as New York and Massachusetts, such progressive states as Minnesota and Wisconsin, such conservative states as Vermont and Virginia, and the new states of Alaska and Hawaii. Nine of the 13 western states use this collection procedure. Approximately 85 percent of all state income tax nationally is now collected in this way.

I am, therefore, not proposing an innovation nor imposing burdens not generally carried by the citizens and the employers of more than half of our sister states.

Current payment of the income tax through withholding and tax declarations will produce an estimated $96.2 million for the state General Fund. This, coupled with the loophole closing and other revisions recommended for the coming fiscal year, will total $99.1 million in receipts from this source during 1964-65.

Banks and Corporations

The essential points of my recommendations regarding the bank and corporation tax to be made effective in 1964-65 are:

1. Provision for an estimated tax return by larger banks and corporations beginning in 1965.
2. Credit for the double tax paid in the past by most of our corporations.

The franchise tax is levied for the privilege of operating in California as a corporation. It is now measured by the net profits from California operations in the previous year and is payable in two installments—one accompanying the tax return, the other six months later. In the case of a corporation operating on a calendar-year basis, the return and half the tax are due March 15, the remainder September 15.

The essence of my proposal with regard to this tax is that the measure of the tax for the privilege of operating in a current year shall be the profits of that year. This will involve an estimate of earnings, partial payments as the year progresses and a final settlement after the yearend. Calendar year corporations and banks would estimate their earnings for 1965 and pay half the tax in June of that year. The remainder would be paid in December and a final tax return would be made in March 1966.

In order to limit the application of this procedure and avoid possible hardship upon small corporations, I recommend that estimates and current payments should be required only when annual taxable earnings exceed $25,000.

Under present law, newly organized corporations and those extending their operations to California pay a double tax in their second year. Both taxes are measured by their first-year profits. One is for the privilege of having operated in that first year and the other is for the privilege of operating in year two. In lieu of partial tax forgiveness for all corporations, I recommend that those which have paid a double tax under this feature of the present law be given a credit against the tax on 1964 profits—payable in 1965—in the amount of this double tax, a sum estimated at $65 million.

This plan will also close one of the major loopholes in our corporation tax law. The provision making one year's profit the measure of the next year's tax is a standing invitation for fly-by-night operators and single project corporations to concentrate tax-free income in the last year of operation. Under my recommendations this channel of evasion will be closed.

The tax payment by banks and corporations, less the credit offset, will produce $32 million additional General Fund revenue in the 1964-65 fiscal year. This, together with the final installment payment of the 1964 bank tax and the loophole closing amendments recommended for the coming fiscal year, will provide a total of $44 million additional revenue from the bank and corporation tax in 1964-65. An estimated $40 million will be added in the following fiscal year as the accelerated payment program is fully achieved.

The estimated tax procedure and current payment plan recommended for banks and corporations is neither new nor costly of administration. The federal government now requires that such an estimate and tax payment from the larger corporations be made in September and the revenue bill now before Congress advances this date to March. Oklahoma has followed this plan since 1961 and Georgia has just recently adopted such a program.

In all, less than 20,000 corporate taxpayers will be required to file an estimate of current earnings; thus, the cost of compliance and state expense will be a minute fraction of the revenue involved.

Insurance Companies

I also urge you to take action at this session towards elimination of the so-called principal office deduction currently given insurance companies. It would not take effect until the 1964-65 fiscal year—and would have no effect on the budget now before you. But action should be taken this session if this proposal is to appear as a constitutional amendment on the 1964 ballot.

The insurance tax is levied in lieu of all other taxes upon the insurance industry, except real estate taxes and motor vehicle fees. This blanket exemption includes not only state taxes but local privilege taxes as well, both on the insurance companies and on their salesmen.

If the insurance company owns a principal office in this State, the local property taxes paid on such holdings may be offset against the state insurance tax. Last year this offset amounted to $4,291,000 and it is increasing at approximately $500,000 a year.

Curiously, only one out of every seven insurance companies has taken advantage of this deduction. In many instances the home office is principally an insurance company office. But in many other instances it is a commercial structure, housing stores, offices, garages and other business tenants in direct competition with other commercial building operators who receive no offset against their state tax obligations.

A constitutional amendment and the necessary statutory changes would eliminate this subsidy to one-seventh of the insurance companies. If this is done, the 2.35 percent tax rate will apply equally to all insurers, except those engaged in ocean marine business who pay 5 percent of their underwriting profits. It will end the state subsidy for one commercial structure in competition with another, and it will return $5.3 million to the State Treasury in 1964-65.

I recommend, also, that revenue from the surplus line brokers' tax be deposited in the State General Fund rather than the Insurance Fund.

The surplus line brokers' tax applies to insurance placed by a broker with a company which has not been admitted to sell insurance in this State. Except that the rate is 3 percent and collections go to support the Insurance Commissioner's office, it is exactly like the gross premiums tax collected for support of general government.

In total, elimination of the principal office deduction, estimated to be $5.3 million in 1964-65; earlier realization of the growth in the insurance tax base, and this broader use of the surplus line tax will produce $7.5 million for the State General Fund in 1964-65 and even larger amounts in subsequent years.

The General Fund revenue effect of this co-ordinated program is estimated to be $151 million in 1964-65. This, however, is by no means its total dimension. It will provide at least $96 million in 1965-66 and a minimum of $62.5 million a year on a continuing basis as long as California maintains its recent growth rate. Part of this will come through better tax enforcement, part through the closing of loopholes in the present law, part as the result of our inevitable growth. Make no mistake, I am not asking you merely to harvest a tax windfall but to adopt the modern methods of tax administration now employed by many other states.

Another important result of the recommended program will be the marked improvement in the flow of General Fund revenue and a better relationship between income and outgo, as shown in the accompanying chart. The trough now experienced in the October-December quarter under the present system will be eliminated and peak flow of the April-June period will be materially reduced. This will eliminate the necessity of borrowing from special funds.

There are those who would postpone action on the withholding tax program and the current payment plan for corporations. These people are not facing the problem of providing this year's services for this year's population out of last year's income. I can assure them that the problem will not vanish and it will not diminish in size. As long as our public school enrollments continue to grow by more than 220,000 a year, we must provide for increases of more than $44 million in apportionments for school support. As long as we have 12,500 more students each year seeking an education at our state colleges and university, we must provide additional millions for support of these centers. So long as we gain 600,000 new citizens each year, we must provide the governmental services these persons require.

IMPROVED PATTERN OF GENERAL FUND INCOME AND OUTGO

This chart shows the improvement in the flow of State General Fund revenue which will result from income tax withholding and current tax payments by banks, general corporations and insurance companies. The revenue trough experienced in the October-December quarter under the present system will be eliminated, and the peak flow of the April-June quarter will be materially reduced by the proposed plan. At the same time revenue receipts in every quarter will more closely align with expenditure requirements of that quarter.

Despite our tremendous population growth, California in the last four years has established one of the most outstanding tax records of any of the 50 states. Over the four years from 1958 through 1962, the per-capita tax increase here—19 percent—has been half the increase shown in the nine other major industrial states and less than half that experienced in New York.

The record is even more enviable when expressed in terms of our growing volume of personal income. California's 10 percent increase in state tax burden per $100 of personal income compares with 16.7 percent in other states combined, 22 percent in the other industrial states and 31.5 percent in New York.

Adoption of the revenue program I have here recommended will make it possible to continue this outstanding record for another two years, when the economic growth resulting from the reduction in federal taxes will drastically cut, if not actually eliminate, the present gap between General Fund resources and expenditure requirements.

The Need for Tax Study

Our present structure of taxation at the city, county and state levels is an anachronism, based on realities that existed decades ago, but exist no longer.

History and California's spectacular growth have demolished many of the tax relationships among the various levels of government.

Some of the basic questions needing answers are:

What are the fiscal requirements of the tasks of government in California?

Which of these should be carried by cities, which by counties, and which by the State?

What are the fiscal relationships between and among these levels of government?

Who should collect the needed tax revenues to perform these tasks?

Should the State continue to finance or collect the taxes for functions which are clearly identified as local responsibilities?

Or should new tax authority be made available to local governments?

What is the impact of the tax burden on the various segments of our economy and society?

Is the burden equitably distributed or does it need to be repackaged so we all carry our fair share of the load?

What is the impact of federal taxation on our economy and how does it relate to our tax system?

Are we earmarking too large a share of revenues for specific purposes, and is this done on a sound basis?

Do we have a structure which easily permits adjustments necessary to meet changing conditions and needs?

Is the system such that the taxpayer can readily identify what his money is used for and by whom?

We need the answers, and in order to obtain them, legislation will be introduced shortly to appropriate the necessary funds to conduct the survey.

I am recommending that a nationally recognized taxation expert from outside California with the highest credentials in the field be retained to direct the study.

He should be jointly responsible to the Governor, acting through the Director of Finance; and the Legislature, acting through whatever committee or representatives the Legislature selects.

I propose that a Tax Advisory Commission, composed of leading representatives of the business community and state and local government, be created to advise on the scope and direction of the survey.

In addition, I urge the formation of a technical advisory committee of tax experts representing various segments of the economy and state and local government. Such a committee would assist and advise the Tax Research Director and serve as a technical link between him and the Tax Advisory Commission.

If these steps are taken now, California will be in a position to proceed realistically on tax problems at the beginning of the next regular legislative session.

If they are not taken, the State, in my judgment, will be faced with ever-mounting tax inequities that injure both the citizen taxpayer and California.

I recommend the two-year program before you without reservation. But I also recognize that it does not fully answer all the questions of the future.

The program would see us through until 1965, and it would favorably influence the situation which will then be before us, but the fact remains that there will be many intervening and now unknown economic events both nationally and in California.

I am therefore proposing that we act now to authorize a comprehensive tax study which will provide the facts for any necessary legislative action in 1965.

EDMUND G. BROWN, Governor

By Senators Donnelly, Arnold, Begovich, Burns, Cameron, Christensen, Cobey, Collier, Dolwig, Farr, Goddes, Gibson, Grunsky, Holmdahl, Lagomarsino, McCarthy, Miller, Murdy, Nisbet, O'Sullivan, Petersen, Quick, Rattigan, Rees, Regan, Rodda, Schrade, Short, Stiern, Sturgeon, Symons, Teale, Way, Weingand, and Williams:

Senate Resolution No. 85Relative to the administration of public education

WHEREAS, The position and status of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Board of Education, and the Department of Education in the structure of the system of public education in this State is not clearly set forth in the Education Code; and

WHEREAS, The determination of the exact status of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Board of Education, and the Department of Education has been the subject of legal opinions for many years; in 1943 the Attorney General stated with reference to the applicable sections of law that "an examination of these sections discloses an apparent conflict which, if literally interpreted, would render certain provisions meaningless" and that "the controlling sections of the School Code are quite contradictory and ambiguous" (1 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. 36, at 37 and 38); and

WHEREAS, The controlling sections of the law have not been substantially revised since 1929 and the ambiguities referred to above are present in the existing Education Code; and

WHEREAS, The legal and practical problems posed by the existing laws governing the status and position of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Board of Education, and the Department of Education is one which recurs periodically and has not been resolved; and

WHEREAS, The nature and scope of the problem is complex and involves many policy determinations of far reaching effect which should not be resolved without adequate time for extensive investigation and study; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the Rules Committee of the Senate be requested to refer this subject matter to an appropriate committee for study and public hearing with a directive to said committee or subcommittee to make recommendations and report on this subject to the Senate no later than the fifth day after the convening of the 1964 Regular Session of the Legislature.

"INTERSTATE COMPACT DEFINING THE BOUNDARY BETWEEN THE STATES OF ARIZONA AND CALIFORNIA"

Article 1. Purpose.

The boundary between the States of Arizona and California on the Colorado River has become indefinite and uncertain because of meanderings in the main channel of the Colorado River with the result that a state of confusion exists as to the true and correct location of the boundary, and the enforcement and administration of the laws of the two states and of the United States have been rendered difficult.

The purpose of this compact is to fix by reference to stations of longitude and latitude the location of the boundary line between Arizona and California on the Colorado River from the southern boundary of the state of Nevada to the point on the international boundary which is common to the boundaries of Arizona and California and the United Mexican States.

Article II. Description.

The boundary between the states of Arizona and California on the Colorado River from the point where the oblique boundary between California and Nevada intersects the 35th degree of north latitude, said point being common to the boundaries of the States of Arizona, California and Nevada, to the point on the international boundary which is common to the boundaries of Arizona, California and the United Mexican States, shall be in accordance with the following description in general terms of 34 points on the boundary:

General Description of Boundary Between Arizona and California

Point No. 1. The intersection of the boundary line common to California and Nevada and the centerline of the channel of the Colorado River as constructed by the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation, said point being common to the boundaries of Arizona, California, and Nevada, where the 35th degree of north latitude intersects the centerline of said channel; thence downstream along and with the centerline of said channel to the southerly end of said construction to Point No. 2, which is located in the center of the channel of the Colorado River approximately one-half mile northerly from the A.T. & S.F. Railway Bridge at Topock; thence downstream on a straight line to Point No. 3, which lies in the Colorado River vertically below the centerline of the A.T. & S.F. Railway tracks at a point midway face-to-face of abutments of the A.T. & S.F. Railway Bridge at Topock, Arizona; thence on a straight line downstream to Point No. 4, which lies in the Colorado River vertically below the centerline of U.S. Highway 66 at a point where said centerline intersects the center of the center pier of the highway bridge; thence on a straight line to

Point No. 7, which lies in the center of the Colorado River approximately 2,050 feet upstream from the earth fill of Headgate Rock Dam; thence on a straight line to Point No. 8, which is the center of the earth fill of Headgate Rock Dam; thence on a straight line to Point No. 9, which lies on the centerline of the river approximately 3,625 feet westerly from Point No. 8; thence on a straight line to Point No. 10, which lies in the center of the Colorado River at a point where the parallel of 34° 10' north latitude intersects said centerline; thence on a straight line to Point No. 14, which is the center of the Cibola Bridge midway between abutments; thence down the Colorado River midway between the shore lines on the right and left banks, ignoring future channelization by the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation to

Point No. 15, which lies on the centerline of the Colorado River approximately 8400 feet northward of the center of the overflow section of Imperial Dam; thence on a straight line to

Highway 80 Bridge across the Colorado River; thence down the center line of the Colorado River midway between the shore lines on the right and left banks to

Point No. 33, which is a point in the Colorado River vertically below the center of the new U. S. Highway 80 Bridge; thence down the centerline of the Colorado River midway between the shore lines on the right and left banks to Point No. 34, which is the intersection of the centerline of the Colorado River and the International Boundary Line between California and the United Mexican States, which point is common to the boundaries of Arizona, the United Mexican States, and California.

These points will be marked on existing bridges and dams and where appropriate will be monumented. Between each of these points will be a number of subpoints not monumented. The total number of points and subpoints will approximate 234. The United States Coast and Geodetic Survey will locate the above mentioned 34 points on the boundary by precise geodetic surveys. The Coast and Geodetic Survey will locate the remaining approximately 200 unmonumented subpoints by precise photogrammetric methods and will provide a list of the geographic positions and state co-ordinate positions (transverse Mercator system for Arizona and Lambert system for California) of each of the 234 points on the boundary. The approximately 200 unmonumented subpoints will be identified on copies of the aerial photographs by the State of Arizona and California to define the boundary; the Coast and Geodetic Survey will then locate the points so identified by analytic aerotriangulation (photogrammetric methods).

When the survey and boundary description has been completed by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey and the Boundary Commissions of Arizona and California have each certified that it is in conformity with the General Description of Boundary between Arizona and California set forth herein, it shall be attached hereto and marked Exhibit "A" and made a part hereof as though fully incorporated herein as the permanent description of the boundary between the states of Arizona and California.

Article III. Ratification and Effective Date.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

March 21, 1963

Hon. Glenn M. Anderson, President and Members of the Senate

GENTLEMEN: This special committee appointed by the Senate Rules Committee for that purpose, participated in the hearing conducted by the State Lands Commission on February 28, 1963 relating to a proposed agreement between the City of Long Beach and the successful bidder for the extraction of oil, gas and hydrocarbons from the East Wilmington Oilfield underlying tide and submerged lands held in trust by the city.

A careful analysis of the testimony presented by the staff of the Division of State Lands, a representative of the Office of the Attorney General, persons appearing on behalf of the City of Long Beach and members of the oil and gas industry, plus subsequent reviews of other pertinent and related material, leads this committee to conclude that there are many questions of legal, geological and economic content which have not, as of this date, been answered.

In view of the fact that this oilfield is reputed to be the largest known oil reserve in the Western Hemisphere, the exploitation of which is of major concern to this State, the committee has further concluded that a technical, objective study be made to resolve all of those questions before production from this oilfield is authorized.

Some of the specific imponderables relate to intent and impact of various local, state and federal taxes; of antitrust determinations; of liabilities as between the contractor, the city and the State; of the capacity and geological aspects of the oil pool; of the title aspects of a lease; of the relative merits of a "net profit" v. s. a leasing arrangement; of subsidence abatement methods; of the rate of extraction including the effect of such rate on crude imports and the effect on the industry and the income to the city and State of the combined production and crude import potential; of the income to the State and city based upon the average per barrel posted price v. s. highest per barrel posted price; of the proposed interest rate to be paid the successful bidder by the State and the city on any advances on production; and of the specific tract inclusions in a unit operating agreement.

This committee respectfully submits that the need to secure positive evaluations of these as well as other questions is of such a critical nature in view of the monetary and economic potentials involved, that a specific study needs to be authorized by the Senate of this entire proposal, envisioning the short-term employment of a consulting petroleum geologist, an economist and a lawyer.

It is further recommended that such study be initiated immediately by the General Research Committee of the Senate so that a report may be submitted for consideration by the Legislature during its 1963 Regular Session.

Respectfully submitted,

VIRGIL O'SULLIVAN
STEPHEN P. TEALE
STANLEY ARNOLD

Resolved, That the Senate Rules Committee assign this resolution for study to the General Research Committee of the Senate, directing such committee to make a thorough physical, legal and economic appraisal of the proposed oil, gas and hydrocarbon extractions, as expeditiously as possible, and to report its recommendations thereon to the Senate at this session of the Legislature; and be it further

PRAYER

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Father Keith Kenny:

A prayer of atonement, Merciful God. Forgive us our trespasses in the proportion and the measure that we are willing to forgive those who have trespassed against us. For every unkind word, have mercy, O Lord. For every failure of weakness, or pride, or anger, or lust, or selfishness, forgive us, O Lord. For the temerity with which we have set ourselves above others, thought first of our comforts, our needs, and last of those of Thy little ones. For every time that we have failed Thee, please find it in Thy measureless mercy, O God, to forgive and forget. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. AMEN.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that this special act relating only to the City of Santa Barbara is necessary in view of the special facts existing only with respect to the city. A loan of seven hundred thousand dollars ($700,000) had been made to the city for the development of a small craft harbor project. Due to various factors, expenditure of additional money became necessary in order to complete the project. In November of 1962, the Small Craft Harbors Commission authorized an additional loan of one hundred eighty thousand dollars ($180,000) to the city for the completion of the project. Upon such authorization being made, the city, acting in good faith and in the belief that when the additional loan was actually made it could reimburse itself from the proceeds, went ahead with work on the project, expending its own funds. There is no authority granted by the Small Craft Harbors Law for the use of loan proceeds for such reimbursement. This act is necessary, therefore, to provide an equitable remedy for this special problem affecting the City of Santa Barbara."

SACRAMENTO, March 26, 1963

Hon. Glenn M. Anderson
President of the Senate

DEAR SIR: The Senate Fact Finding Committee on Revenue and Taxation created pursuant to Section 12.5 of the Standing Rules of the Senate and in accordance with Senate Resolution No. 244, Sec. 10, adopted at the 1961 Regular Session of the Legislature, herewith submits its first report.

This report constitutes an inquiry into the problem of imposing a state license (in-lieu) tax upon boats in California raised by Senate Bill No. 998 introduced at the 1961 Regular Session of the Legislature. It is entitled "An Analysis of the Proposal to Impose a State License Tax In-Lieu of Local Taxes on Boats." After comparing estimates of revenues from local property taxes with those that might be anticipated from a state license tax on boats, the report presents the case for and against a state-imposed in-lieu tax.

The committee gratefully acknowledges the assistance of the Division of Small Craft Harbors, the State Board of Equalization, the County Assessors Association, and the many officials of cities, counties and boating associations who generously provided their time and information and testimony to the committee in its study of this proposed tax measure.

Assembly Bill No. 116, "An act to add Sections 2020.001 and 3084.05 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to attendant and other special services for recipients of public assistance, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately."

in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

The failure to act at once will result in the loss of certain federal matching funds in the OAS-PAMC Program.

I, therefore, recommend consideration of Assembly Bill No. 116 as an emergency measure.

Respectfully submitted,

EDMUND G. BROWN, Governor

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE
SACRAMENTO, March 11, 1963

Hon. George Miller, Jr., Chairman
Senate Finance Committee
State Capitol, Sacramento

DEAR SENATOR MILLER:

Subject: Assembly Bill No. 116, Burton et al

It is our understanding that there shall be no added cost to the State Social Welfare Public Assistance Program resulting from the passage of Assembly Bill No. 116 as amended February 13, 1963. It is the intent of the Department of Finance that expenditures will be administered in such a way so that the added cost to the Old Age Security and the Aid to Needy Blind Programs will be offset by a cost reduction of an equal amount in the Aid to the Disabled Program.

Very truly yours,

COMMUNICATIONS

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
SACRAMENTO, March 25, 1963

Mr. J. A. Beek
Secretary of the Senate
Senate Chamber
State Capitol, Sacramento

DEAR MR. BEEK: Enclosed herewith is a copy of the 1961-1962 Biennial Report on Artificial Insemination of Animals.

This report is submitted in compliance with Section 30.6 of the Agricultural Code.

Sincerely yours,

W. J. KUHRT, Acting Director

Enc.

Artificial Insemination of Animals

1961-62 Biennial Report

Bureau of Animal Health

Dr. H. G. Wixom, Chief

This report is submitted in compliance with Section 30.6 of the Agricultural Code.

Number of First Inseminations

Dairy Cattle	369,944	Or 41% of the adult dairy population
Beef Cattle	7,000	Or 0.8% of the adult beef population
Sheep	3,000	This is experimental, conception rate appears low
Turkeys	1,000,000	Total inseminations probably exceed 5 million
1962
Dairy Cattle	401,000	Or 45% of the adult dairy population
Beef Cattle	7,000	Or 0.8% of the adult beef population
Sheep		None reported
Goats	540	This is experimental with apparently good results

Irregularities

A report has been received that a few inseminators, working under the supervision of one veterinarian, are performing sterility work. This complaint involves a small operation and should come under the jurisdiction of the Board of Examiners in Veterinary Medicine.

No reports of disease attributable to artificial insemination in California have been received. However, a potential danger exists as some bulls maintained by private and independent operators are not always subjected to the comprehensive health examinations customary in the organized associations.

No other significant complaints have been received.

Artificial Insemination Industry Advisory Committee

On November 30, 1962, a meeting with members of the artificial insemination industry and representatives of livestock organizations was held and the disease spreading potential of infected bulls and unsanitary inseminators was discussed. The Department of Agriculture requested that a committee be formed to study the situation and advise the director.

An advisory committee was formed and this committee met on January 15, 1963, and on March 12, 1963. The committee recommended that any individual or organization that collects and processes semen for sale to others follow the Code of Minimum Standards of the National Association of Artificial Breeders. They suggested that the Bureau of Animal Health continue to investigate any irregularities connected with artificial insemination practices. It was the opinion of this committee that legislation and or regulation on this subject is not necessary nor desirable at this time.

Recommendations

None.

Amendment No. 2

On page 1, strike out lines 1 and 2, and insert

"SECTION 1. Section 17503 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17503. For purposes of this section:

(a) "Salaries of classroom teachers" and "teacher" shall have the same meanings as prescribed by Section 17200 of this code.

(b) "Current expense of education" means the gross total expended (not reduced by estimated income or estimated federal and state apportionments) for the purposes classified in the final budget of a school district submitted to and approved by the county superintendent of schools pursuant to Section 20651 of this code for administration, instruction (including salaries, books and other expense), auxiliary services, [school plant (including operation and maintenance),] and fixed charges. "Current expense of education" shall not include those purposes classified as transportation of pupils, food service, community service, capital outlay, [and] state school building loan repayment[.], school plant (including maintenance and operation), expenses incident to the operation of the merit system for classified employees as provided for in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 13580) of Division 10 of this code, expenses and fixed charges related to the classified service.

(c) "Elementary school district," "high school district," "junior college district," and "unified school district" shall have the same meanings as prescribed by Section 17601.

There shall be expended during each fiscal year for payment of salaries of classroom teachers:

- (a) By an elementary school district, [sixty percent (60%)] ----- percent (-----%) of the district's current expense of education.
- (b) By a high school district, [fifty percent (50%)] ----- percent
(-----%) of the district's current expense of education.
- (c) By a junior college district, [fifty percent (50%)] ----- percent (-----%) of the district's current expense of education.
- (d) By a unified school district, [fifty-five percent (55%)] ----- percent
(-----%) of the district's current expense of education.

If the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines that a school district has not expended the applicable percentage of current expense of education for the payment of salaries of classroom teachers during the preceding fiscal year, he shall, in apportionments made to the school district from the State School Fund after April 15 of the current fiscal year, designate an amount of such apportionment or apportionments equal to the apparent deficiency in district expenditures. Any amount so designated by the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the school district, but shall be unavailable for expenditure by the district pending the determination to be made by the Superintendent of Public Instruction on any application for exemption which may be submitted to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. In the event it appears to the governing board of a school district that the application of the preceding paragraphs of this section during a fiscal year results in serious hardship to the district, or in the payment of salaries of classroom teachers in excess of the salaries of classroom teachers paid by other districts of comparable type and functioning under comparable conditions, the board may, with the written approval of the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the district apply to the Superintendent of Public Instruction in writing not later than July 15th of the succeeding fiscal year for exemption from the requirements of the preceding paragraphs of this section for the fiscal year on account of which the application is made. Upon receipt of such application, duly approved, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may grant the district exemption, to the extent deemed necessary by him, from such requirements for the fiscal year on account of which the application is made. If such exemption is granted the designated moneys shall be immediately available for expenditure by the school district governing board. If no application for exemption is made or exemption is denied, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall [either] order the designated amount or amount not exempted to be added to the amounts to be expended for salaries of classroom teachers during the next fiscal year [; or order not less than fifty percent (50%) of the designated amount or amount not exempted to be transferred to the county school service fund, in which case the amount not ordered transferred to county school service fund shall be immediately available for expenditure by the district].

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall enforce the requirements prescribed by this section, and may adopt necessary rules and regulations to that end. He may require the submission to him, during the school year, by school district governing boards and county superintendents of schools, of such reports and information as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 17505 is added to said code, to read:

17505. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, Section 17503 shall not apply to any elementary school district, high school district, or unified school district which maintains the ratio of classroom teachers to pupils following:

- (a) An elementary school district—one classroom teacher for each twenty-eight (28) pupils.
- (b) A high school district—one classroom teacher for each twenty-five (25) pupils.
- (c) A unified school district—one classroom teacher for each twenty-eight (28) pupils in grades kindergarten through eight, inclusive, and one classroom teacher for each twenty-five (25) pupils in grades 9 through 12, inclusive.

The provisions of this section shall in no way change the applicability of Section 17503 to junior college districts, and the ratio of classroom teachers to pupils in grades 13 and 14 maintained by any school district shall not be considered for purposes of this section.

As used in this section, the word "teacher" shall have the same meaning as is prescribed by Section 17200; and a teacher whose classroom teaching duties require part, but not all, of the full time for which he is employed to be devoted to classroom teaching duties shall, for purposes of this section, be counted as a partial classroom teacher on the basis of the portion of such full time actually devoted to teaching pupils of the district.

The governing board of each school district shall, subject to the rules and regulations of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and in the manner and form he shall prescribe, certify to that officer, on or before December 31st of each year, the ratio of classroom teachers to pupils for the period ending on October 1st of that school year, which certification shall constitute the basis for the applicability of the provisions of this section to the school district."

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was offered:

By Senator O'Sullivan:

Senate Resolution No. 105

Relative to navigation on the Sacramento River

WHEREAS, The first record of a steamboat traveling between Sacramento and Red Bluff on the Sacramento River goes back to 1849; and

WHEREAS, This marked the beginning of a colorful and romantic era, which has since passed; and

WHEREAS, During that era, the river boats were an important and exciting part of life along the Sacramento River, and, according to the stories of old-time Californians, were, in many instances, floating paradises whose arrival was eagerly anticipated in each of the many stops along the river; and

WHEREAS, Now, more than a half a century later, there is once again a continued and growing economic need for works and facilities to permit the extension of waterborne commerce on the Sacramento River to Red Bluff, California, the head of navigation on this important stream; and

WHEREAS, Potential traffic in an improved stream channel includes inbound bulk cargoes such as petroleum products, as well as outbound shipments of grain, safflower seed and other bulk agricultural products; and

WHEREAS, The operation of Trinity Dam in diverting water from the Trinity River to the Sacramento will result in increased flows in the proposed navigational channel; and

WHEREAS, Studies by the California Department of Water Resources indicate additional storage dams will be built as part of the California Water Plan in the future on the west side of the Sacramento River which also will contribute to additional flows in the Sacramento; and

WHEREAS, The imminent completion of the Sacramento Deep Water Channel to Sacramento will increase the demand for waterborne shipments to points north of Sacramento; and

WHEREAS, A study by the Corps of Engineers, U.S. Army, in 1955, which indicated that costs of such a navigation project exceeded economic benefits, did not take into account many of the factors cited above; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the Corps of Engineers, U.S. Army, be memorialized to conduct further studies, taking into account recent and prospective factors and developments, of the costs and economic benefits of a navigation channel in the Sacramento River between Sacramento and Red Bluff open to barge traffic; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate be directed to transmit copies of this resolution to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of the Army, to the Chief, Corps of Engineers, U.S. Army, to Members of the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives elected from California, and to the chairmen, respectively, of the Committees on Public Works of the U.S. Senate and of the House of Representatives.

Resolution read, and referred to Committee on Natural Resources.

COMMUNICATIONS

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
DEPARTMENT OF MENTAL HYGIENE
SACRAMENTO, March 26, 1963

*To the President of the Senate
and Members of the Senate*

In March 1962, I submitted to the Senate the Long-range Plan for Mental Health Services in California prepared as requested in Senate Resolution No. 142. At the time I indicated there was still an unfinished part of the project—an analysis of legislation needed to implement the Long-range Plan. The committee appointed for this purpose has recently completed its work. It has done an outstanding job of analyzing the legislative implications in the Long-range Plan and it has prepared an excellent statement which I am herewith submitting for your consideration. The following comments together with the committee's report should be considered a part of the Long-range Plan and as completing the document requested in Senate Resolution No. 142.

In reviewing the committee's work it becomes apparent it was concerned with a relatively small number of central topics. This was appropriate because the time of the members was necessarily limited so that focusing on fundamental objectives was most profitable. There was, in fact, so much material the committee could have dealt with that emphasis on those possibilities which seemed most promising was the only feasible way to proceed.

As I read the discussion and recommendations of the committee, two principles from the Long-range Plan stood out in my mind:

Citizens with mental illness or retardation should be treated like other citizens.

To do this requires, on the positive side, making services available to them; that other citizens get and, on the negative side, eliminating the excursions and discriminations reflected in laws and programs.

Persons with mental disability are best served if, wherever possible, they can be taken care of by the broad services which exist to take care of people generally when they are in special trouble. Basic programs in the fields of health, education, welfare, employment and recreation are most pertinent to aid those with mental health problems. Organizations established to serve people in these basic fields are, by virtue of their everyday role, most likely to be in contact with people subject to unusual stress. Not only is this important because of increased chance of early contact at precrisis stages but it is an efficient use of organization and manpower.

Inasmuch as I was aware of the committee's deliberations as it was meeting, I was able to take its work into account when legislation was being considered for introduction into the current legislative session. This was also true of the other state departments whose staff members participated in the committee's work. There is a number of bills now pending in the legislature directly related to the committee's proposals. While not all of them in any sense were the immediate result of the committee's recommendations, a significant part of the subject matter the committee studied is before the legislature. At the same time, it must be pointed out that the major portion of the committee's recommendations is not contained in bills before the legislature and, I presume, will not be during this session.

I view this report on legislation needed to implement the Long-range Plan in the same fashion as I view the material submitted earlier to the Senate, that is, as an objective to be worked on over a number of years. The programs dealt with are broad and complex. The changes suggested will require careful study over a period of time.

The report is not, of course, so comprehensive that it includes all legislation needed to implement the Long-range Plan. The committee had neither the time nor the staff to accomplish such an ambitious undertaking. The Department of Mental Hygiene, working with the other state departments and interested parties, will, it is presumed, continue the work started by this committee.

Special thanks is due the National Institute of Mental Health for the financial help which made possible participation by professional and lay members of the Legislative Task Force Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL BLAIN, M.D., Director of Mental Hygiene

Letter of transmittal ordered printed in the Journal, and the report filed with the Secretary of the Senate.

WHEREAS, The awards of the California Newspaper Publishers Association are most highly regarded and sought after, representing, as they do, recognition of outstanding performance in the field of newspaper publishing; and

WHEREAS, The San Rafael Independent-Journal will this year celebrate the 102d Anniversary of the founding of one of its predecessors, the Marin County Journal, and has long been an important factor in the growth and development of Marin County; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That its members hereby congratulate the San Rafael Independent-Journal, the Roy A. Brown and Justus F. Senate Resolution No. 111Relative to the Henry Ford Centennial

WHEREAS, The Members of the Senate have learned that as Henry Ford was born on July 30, 1863, the company he founded is, throughout this year, celebrating the centennial of his birth; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Ford effectively put the world on wheels by bringing to realization his dream of building "a motorcar for the great multitudes," the storied Model T, thereby freeing the farmer from his isolation, bringing closer together the most distant parts of the country and giving unprecedented mobility to the American people; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Ford, as father of the moving assembly line, showed the way to mass production techniques which have enabled this nation to become the most productive nation in the history of the world and which have raised the living standards of the American people by making available to all a rich variety of useful and time-saving products; and

WHEREAS, By his introduction of the $5-a-day wage and the eight-hour day, Mr. Ford enabled employees to become customers for the products that industry manufactures, thus creating mass markets and, more importantly, starting a peaceful social revolution that has resulted in the American worker's achieving a stature and standard of living unequaled throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, The company that Mr. Ford founded continues to give employment to many thousands of people and to contribute substantially to the economy of this country and this State; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the Members of the Senate adopt this tribute to the memory of Henry Ford in recognition of his enduring contributions to the social, economic and cultural values of our times; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate is directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Mr. Henry Ford II, grandson of Mr. Ford and present Chairman of the Board of Directors of Ford Motor Company, as a message of congratulations to the company on the centennial of the birth of its founder.

Senate Resolution No. 112

Relative to Red Bluff Diversion Dam boat bypass

WHEREAS, The United States Department of the Army permit to the Bureau of Reclamation authorizing the construction of the Red Bluff Diversion Dam contains a proviso that "If at any time in the future the interests of navigation shall require it, such alteration in the structure, or construction of lockage facilities, as may be required by the Secretary of the Army in the interest of navigation, shall be promptly executed by the permittee at its expense, so as to render means for navigation to pass the damsite"; and

WHEREAS, The recent report of the Bureau of Reclamation entitled "Passage of Small Boats, Red Bluff Diversion Dam, Sacramento Canals Unit, Central Valley Project," contains a study of three alternative plans, two incorporating methods to lift or carry boats over or around the dam at the damsite, and Plan C including a four-mile channel through Paynes Creek Slough to transfer the boats from below the dam to the river above the dam; and

WHEREAS, Plan C would give boaters on the river much better utilization of the river and avoid the hindrance and delay caused by a lift or ramp which would be manually operated; and

WHEREAS, Plan C would provide an excellent means of preserving the existing salmon and steelhead fishery which otherwise would be endangered by the dam even with a fish ladder, since many of such fish will not use a fish ladder, but under Plan C, since the fish could use a natural waterway, these fish would be allowed free migration; and

WHEREAS, The initial cost of Plan C would be higher than the cost of Plans A or B; but in the long run Plan C, which does not require daily maintenance or supervision as to Plans A or B, would cost no more, and in fact may even be less expensive than the other plans; and

WHEREAS, The local interests are heartily in support of Plan C for this project; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the Division of Small Craft Harbors is requested to take such action as may be necessary to participate in the financing of Plan C for the passage of small boats at the Red Bluff Diversion Dam; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Chief of the Division of Small Craft Harbors.

Resolution read, and referred to Committee on Water Resources.

ADDRESS BY MR. MORENO

I came this morning with some friends from the Philippines on a special mission to receive from the Governor of the State a resolution passed by this honorable body declaring Bataan Day, April 9th, as a day to be observed with significance by the people of the State of California. I appreciate the invitation of this body to express to this honorable body the gratitude of the Philippine people for passing your very gallant resolution. I wish also to express my deep gratitude to the Governor of this great State for issuing the proclamation in accordance with the resolution passed by this august body. In connection with this event, I want to state that Bataan Day is a day of great historical significance not only for the people of the Philippines but also for the American people. This is the event in our history which has proven beyond doubt the unity of the people of the Philippines with the people of the United States in a moment of great crisis, a moment of great emergency, wherein both peoples fought side by side, giving their lives in defense of the great institutions that you have established in the Philippines—in defense of democracy, justice and freedom.

I want to assure you, Honorable Senators, of the friendship of the Philippine and American people, although on occasions there may be differences of opinion between the leaders of your country and the leaders of the Philippines. In the hearts of the people of the Philippines is a deep-seated attachment for the American people. Differences can always be resolved because of this basic feeling. During the 50 years that the Philippines were under the patronage of the United States, we imbibed American education, American institutions and culture. There is no country that can better represent your institutions, and your democratic processes, than the Philippines. There is no country that will stand by your side more steadfastly against communist infiltration and aggression.

If you will look at the map of Asia, you will see it is already divided. In addition, there are countries that call themselves neutral, which in fact are far from neutral.

The program of President Macapagal is intended to strengthen the Philippine Islands, to make the country more stable, to lift up the condition of the masses, to make better opportunities for the people, and to strengthen the islands against the incursions of communism and communistic ideas.

Again I assure you that the Philippine Islands are your good friends, who look forward to co-operating with you, and who also expect your co-operation, especially in the economic program of the President, which will require some financial assistance.

It is hoped that the co-operation of our two countries will help to build a world of peace, based on the democratic processes that have been first established in your country, and transplanted so successfully in the Philippine Islands.

I thank you.

FURTHER INTRODUCTION BY SENATOR McATEER

Senator McAteer then introduced one of the foremost leaders of the Philippine Islands, Mrs. Mercedes Camatero, who was the one most responsible for the law granting suffrage to women. When this subject was a matter of controversy in the Philippines, she wandered throughout the country convincing the women they should vote yes on this proposition. The word "O" means "Yes" in their language. Mrs. Camatero and her coworkers distributed coins and suggested they take these to the voting place and place the coin on a piece of paper and circle the coin with their pencils to indicate "Yes." Mrs. Camatero is the Carrie Nation of the Philippine Islands.

REASSEMBLED

At 3.50 p.m., the Senate reconvened.

Hon. Glenn M. Anderson, President of the Senate, presiding.

RECESS

At 4 p.m., on motion of Senator Farr, the Senate recessed to introduce Dr. Oliver Caldwell.

COMMITTEE OF ESCORT

The President appointed Senators Farr, Rodda and Pittman as a committee to escort Dr. Oliver Caldwell to the rostrum.

INTRODUCTION

Senator Farr introduced Dr. Oliver Caldwell, who is Acting Associate Commissioner of Education, Director of the Bureau of International Education of the United States Office of Education, Washington, D.C. Senator Farr stated that Dr. Caldwell is the administrator of a variety of educational programs relating to international teacher exchange; most exchange teachers who come into the United States come through Dr. Caldwell's office. Dr. Caldwell has traveled extensively in some 70 countries in the past eight years as a consultant to foreign countries and also to United States government agencies. Dr. Caldwell's specialty is foreign languages; he is especially aware of the importance of language as an international weapon.

ADDRESS BY DR. CALDWELL

This is the first time in my life I have been thus honored. I have never appeared before a Senate, and am profoundly grateful. I am grateful also for the remarks of the Consul General from the Philippine Islands, as I am an old soldier, a veteran.

I am presently most concerned with the deadly war we are now fighting, which is a silent war; silent, in part, because Americans are seldom able to communicate with friend or foe in this cold war between communism and the way of life which we defend.

It has been my privilege to travel widely in the Soviet Union as well as other Soviet countries; also to observe the superior work being done by Americans in many parts of the world, to battle the roots of communism before they have attained full growth. But, Senators, I am profoundly disturbed by the fact that Americans are handicapped by their inability to communicate with, or understand, the peoples of other countries; because this war we are now fighting is a war of ideas and ideals, and language is the means of communicating ideas and ideals. To be quite specific, even in Latin America, which is so near to us, Americans in those countries cannot communicate with the people around them. They stand aloof because they cannot understand what is going on around them. The same is true of all the nations in the Pacific. In Africa I ran into two specific examples: In Ethiopia a few years ago, there were several hundred Americans representing us in that country. Not one American was able to speak Amharic. The Soviet Union took over a hospital in the area and flew in many plane-loads of doctors and nurses, every one of whom could speak the language fluently.

Last year I traveled through the Arab countries and found much the same situation. Our Chargé d'Affaires had had a 90-day crash course in Arabic, but the Soviet representatives were absolutely fluent in the language.

Senators of California, you have been foremost of all the states in adopting the language program to be initiated in 1965. This may well mark one of the most important milestones in American education. If we are to enable our three or four million representatives overseas to do an effective job, if we are to give them a decent chance to win the cold war, we have got to train them to communicate.

I have the honor to have been responsible for implementing a new federal law which is designed to send American teachers, or prospective teachers, anywhere in the world they wish to go, to study the language of the country and native subjects; also to bring teachers from other countries to teach in this country.

I have no reservations about our eventual victory, because our cause is right and we are strong. But I do have great pleasure in thanking you and commending you for what you are doing in taking the national leadership in the development of a new generation of Americans who will be better equipped to fight the cold war, and if there is a hot war, to win that also.

37TH STATE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WYOMING

A joint memorial memorializing the Congress of the United States concerning wilderness legislation and opposing the creation or extension of wilderness areas within the State of Wyoming.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Wyoming:

WHEREAS, Bills have been introduced in the United States Congress to establish a national wilderness preservation system; and

WHEREAS, These bills would create wilderness areas in Wyoming; and

WHEREAS, The creation of wilderness areas would interfere with the development of Wyoming's water resources, and would jeopardize the multiple-use concept of the areas for the projection of water, forage, timber, minerals and recreational opportunities, which multiple-use concept policy has been in effect for over 50 years, and has shaped the economy of the West; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of the 37th Legislature of the State of Wyoming, the Senate of such Legislature concurring, That the President and Congress of the United States of America be and they are hereby memorialized to consider fairly and diligently the welfare and interest of the people of the State of Wyoming, who oppose the creation or extension of wilderness areas in Wyoming: that, furthermore, if such wilderness areas are necessary and desired in other states, that areas adjacent to centers of population be purchased and returned to the wilderness state, believing that such a program would make wilderness areas available to more people of the country than the creation of such areas in the West, and so forth.

Resolved, That certified copies hereof be promptly transmitted to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives of said Congress, United States Senator Gale McGee, United States Senator Edward I. Simpson, Representative in Congress William Henry Harrison, and the state legislatures of all the states of the United States.

House Joint Resolution No. 13

Introduced by Goan

A joint resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives petitioning the Congress of the United States to call a convention for the purpose of amending the Constitution to provide for the election of the President and Vice President in a manner fair and just to the people of the United States unless Congress shall have sooner submitted such an amendment.

WHEREAS, Under the Constitution of the United States presidential and vice presidential electors in the several states are now elected on a statewide basis, and each state is entitled to as many electors as it has senators and representatives in Congress; and

WHEREAS, The presidential and vice presidential electors who receive a plurality of the popular vote in a particular state become entitled to cast the total number of electoral votes allocated to that state irrespective of how many votes may have been cast for electors of the opposition candidates; and

WHEREAS, This method of electing the President and Vice President is unfair and unjust in that it does not reflect the minority votes cast; and

WHEREAS, The need for a change has been recognized by Members of Congress on numerous occasions through the introduction of various proposals to change the electoral college system by amending the Constitution; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Montana, That application is hereby made to Congress under Article V of the Constitution of the United States to call a convention to propose an article of amendment to the Constitution providing for a fair and just division of the electoral votes within the states in the election of the President and Vice President; and be it further

Resolved, That if and when Congress shall have proposed such an article of amendment this application for a convention shall be deemed withdrawn and shall no longer have any force and effect; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of State is instructed to send copies of this resolution to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Congress, to each member of the Montana Congressional Delegation, and to the legislatures of each of the several states.

Resolution concurred in by Montana's 38th Legislative Assembly on March 7, 1963, approved and signed by Governor Tim Babcock, March 11, 1963.

OPINION OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO, April 3, 1963

Hon. John T. Knox
Assembly Chamber

Transit Districts—No. 13715

Question

DEAR MR. KNOX: You have asked us whether Assembly Bill No. 889, as introduced, would affect any municipally-owned transportation system.

Opinion

Analysis

Assembly Bill No. 889 would amend Section 24505 of the Public Utilities Code to refine the term "transit", as that term is used in the law with regard to transit districts in the Counties of Alameda or Contra Costa (Pt. 1 (commencing with Sec. 24501), Div. 10, P.U.C.). The bill would add the following language which we have indicated by underlining to that section:

"24505. 'Transit' means the transportation of passengers and their incidental baggage by any means other than by chartered bus, sightseeing bus, or any other motor vehicle not on an individual passenger fare-paying basis. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a district from leasing its buses to private certified public carriers or to prohibit a district from providing school bus service for the transportation of pupils between their homes and schools."

The law with regard to transit districts in the Counties of Alameda or Contra Costa Counties is applicable only to such districts. It has no application to any municipally owned transportation system. Thus, we would conclude that Assembly Bill No. 889 would not affect any municipally owned transportation system.

Very truly yours,

A. C. MORRISON

Legislative Counsel

Deputy Legislative Counsel

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was offered:

By Senator McAteer:

Senate Resolution No. 116

Relative to congratulating the Port of San Francisco on the observance of its centennial year

WHEREAS, The Port of San Francisco is one of the world's foremost maritime centers, serving as the gateway for all of the Pacific, giving California world stature as a maritime state; and

WHEREAS, The Port of San Francisco marks its origin with the signing of the Oulton Bill by Governor Leland Stanford on April 24, 1863, which established a Board of State Harbor Commissioners to administer San Francisco's harbor; and

WHEREAS, The Harbor Commissioners in those early years faced seemingly unsurmountable obstacles to the development of facilities to accommodate the needs of the expanding agriculture and commerce of California and neighboring states; and

WHEREAS, San Francisco and all California can be justly proud of the efforts of members of the San Francisco Port Authority to keep pace with the technological improvements in cargo handling, pier and terminal construction, and transportation by adoption of a master plan for development and expansion of all facilities including the new "superterminal" in the Islais Creek area, scheduled for operation in 1964; the World Trade Center, the West Coast's only major mart devoted exclusively to import-export commerce; and the Mission Rock Terminal, the largest over-water pier on the Pacific Coast; and

WHEREAS, The development of the harbor by the Port Authority and its predecessor, the Harbor Commission, has been financed entirely from port income and by self-liquidating bonds without the use of any state, municipal or other tax resources; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That Members of the Senate congratulate and commend the San Francisco Port Authority on the observance of the port's centennial year under State administration; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate is directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to the San Francisco Port Authority and to Mr. Cyril Magnin, President of the San Francisco Port Authority and each of the members, H. A. Tagliaferri, D.D.S., Claude Jinkerson, J. Warnock Walsh and James. J. Rudden.

Resolution read and unanimously adopted on motion of Senator McAteer.

"Gross receipts" include all receipts from transportation operations entirely within this State and a proportion, based upon the proportion of the mileage within this State to the entire mileage over which such operations extend, of the receipts from operations passing through, into, or out of this State, or partly within and partly without this State. "Gross receipts" as applied in connection with operations under lease or rental agreements include such amounts as the [board] department under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe determines to be reasonable compensation for the transportation services rendered by the operator.

"Gross receipts" do not include revenue derived by an express company from the shipment of property over the lines of common carriers, but do include revenue derived by an express company from the transportation of property in motor vehicles operated by it.

SEC. 3. Section 9701 of said code is amended to read:

9701. Every operator of a motor vehicle within this State who transports or desires to transport for compensation or hire persons or property upon any public highway within this State shall apply to the [board] department, on such forms as the [board] department may prescribe, for a license to operate motor vehicles for the transportation of persons or property for hire or compensation upon public highways in this State.

SEC. 4. Section 9702 of said code is amended to read:

Upon the receipt of the application, accompanied by the required fee, the [board] department shall issue to the applicant a license to transport for compensation or hire persons or property upon any public highway within this State. The [board] department may refuse to issue a license to any person to whom a license was previously issued and subsequently revoked for a violation of this part.

SEC. 6. Section 9706 of said code is amended to read:

9706. Every license issued is valid until canceled or revoked by the [board] department. A fee of five dollars ($5) shall be paid to the [board] department for the issuance of a license to any person to whom a license was previously issued and subsequently canceled.

SEC. 7. Section 9729 of said code is repealed.

[9729. Upon the issuance of any number plates or emblems for display on any motor vehicle licensed under this part, the department shall immediately notify the board thereof.]

SEC. 8. Section 9751 of said code is amended to read:

9751. Whenever any operator licensed under this part fails to comply with any provision of this part or any rule or regulation of the [board] department prescribed and adopted under this part, the [board] department upon hearing, after giving the operator 10 days' notice in writing of the time and place of the hearing to show cause why his license should not be revoked, may revoke the license.

SEC. 9. Section 9752 of said code is amended to read:

9752. Whenever the department revokes the license of an operator or determines [The department upon receiving written notice from the board that the license of an operator has been revoked by the board or] that an operator has failed, neglected, or refused to obtain a license it shall forthwith suspend the registration of the motor vehicles of the operator which are [specified in the notice] licensed under this part and shall cause to be removed from such motor vehicles all number plates or emblems issued by the department for display upon the vehicles.

9753. After the suspension of registration of a motor vehicle and the removal of number plates or emblems therefrom it is a misdemeanor to operate the vehicle upon the public highways of this State until the operator fully complies with the provisions of this part, [a certificate to that effect is issued by the board to the department,] and the registration of the vehicle is restored by the department.

9754. The [board] department or its authorized representatives may impound the vehicles of an operator whose license has been revoked and who continues to engage in the transportation of persons or property for hire or compensation after having been duly notified by the [board] department of the revocation. 9779. Transfer by the department of the registered ownership of any motor vehicle licensed under this part may be effected only after a certificate of license tax clearance has been issued therefor by the [board] department. The certificate of license tax clearance may be issued after the payment of all amounts due under this part or after the payment of such amounts is secured to the satisfaction of the [board] department. The certificate completely extinguishes the lien provided for in Article 3, Chapter 5, of this part in the motor vehicle described in the certificate.

SEC. 16. Section 9852 of said code is amended to read:

9852. Each operator shall on or before the twenty-fifth day of each month prepare a return for the preceding calendar month in such form as the [board] department may prescribe, showing the gross receipts of the operator, the amount of tax due for the month covered by the return, and such other information as the [board] department deems necessary for the proper administration of this part. The extension may be granted at any time; provided, a request therefor is filed with the [board] department within or prior to the period for which the extension may be granted.

Any operator to whom an extension is granted shall pay, in addition to the tax, interest at the rate of one-half of 1 percent per month, or fraction thereof, from the date on which the tax would have been due without the extension to the date of payment.

Sec. 19. Section 9855 of said code is amended to read:

9855. The [board] department, if it deems it necessary in order to insure the payment of the tax imposed by this part, or to facilitate the administration of this part, may require returns and payment of the tax to be made for other than monthly periods.

Sec. 20. Section 9876 of said code is amended to read:

9876. If the [board] department is not satisfied with the return filed or amount of tax paid by any operator, it may make a deficiency determination of the tax required to be paid by the operator based upon information contained in the return or upon any information in its possession. One or more deficiency determinations may be made of the amount of tax due for one or for more than one month. When a business is discontinued a determination may be made at any time thereafter, within the periods specified in Section 9881, as to liability arising out of that business, irrespective of whether the determination is issued prior to the due date of the liability as otherwise specified in this part.

Sec. 21. Section 9877.5 of said code is amended to read:

9877.5. In making a determination the [board] department may offset overpayments for a month or months against underpayments for another month or months, against penalties, and against the interest on the underpayments.

The notice may be served personally or by mail; if by mail, service shall be made pursuant to Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure and shall be addressed to the operator at his address as it appears in the records of the [board] department, but the service shall be deemed complete at the time of deposit of the notice in the mail without extension of time for any reason.

Sec. 23. Section 9881 of said code is amended to read:

9881. Except in the case of fraud, intent to evade this part or authorized rules and regulations, failure to make a return or claim for additional amount pursuant to Section 9927, every notice of a deficiency determination shall be mailed to the operator within three years after the date the return was due or within three years after the return of the operator is filed, whichever period expires the later. If an operator fails to make a return, or the [board] department fails to make a claim for additional amount pursuant to Section 9927, the notice of determination shall be mailed within eight years after the date the return was due.

Sec. 24. Section 9901 of said code is amended to read:

9901. If any operator fails, neglects, or refuses to file a return within the time required, the [board] department shall make an estimate of the amount of the taxable gross receipts of the operator for the month or months for which the operator failed to make a return. Upon the basis of this estimate the [board] department shall compute and determine the tax payable by the operator, adding to the amount of tax so determined a penalty equal to 10 percent thereof. One or more determinations may be made of the amount of tax due for one or for more than one month. When a business is discontinued a determination may be made at any time thereafter, within the periods specified in Section 9881, as to liability arising out of that business, irrespective of whether the determination is issued prior to the due date of the liability as otherwise specified in this part.

Sec. 25. Section 9901.5 of said code is amended to read:

9901.5. In making a determination the [board] department may offset overpayments for a month or months against underpayments for another month or months, against penalties, and against the interest on the underpayments.

Sec. 26. Section 9904 of said code is amended to read:

9904. Promptly after making its determination the [board] department shall give to the delinquent written notice of the estimate, tax, and penalty, the notice to be served personally or by mail in the manner prescribed for service of notice of a deficiency determination.

Sec. 27. Section 9911 of said code is amended to read:

Sec. 28. Section 9913 of said code is amended to read:

9913. The operator against whom a jeopardy determination is made may petition for the redetermination thereof pursuant to Article 4 of this chapter. He shall, however, file the petition for redetermination with the board within 10 days after the service upon him of notice of the determination. The operator shall also within the 10-day period deposit with the [board] department such security as it may deem necessary to insure compliance with this part. The security may be sold by the [board] department in the manner prescribed by Section 10050.

SEC. 29. Section 9926 of said code is amended to read:

9926. Any operator against whom a determination is made by the [board] department under Articles 2 or 3 of this chapter may petition the board for a redetermination within 30 days after the date of mailing the notice thereof to the operator. If a petition for redetermination is not filed within the 30-day period, the determination becomes final at the expiration of the period.

SEC. 30. Section 9927 of said code is amended to read:

9927. If a petition for redetermination is filed within the 30-day period, the board shall reconsider the determination of the department and, if the operator has so requested in his petition, shall grant the operator an oral hearing and shall give him 10 days' notice of the time and place of the hearing. The board may continue the hearing from time to time as may be necessary.

The board may decrease or increase the amount of the determination before it becomes final, but the amount may be increased only if a claim for the increase is asserted by the board at or before the hearing.

SEC. 31. Section 9928 of said code is amended to read:

9928. The order or decision of the board upon a petition for redetermination becomes final 30 days after the date of mailing the notice thereof to the operator. The board shall notify the department of all orders or decisions made under this article.

9929. All determinations made by the [board] department under Articles 2 or 3 of this chapter are due and payable at the time they become final. SEC. 33. Section 10050 of said code is amended to read:

10050. The [board] department, whenever it deems it necessary to insure compliance with this part or any rule or regulation adopted under this part, may require any person subject to the tax imposed under this part to deposit with it such security as it may determine. The [board] department may sell the security at public sale if it becomes necessary so to do in order to recover any amount due under this part. Notice of the sale may be served upon the person who deposited the security personally or by mail in the manner prescribed for service of notice of a deficiency determination. Security in the form of a bearer bond issued by the United States or the State of California which has a prevailing market price may, however, be sold by the [board] department at private sale at a price not lower than the prevailing market price thereof. Upon any sale, any surplus above the amount due shall be returned to the person who deposited the security.

SEC. 34. Section 10051 of said code is amended to read:

10051. SEC. 35. Section 10052 of said code is amended to read:

10052. After receiving the notice the persons so notified shall neither transfer nor make other disposition of the credits, other personal property, or debts in their possession or under their control at the time they receive the notice until the [Controller] department consents to a transfer or disposition or until 60 days elapse after the receipt of the notice.

SEC. 36. Section 10053 of said code is amended to read:

10053. All persons so notified shall within five days after receipt of the notice advise the [Controller] department of all such credits, other personal property, or debts in their possession, under their control, or owing by them.

SEC. 39. Section 10073 of said code is amended to read:

10073. Payment of an amount to the [board] department for and on account of the license tax and the acceptance thereof does not bar an action by the State to recover any additional amount which is actually due.

SEC. 40. Section 10075 of said code is amended to read:

10075. In the action a certificate issued by the [board] department showing unpaid license taxes determined against any operator shall be prima facie evidence of all of the following:

(a) The determination of the license tax, the delinquency thereof, and the amount of the license tax, interest, penalties, and costs due and unpaid to the State.

(b) The indebtedness of the operator to the State in the amount of the license tax, interest, and penalties therein appearing unpaid.

(c) The full compliance by all persons required to perform administrative duties under this part with all the forms of law in relation to the determination and levy of the license tax.

SEC. 41. Section 10099 of said code is amended to read:

10099. From the time of the filing for record, the amount required to be paid together with interest and penalty constitutes a lien upon all real property in the county owned by the person or afterwards and before the lien expires acquired by him. The lien has the force, effect, and priority of a judgment lien and shall continue for five years from the time of the filing of the certificate unless sooner released or otherwise discharged. The lien may, within five years from the date of the filing of the certificate or within five years from the date of the last extension of the lien in the manner herein provided, be extended by filing for record a new certificate in the office of the county recorder of any county and from the time of such filing the lien shall be extended to the real property in such county for five years unless sooner released or otherwise discharged.

SEC. 42. Section 10100 of said code is amended to read:

10100. The [Controller] department may at any time release all or any portion of the property subject to any lien provided for in this part from the lien or subordinate the lien to other liens and encumbrances if [he] it determines that the amount, interest, and penalties are sufficiently secured by a lien on other property or that the release or subordination of the lien will not jeopardize the collection of the amount, interest, and penalties.

SEC. 43. Section 10111 of said code is amended to read:

10111. The [Controller] department or [his] its authorized representative may issue a warrant for the collection of any tax, interest, or penalty and for the enforcement of any lien.

SEC. 44. Section 10113 of said code is amended to read:

10113. The [Controller] department may pay or advance to the sheriff, marshal or constable, the same fees, commissions, and expenses for his services as are provided by law for similar services pursuant to a writ of execution. The [Controller] department, and not the court, shall approve the fees for publication in a newspaper.

SEC. 45. Section 10121 of said code is amended to read:

10121. Whenever an operator is delinquent in the payment of any amount due under this part, the [Controller] department may forthwith collect the amount due from the operator in the following manner: The [Controller] department may seize any property, real or personal, subject to the lien of the tax and thereafter sell the property, or a sufficient part of it, at public auction to pay the tax due together with any interest and penalties imposed for the delinquency and any costs incurred on account of the seizure and sale.

SEC. 46. Section 10123 of said code is amended to read:

10123. The [Controller] department may seize any motor vehicle subject to the lien of the tax and thereafter sell the vehicle at private sale to pay the license tax due, together with any interest and penalties imposed for the delinquency and any costs incurred on account of the seizure and sale.

SEC. 47. Section 10125 of said code is amended to read:

10125. At any sale the [Controller] department shall sell the property in accordance with law and the notice and shall deliver to the purchaser a bill of sale for the personal property and a deed for any real property sold. The bill of sale or deed vests title in the purchaser. The unsold portion of any property seized may be left at the place of sale at the risk of the operator.

SEC. 48. Section 10126 of said code is amended to read:

10126. If upon any sale the moneys received exceed the amount of all license taxes, interest, penalties, and costs due the State from the operator, the [Controller] department shall return any excess to the operator and obtain his receipt. If for any reason the receipt of the operator is not available, the [Controller] department shall deposit the excess moneys with the State Treasurer, as trustee for the operator, subject to the order of the operator, his heirs, successors, or assigns.

SEC. 49. Section 10251 of said code is amended to read:

10251. If the [board] department determines that any amount not required to be paid under this part has been paid by any person, the [board] department shall set forth in its records and certify to the State Board of Control the amount paid in excess of the amount legally due and the person from whom it was collected. If the State Board of Control approves, the excess shall thereupon be credited on any taxes then due from the operator under this part, and the balance shall be refunded to the operator, or his successors, administrators, executors, or assigns, or to the person from whom it was collected.

In the case, however, of a determination by the [board] department that an amount not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) was not required to be paid under this part, the [board] department, without obtaining the approval of the State Board of Control, may credit such amount on any amounts then due from the operator under this part, and the balance may be refunded to the operator, or his successors, administrators, executors, or assigns, or to the person from whom it was collected.

SEC. 50. Section 10252 of said code is amended to read:

10252. No credit or refund shall be allowed after three years from the 25th day of the month following the month in which the taxable operations occurred, or with respect to determinations made under Article 2 or 3 of Chapter 4 of this part, after six months from the dates the determinations become final, or after six months from the date of overpayment, whichever period expires later, unless a claim therefor is filed with the [board] department within such period. No credit shall be approved by the [board] department after the expiration of such period, unless a claim for credit is filed with the [board] department within such period, or unless the credit relates to a period for which a waiver is given pursuant to Section 9882.

SEC. 51. Section 10255 of said code is amended to read:

10255. No credit or refund shall be allowed unless the operator files a verified claim therefor with the [board] department within 90 days after the close of the year in which an excess was paid.

SEC. 52. Section 10256 of said code is amended to read:

10256. The [board] department shall examine the claim and, if it is satisfied that a refund is due, shall certify to the State Board of Control the amount thereof. If approved by the State Board of Control, the amount shall be credited on any taxes then due from the operator under this part, and the balance shall be refunded to the operator, his successors, administrators, executors, or assigns.

SEC. 53. Section 10276 of said code is amended to read:

10276. No injunction or writ of mandate or other legal or equitable process shall issue in any suit, action, or proceeding in any court against this State or against any officer of the State to prevent or enjoin the collection under this part of any license tax or other amounts sought to be collected by the [board] department.

SEC. 54. Section 10278 of said code is amended to read:

10278. Within 90 days after the mailing of the notice of the [board's] department's action upon a claim for refund or credit, the claimant may bring an action against the [board] department on the grounds set forth in the claim in a court of competent jurisdiction in the County of Sacramento for the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount with respect to which the claim has been disallowed.

SEC. 55. Section 10279 of said code is amended to read:

10279. If the [board] department fails to mail notice of action on a claim within six months after the claim is filed, the claimant may, prior to the mailing of notice by the [board] department, consider the claim disallowed and bring an action against the [board] department on the grounds set forth in the claim for the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount claimed as an overpayment.

SEC. 56. Section 10281 of said code is amended to read:

10281. In any judgment, interest shall be allowed at the rate of 6 percent per annum upon the amount of license tax found to have been illegally collected from the date of payment of the license tax to the date of allowance of credit on account of the judgment or to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than 30 days, the date to be determined by the [Controller] department.

SEC. 57. Section 10282 of said code is amended to read:

10282. A judgment shall not be rendered in favor of the plaintiff in any action brought against the [board] department to recover any license tax paid when the action is brought by or in the name of an assignee of the operator paying the tax or by any person other than the person who paid the tax.

SEC. 58. Section 10301 of said code is amended to read:

Senate Resolution No. 92

Relating to Freedom From Hunger Week

WHEREAS, The State of California is blessed with special soils and climate as a result of which we are able to produce an abundance of fruits, nuts, vegetables, rice, feed crops, cotton, milk, livestock, eggs, turkeys and chickens to the point that the State continues to lead all states in the volume and value of its agricultural products; and

WHEREAS, This State is a basic center for processing and shipping this abundance to every part of the world, not only through commercial channels, but through public and private agencies, to build the stamina and health of some three billion people whose diets are still at starvation or substandard levels in yet underdeveloped nations; and

WHEREAS, By contrast, the people of California enjoy an exceptionally high standard of living and are thus able to provide themselves with food in adequate supply; and

WHEREAS, The President of the United States, because of the concern of this nation for peoples throughout the world who are unable to obtain sufficient food to maintain health and increase economic growth, has declared the week of March

17th through March 23d as Freedom From Hunger Week, during which every American should consider his own good fortune in contrast to the peoples of the "have not" nations; and

WHEREAS, The Governor of the State of California on March 8th asked all Californians to join in this national dedication to and sharing of responsibility for alleviating world hunger; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the members thereof concur with the proclamation of our President and Governor and request all people in our State to rededicate their minds and hearts to the inspiring possibility of working together to free the world from the scourge of hunger; and be it further

Resolved, That the Members of the Senate of the State of California support the action of our national government in acting as host to a World Food Congress to be held in Washington, D.C. on June 4th through 18th and will do everything within their power to co-operate in making this congress truly indicative of the recognition by this State of its responsibilities in solving the problems of World Hunger in a world and age blessed with the technological facilities to end for all time the spectacle of starvation and to clothe adequately all the peoples of this earth.

If the board of supervisors of any county fails to do so within such 60-day period it may, thereafter, be included within the area in which the authority is authorized to operate in the manner prescribed by Chapter 13.5 (commencing with Section 13.51) of this act.

Sec. 4.2. Not less than 60, nor more than 90, days after the first resolution is filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 4.1, the Secretary of State shall order the board of supervisors of each county which has adopted such a resolution to select, within 30 days after the date of the order, the number of members of the authority which it is authorized to select by Section 4.3. Within the same time, the Secretary of State shall order the city selection committee of each county which has adopted such a resolution to meet on a date, within 30 days after the date of the order, designated by the Secretary of State and select the number of members which the city selection committee is authorized to select by Section 4.3.

Sec. 4.3. If the board of supervisors of only one county adopts a resolution pursuant to Section 4.1, the authority shall be composed of three of the members of the board of supervisors of the county appointed by the board of supervisors and three members of legislative bodies of cities within the county appointed by the city selection committee. If the boards of supervisors of two or more counties adopt such a resolution, the authority shall be composed of the following members:

(a) Two members of the board of supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco, if the board of supervisors has adopted a resolution declaring that there is a need for the authority to operate in such county pursuant to Section 4.1.

(b) One member of the board of supervisors of each of the other counties which has adopted such a resolution.

(c) One member of the legislative body of a city within each county which has adopted such a resolution selected by the city selection committee of the county.

Sec. 4.4. Within 30 days after the first members of the authority are appointed, the members of the authority shall meet in the chambers of the board of supervisors of the county which first adopted a resolution which declared that there was a need for the authority to operate in such county and shall organize as the authority. The date of the first meeting shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State.

Sec. 4.5. The authority is a public corporation of the State of California.

Sec. 4.6. The authority shall not be subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission except with respect to safety rules and other regulations governing the operation of passenger stage corporations and street railroad corporations as contained in General Order No. 98 of the commission or any modification thereof."

CHAPTER 6.5. TAXATION

SEC. 6.51. The authority may provide for the assessment, levy, and collection of taxes upon all taxable property in each county in which the authority is authorized to operate, for any purpose specified in this chapter, including the sale of property to the authority for delinquent taxes, with penalties, interest, and cost.

SEC. 6.52. If the authority incurs any general obligation bonded indebtedness, or refunding bond general obligation indebtedness, the authority shall levy and collect annually until such bonds are paid, or until there is a sum in the treasury of the authority set apart for that purpose to meet all sums coming due for principal and interest on the bonds as they become due and payable, a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on the bonds and such part of the principal thereof, including any sinking fund installments required by any of the authority's agreements with its bondholders, as becomes due before the proceeds of a tax levied at the time of the next county tax levy for such purpose will be available.

SEC. 6.53. In addition to any taxes which the authority is authorized to levy pursuant to Section 6.52, at the time of the first county tax levy following the first meeting of the authority, the authority shall levy and collect a tax at a rate of one cent ($.01) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation upon all taxable property within each county in which the authority is authorized to operate to pay the preliminary expenses of the authority, including, but not limited to the preparation of the master plan pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 5.1) of this act and the calling and conducting of the election thereon.

SEC. 6.54. All assessments shall be made for the authority by the State Board of Equalization and the county assessors, and all taxes shall be collected for the authority by the tax collectors of the counties in which the authority is authorized to operate.

SEC. 6.55. Each county auditor of a county in which the authority is authorized to operate shall, on or before the third Monday in August of each year in which the authority has notified the county auditor that it intends to levy and collect any tax, transmit to the authority a statement in writing showing the total value of all property within the county as equalized.

SEC. 6.56. The authority shall, on or before the first weekday in September, or if such weekday falls upon a holiday then on the first business day thereafter, fix the rate of taxes, designating the number of cents upon each hundred dollars, using as a basis the value of property transmitted to the authority by the county auditors, which rate of taxation shall be sufficient to raise the amount previously fixed by the authority. These acts by the authority shall constitute a valid assessment of the property and a valid levy of the taxes so fixed.

SEC. 6.57. If in the determination of any tax rate a fraction of a cent occurs, the authority may adopt a rate ending in the next higher tenth of one cent ($.001).

SEC. 6.58. The authority shall immediately after fixing the rate of taxes as above provided transmit to the county auditors of the counties in which the district is authorized to operate a statement of the rate of taxes fixed by the authority.

SEC. 6.59. The authority's taxes so levied shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as county taxes. When collected the net amount, ascertained as provided in this article, shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority, under the general requirements and penalties provided by law for the settlement of other taxes.

SEC. 6.60. Whenever any real property situate in any county in which the authority is authorized to operate has been sold for taxes and has been redeemed, the money paid for redemption shall be apportioned and paid to the authority by the county treasurer receiving it in the proportion which the tax due to the authority bears to the total tax for which the property was sold.

SEC. 6.61. The compensation to be charged by and paid to any county for the performance of services under this chapter shall be fixed by agreement between the board of supervisors of the county and the authority. The compensation shall in no event exceed one-half of 1 percent of all money collected for the authority. The compensation collected by the county shall be placed to the credit of the county salary fund.

SEC. 6.62. All taxes levied under this chapter are a lien on the property on which they are levied. Unless the authority has otherwise provided, the enforcement of the collection of such taxes shall be in the same manner and by the same means provided by law for the enforcement of liens for county taxes, all the provisions of law relating to the enforcement of the latter being made applicable to this part, so far as consistent therewith."

"CHAPTER 7.5. GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS

SEC. 7.51. The authority may issue bonds as provided in this chapter for any of the purposes of the authority, including, but not limited to, payments to any private utility pursuant to any contract under which the private utility provides any transit facility or service to the authority.

SEC. 7.52. By resolution, whenever in its judgment it is advisable, the authority may call an election and submit to the voters in each county in which the authority is authorized to operate, the question of whether bonds shall be issued.

SEC. 7.53. The resolution calling the election shall contain:

- (a) A statement of the general object and purpose of incurring the indebtedness.
- (b) Statement of the estimated cost of the proposed work and improvements.
- (c) The amount of the principal of the indebtedness to be incurred therefor.
- (d) The maximum term, which shall not exceed fifty (50) years, that the bonds proposed to be issued shall run before maturity.

(e) The maximum rate of interest to be paid on said indebtedness, which shall not exceed six (6) percent per annum.

(f) A statement declaring whether interest, to be paid upon such bonds during the estimated period of construction of the works of the authority and for three years thereafter, or less, shall be a capital charge, and shall be payable out of the principal sum realized from the sale of bonds, and, if so, to what extent.

(g) An estimate of the taxes required to be levied for all authority purposes, the sources from which such taxes shall be obtained, and the proportion or amount to be derived from each source.

(h) The date on which the bond election will be held, the hours during the day which the polls will be open, and the manner of voting for and against the incurring of such indebtedness; provided, however, the authority shall have no power or authority, within six (6) months after an election at which a proposition submitted to the qualified electors of the authority failed to receive the requisite number of votes as provided in Section 7.61, to call or order another election for incurring any indebtedness for purposes substantially the same as voted upon at such prior election. If the bond election is consolidated with any other election, the hours during which the polls shall be kept open in each county shall be the same as those provided for the election with which the election called pursuant to this act is consolidated and reference to that effect in the resolution shall be sufficient without specifying the particular hours.

SEC. 7.54. Any election submitting the proposition of incurring indebtedness and the issuance of bonds called pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, may be held separately, or may be consolidated with any other election authorized by law, at which the qualified voters of any county, city and county, or city are entitled to vote. However, in the event any such election called pursuant to this chapter is consolidated with any other election, as provided by Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 223300), Part 2, Division 12 of the Elections Code, the provisions of this chapter setting forth the procedure for the calling of the election called pursuant to this chapter shall be complied with, except that the resolution calling such election need not set forth the election precincts or polling places, or the officers of election which shall be the same as those set forth in the ordinance, order, resolution, notice, or other proceeding calling or providing for, or listing or designating the precincts, polling places, and election officers for the election with which the election called pursuant to this chapter is consolidated, and shall refer to such election or to the ordinance, order, resolution, notice, or other proceeding calling, providing for or giving notice of such election and which sets forth such precincts, polling places, and election officers. Such reference may be made by giving the number or title or date of adoption of such ordinance, resolution or order or to the date or proposed date of any publication of such notice and the name of the newspaper or proposed newspaper in which the notice has been or will be published or by any other definite description. Whenever a bond election called pursuant to this chapter is consolidated with a statewide general election held in any county in which the authority is authorized to operate, references to such general election shall be sufficient for all purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 7.55. Whenever a bond election is called pursuant to this chapter and is not consolidated with any other election the authority shall in its resolution calling such bond election, in addition to all other matters required to be set forth therein:

(a) Specify the precincts or consolidated precincts in each county or portion of a county which are adopted for the purposes of the election and designate the location of the polling places, provided that one or more polling places may be established within the same precinct and separate ballot boxes and separate officers of election provided for each group of electors, which group shall be determined by alphabetical designations and divided into groups as nearly equal in number as practicable.

(b) Specify the names of the officers selected to conduct the election, who shall consist of at least one inspector and two judges in each precinct, but not in excess of six election officers for each polling place.

Whenever the bond election called pursuant to this chapter is consolidated in whole or in part with any other election, the precincts, polling places and election officers need not be set forth in the resolution calling the bond election except only to the extent that any precinct, polling place and election officers established for the bond election differ or are in addition to those established for the election with which the bond election called pursuant to this chapter is consolidated.

SEC. 7.56. Notice of a bond election shall be given by publication of the text of the resolution calling the election and except as provided below the text thereof shall be published once a week in each calendar week for two successive calendar weeks at any time prior to the election (the first publication of which shall be not less than twenty (20) days nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the date fixed for the election) in at least one newspaper of general circulation and in not more than three newspapers, designated by the authority, which are printed and published in each county in which the authority is authorized to operate. That portion of the resolution constituting notice of election as published in each county shall contain only the reference to the precincts, polling places, and election officers in the county or portion of the county in which it is published, and it shall not be necessary to publish any portion of the resolution setting forth precincts, polling places or election officers in any other county. Except for the omission in any county of the reference to the precinct, polling place and election officers in any other county, the text of the resolution as published in each county to constitute notice of said election shall be the resolution in form as adopted by the board. To each resolution published in each county there shall be set forth a notice substantially as follows:

"NOTICE OF ELECTION

Notice is hereby given to the qualified electors of the West Bay Rapid Transit Authority that the Authority has duly adopted a resolution calling a bond election within each county in which the Authority is authorized to operate which is set forth in full below, except only for the omission of the designation of the precinct, polling place and officers of election in any county or portion of a county in which such election is to be held except only the designation of such election details as the same pertain to the county or portion of a county in which the attached resolution is published, which election details are set forth in the following text of the resolution."

If there is no newspaper published in any county in which the authority is authorized to operate, the notice shall be posted in three public places in such county.

SEC. 7.57. All the expenses of holding the election shall be borne by the authority, except when the election is consolidated with another election pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 23300), Part 2, Division 12 of the Elections Code in which case the expense borne by the authority shall be that agreed upon by the authority and the other governing body or bodies calling the election.

SEC. 7.58. No error, irregularity or omission in the calling, holding or conducting of any bond election which does not affect the substantial rights of the taxpayers within the authority or the electors voting at any election at which bonds of the authority are authorized to be issued shall invalidate the election or any bonds authorized thereat.

SEC. 7.59. The returns of the election shall be made and the votes shall be canvassed by the county clerk in each county in which the authority is authorized to operate, within thirty (30) days after holding of the election, and the county clerks, respectively, shall certify the result of the election in each county, respectively, to the authority.

SEC. 7.60. At any bond election called pursuant to this chapter, all residents of any county in which the authority is authorized to operate who are qualified electors possessing the qualifications prescribed by the general election laws of the State of California shall be entitled to vote thereat. All bond elections shall be held and conducted as nearly as practicable in accordance with the general laws of the State of California, including provisions with respect to voting by absent voters, but the requirements as to the form of ballots need not apply except to the extent adopted by the authority. Whether a resident of any county in which the authority is authorized to operate is a qualified elector within the authority shall be conclusively determined by the last great register of voters of the county or portion of the county in which the election is held. Except when the bond election is consolidated with any other election, the authority shall designate the hours during which the polls shall be kept open. The polls shall not be opened before 7 a.m. nor kept open later than 8 p.m. and shall be kept open for not less than four hours.

SEC. 7.61. At any bond election two or more propositions for incurring indebtedness may be submitted at the same election in which event the votes cast for and against each proposition shall be counted separately, and whenever three-fifths of the qualified electors voting on any one of such propositions vote in favor thereof such proposition shall be deemed adopted.

SEC. 7.62. Whenever three-fifths of the votes cast at any bond election or on any proposition submitted thereat are in favor of incurring the indebtedness set forth in such proposition, the authority may by resolution at any time it deems proper, or from time to time, provide for the authorization and issuance of the bonds not exceeding the amount authorized at such election.

SEC. 7.63. Bonds may be issued in form payable to bearer, with coupons attached for payment of interest and, if so issued, may be made subject to registration. Bonds issued in bearer form shall constitute negotiable instruments for all purposes under the laws of the State of California. The authority may appoint a registration agent which may be a bank or trust company and authorize such registration agent to maintain books of registry and to register, authenticate and exchange bonds on such terms and conditions and pursuant to such rules and regulations as the authority may provide. The authority may provide for the interchange of coupon bonds for registered bonds and registered bonds for coupon bonds, and may provide that the bonds shall be registered as to principal only, or as to both principal and interest, or otherwise, as the authority may determine.

SEC. 6.64. Coupon bonds may be issued in denominations of one thousand dollars ($1,000), or multiples thereof, as the authority may determine. Coupon bonds of different denominations shall be exchangeable for coupon bonds of other denominations or for registered bonds on such terms and conditions as the authority may determine, including provisions for the authentication of any bonds issued upon such exchange by the registration agent or other agents appointed by the authority for that purpose.

SEC. 7.65. Registered bonds may be issued without limitation as to principal amount, as may be determined by the authority, except that registered bonds shall be in denominations of one thousand dollars ($1,000) or multiples thereof. Registered bonds of any denomination shall be exchangeable with bonds, either in registered or coupon form, of other denominations on such terms and conditions as the authority shall determine, including provisions for authentication of bonds issued upon such exchange by the registration agent or other agents appointed by the authority for that purpose, and upon the payment of such reasonable charges as may be prescribed by the authority.

SEC. 7.66. Bonds shall bear interest at a rate of not to exceed 6 percent per annum, payable semiannually, except that interest for the first year or any fraction thereof may be paid in one installment.

SEC. 7.67. The authority may provide for redemption of bonds prior to maturity, on such notice and at such time or times and with such redemption provisions, including premiums, as the district may determine, provided that no redemption premium shall be in excess of 6 percent of the principal amount of the bonds to be redeemed. No bond is subject to call or redemption prior to its fixed maturity date, unless the right to exercise such call and the redemption price are expressly stated on the face of the bond. When bonds have been validly called for redemption and payment of the principal thereof, and the interest thereon accrued to the date of redemption, together with the redemption premium, if any, shall have been made or provided for, interest thereon shall cease.

SEC. 7.68. The authority may provide for the payment of the principal and interest of bonds at any place within the State of California, or at any other place within the United States, which the authority may designate. The place of payment shall be specified in the bonds and payment shall be made in any coin or currency of the United States of America which at the time of payment is legal tender for public and private debts.

SEC. 7.70. Bonds may be serial or sinking fund bonds, or in part serially and in part sinking fund bonds, with such maturities and in such amounts annually, semi-annually or otherwise, as the authority may determine at the time of authorizing the issuance thereof.

SEC. 7.71. No bond by its terms shall mature in more than fifty (50) years from its own date, and in the event any authorized issue is divided into two or more series or divisions, the maximum maturity herein authorized shall be calculated from the date on the face of each bond, separately, irrespective of the fact that different dates may be prescribed for the bonds of each separate series or division of any authorized issue.

SEC. 7.72. The authority may divide any authorized issue into one or more series or division and fix different dates and different maturity dates for the bonds of each series or division.

SEC. 7.73. The authority may prescribe the form of such bonds, and of the interest coupons attached thereto. Bonds shall be signed by the chairman of the authority (or such other member of the authority as the authority shall by resolution designate) and countersigned by the secretary of the authority and the seal of the authority shall be affixed thereto. The interest coupons on said bonds shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the treasurer of said authority. The signature on all coupons and one signature on the bonds may be engraved, lithographed, or printed facsimile signature. The seal of the authority may be affixed to any bond by mechanical reproduction of a facsimile thereof. In case any officer whose signature or countersignature appearing on the bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds to the purchaser, such signature or countersignature shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if such officer had remained in office until the delivery of the bonds. If the authority appoints a registration agent, fiscal agent, or other agent to authenticate bonds, any bond of the authority, whether in coupon or registered form, may be signed by the facsimile signatures of the officers of the authority with a facsimile seal of the authority affixed mechanically or otherwise reproduced thereon, provided that such bonds shall be authenticated by the fiscal agent, registration agent, or other agent appointed by the authority for that purpose. Any agent appointed by the authority to authenticate registered bonds or exchange bonds of different denominations, or coupon bonds for registered bonds, or vice versa, shall be a bank or trust company authorized to transact, and transacting, business in the State of California or the State of New York.

SEC. 7.74. Pending the actual issuance or delivery of bonds, the authority may issue temporary or interim bonds, certificates, or receipts, of any denomination whatsoever, with or without coupon, and in such form as may be prescribed by the authority, to be exchanged for definitive bonds when ready for delivery.

SEC. 7.75. The authority may provide that interest on bonds may be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds during the actual construction of any project, for the acquisition, construction, or completion of which bonds have been issued, and for a period of not to exceed three years thereafter, as determined by the authority.

SEC. 7.76. The authority shall provide for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds by the levy and collection of taxes upon all property in each county in which the authority is authorized to operate subject to taxation by the authority, except that such taxes need not be levied to the extent that the authority deposits in the treasury set apart for that purpose moneys derived from surplus revenues or any appropriations which may be made to it for that purpose or from any other funds howsoever derived.

SEC. 7.77. Any general obligation bonds which shall be issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be legal investment for all trust funds; for the funds of insurance companies, banks—both commercial and savings—and trust companies; and for state school funds; and whenever any money or funds may, by any law now or hereafter enacted, be invested in bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts, or irrigation districts within the State of California, such money or funds may be invested in the general obligation bonds issued under this chapter, and whenever bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts, or irrigation districts within this State may, by any law now or hereafter enacted, be used as security for the performance of any act or the deposit of any public moneys, the said bonds issued under this chapter may be so used. The provisions of this chapter shall be in addition to all other laws relating to legal investments and shall be controlling as the latest expression of the Legislature with respect thereto.

SEC. 7.78. The authority may by resolution at any time, or from time to time, provide for the authorization and issuance of any bonds authorized pursuant to this chapter and for the sale of the whole or any part thereof.

SEC. 7.79. Before making a sale of any of the bonds, notice shall be given by publication once a week, for two weeks, in a newspaper of general circulation in any county in which the authority is authorized to operate, if there is one, and no sale shall be held prior to the expiration of 15 days from the first publication of the notice. Copies of such advertisement may be published in any newspaper or financial publication in the United States and copies may be mailed to recognized investment dealers, banks, investing institutions and statistical organizations, together with any related material pertaining to the authority and its bonds, but no defect in any such additional publication or failure to mail or failure of any person to receive copies of any such materials so mailed shall affect the validity of the sale.

SEC. 7.80. The published notice of sale shall describe the bonds and set forth the terms and conditions of sale, including the following:

(a) It shall state that sealed proposals for the bonds to be sold will be received, opened publicly at the time and place stated in the notice of sale, and not before, and shall be publicly announced.

(b) It shall invite bidders to name the rate or rates of interest to be borne by the bonds, which rate or rates shall be stated in multiples of one-eighth or one-twentieth of 1 percent, but in no event exceed 6 percent per annum, payable as provided in the notice of sale. Bidders may be permitted to bid different rates of interest and to split rates irrespective of the maturities of said bonds, within such limitations as the notice of sale may provide.

(c) It shall state that the bonds will not be sold for less than the par value of such bonds, and accrued interest at the stated rate or rates thereon to date of payment of the purchase price.

(d) It shall state that the bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the authority would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the authority. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed on a 360-day year basis.

(e) It shall require all bidders to deposit a certified or cashier's check, drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the authority treasurer, in an amount up to, but not exceeding, 2 percent of the par value of the bonds proposed to be sold, to partially secure the authority from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the term of his bid. The specific amount of the good faith deposit required of all bidders will be stated in the notice of sale. The good faith deposits of unsuccessful bidders will be returned by mail or personal delivery at the time of making the award to the successful bidder. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

(f) It shall state that the authority shall reject any and all bids which do not comply with the terms of the notice. Any bidder whose bid has been rejected by reason of any irregularity or informality or other defect in the bid shall be disqualified from purchasing the bonds offered pursuant to the notice of sale at any subsequent private sale of the same bonds.

(g) It shall state that if no bids are received, or if the highest bid received is not satisfactory as to price, the authority may reject all bids received, if any, and either re-advertise or sell the bonds at private sale. However, if the bonds are to be sold at private sale, they may not be sold at a price lower than the highest bid received at public sale. Bidders whose bids have been rejected at public sale because of irregularity or informality in their bids will not be permitted to bid at private sale.

(h) It shall state that the authority will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after expiration of the time prescribed in the notice for receipt of proposals, provided that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time, if the bidder shall not have given the authority notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

(i) It shall state that delivery of bonds will be made to the successful bidder at a designated office as soon as the bonds can be prepared (but not prior to the date of the bonds). The authority may also provide for delivery of bonds at such place or places, anywhere in the United States, as may be specified in the notice of sale and for receipt and transmittal of purchase price in cash or bank credits in the form of certified Federal Reserve Bank funds. The cost of printing, engraving, or lithographing the bonds will be borne by the authority.

(j) It shall provide that the successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

(k) It shall provide that if prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any federal income tax laws, either by the term of such laws or by ruling of a federal income tax authority or official, which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service or by decision of any federal court, the successful bidder may at his option prior to the tender of said bonds by the authority, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and in such case the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

SEC. 7.83. Refunding general obligations may be issued and may be sold in accordance with the provisions set forth in this chapter for other bonds, except that no election need be called or held for the purpose of authorizing the issuance of refunding bonds and such refunding bonds may be sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the redemption of bonds of indebtedness or may be exchanged at not less than their par value for the evidences of indebtedness to be refunded.

SEC. 7.84. Refunding bonds issued pursuant to this chapter will have the same weight and force and may be used in the same manner as the bonds to be refunded.

SEC. 7.85. The proceeds of any sale of refunding bonds for cash shall be deposited with the treasurer or depository, as determined by the authority, to the credit of the Funding Fund, and applied only to refunding the indebtedness for which the bonds are issued.

When sufficient money is in the Funding Fund to redeem one or more outstanding past due bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness, or to redeem one or more of the outstanding bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness, which are subject to call or payment before maturity, and which are proposed to be funded or refunded, the treasurer shall publish a notice that he is prepared to pay the bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness (giving its number, if any). The notice shall be published once a week for two weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in any county in which the authority is authorized to operate, if there is one. Copies of such advertisement may be published in any newspaper or financial publication in the United States. If the bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness to be called for redemption or refunded is not presented for redemption on or before the date specified for redemption, as set forth on the face of such outstanding bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness, interest thereon shall cease.

SEC. 7.89. CHAPTER 13.5. ANNEXATION OF COUNTIES

SEC. 13.51. Any West Bend county which did not adopt a resolution declaring that there was a need for the authority to operate in the county within the time limit prescribed in Section 4.1 may be included within the area in which the authority is authorized to operate by annexation in the manner provided in this chapter.

SEC. 13.52. The board of supervisors of the county proposed to be annexed shall agree in writing with the authority upon the terms and conditions of annexation, which agreement (among other things) may provide for the levy and collection of special taxes within the county in addition to the taxes elsewhere in this act provided for, the fixing of rates, rentals, and charges differing from those fixed or existing elsewhere within the authority, the incurring or assumption of indebtedness, or the making of a payment or payments, or the transfer of property, real and personal, and other assets to the authority by the county.

SEC. 13.53. As a condition of annexation, the authority shall require any county seeking to annex to the authority to reimburse the authority for the county's equitable share of the previously incurred cost of financing capital expenditures within the authority theretofore imposed by taxation on territory in which the authority is authorized to operate. The amount of reimbursement due from such county shall be computed on the following basis: one-half in the proportion that the population of the county bears to the total population of the counties in which the authority is authorized to operate and one-half in the proportion that the assessed value of the real estate of the county bears to the total assessed value of the real estate of the counties in which the authority is authorized to operate. Determinations of population shall be made by the authority on the latest official information available to it. Determinations by the authority as to the amount of capital expenditures shall be conclusive in each case.

SEC. 13.54. As an alternative method of annexation, a petition may be presented to the board of supervisors of a county proposed to be annexed, signed by qualified electors of the county, in number to at least ten (10) percent of the total vote cast at the last general election within the county. The petition shall contain statements and declarations setting forth the reason for annexation. Such petition may be on separate papers, but each paper shall contain the affidavit of the party who circulated it, certifying that each name signed thereto is the true signature of the person whose name it purports to be. The clerk of the board of supervisors of such county shall compare the signatures with the affidavits of registration and certify to the board of supervisors the sufficiency or insufficiency of such petition. If found and certified by the clerk as being sufficient, such petition shall have all the force and effect of a resolution adopted by the board of supervisors of such county.

SEC. 13.55. Upon receipt of a petition pursuant to Section 13.54, the board of supervisors shall communicate with the authority and negotiate an annexation agreement and hold an election as provided in this chapter.

SEC. 13.56. The agreement shall become effective and be binding upon the authority and the county when approved in the manner set forth in this chapter. The authority shall by ordinance setting forth the agreement at length declare its intention of causing it to be executed by the authority.

SEC. 13.57. The ordinance, together with a notice fixing the time and place for hearing thereon, shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation published in any county in which the authority is authorized to operate. The time fixed for the hearing shall be not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days from the date of the publication of the ordinance.

SEC. 13.58. At the hearing any person interested may file with the authority written objections to the execution of the agreement.

SEC. 13.59. Upon the hearing the authority shall determine whether or not the agreement will be carried into execution and shall hear and determine all objections thereto. Failure of any person interested in the authority or in the matter of the proposed execution of the agreement to show cause in writing pursuant to Section 13.58, constitutes an assent on his part to a change in the boundaries of the area in which the authority is authorized to operate and to the execution of the agreement.

SEC. 13.60. Any hearing on the agreement may be adjourned from time to time by the authority without further notice other than an order to be entered upon the minutes of the meeting fixing the time and place of adjournment.

SEC. 13.61. If no protests are filed or if the protests filed are overruled and denied, the authority shall thereupon by resolution finally approve the agreement and authorize its execution, which shall become effective when executed by the county, duly authorized in the manner provided in this chapter.

SEC. 13.61. When executed by the authority the agreement shall be dated and an executed copy filed with the secretary of the authority. An executed copy shall also be filed with the clerk of the county to be annexed.

SEC. 13.62. At any time after the authority has finally approved the agreement of annexation the board of supervisors of the county to be annexed shall cause an election to be held in the county to determine whether the county will be annexed to the area in which the authority is authorized to operate upon the terms and conditions stated in the agreement.

Notice of election shall be published once a week for two successive weeks (two publications) in a newspaper of general circulation published within the county, and shall either state that a copy of the annexation agreement is on file in the office of the clerk of the county proposed to be annexed, and open to the inspection of all persons interested, or set forth the terms and conditions of the agreement of annexation at length, in the discretion of the board of supervisors calling the election.

SEC. 13.63. The ballots for the election shall contain substantially the instructions required to be printed on ballots for use at general state and county elections and in addition shall set forth the proposition of annexation substantially as follows:

|---|-----|--|
| Shall the County of _____ be annexed to the area in which the West Bay Rapid Transit Authority may operate in accordance with and subject to all the terms and conditions of an agreement of annexation dated _____ now on file in the office of the Clerk of _____ County? | YES | |
| | NO | |

SEC. 13.64. If upon a canvass of the election it is found that a majority of all votes cast on the proposition at the election were cast in favor of the annexation, the proposition and all of the terms and conditions of the agreement of annexation shall be deemed carried and approved by the voters.

Sec. 13.65. If the proposition fails to carry, the result shall be entered upon the minutes of the board of supervisors of the county.

Sec. 13.66. If the proposition receives the vote of the requisite majority of voters, the board of supervisors of the county shall enter in its minutes an order declaring the result of the election and shall thereupon cause the agreement of annexation to be executed by its duly authorized officers.

Sec. 13.67. Upon receipt by the authority of a copy of the agreement of annexation properly executed by the authority and the county proposed to be annexed the authority shall pass a resolution declaring the authority is authorized to operate in the county, and shall cause a certified copy of the resolution to be filed with the Secretary of State. From and after the date of filing of the resolution with the Secretary of State the annexation of the county is complete.

Sec. 13.68. From and after the date of annexation the authority shall levy upon all of the property in the county annexed such taxes, tolls, or charges as are necessary to provide funds for the payment of the indebtedness assumed by the county or otherwise necessary to comply with the terms and conditions of the annexation agreement, all in addition to other taxes authorized elsewhere in this act to be levied and collected.

Sec. 13.69. The validity of any proceedings for the annexation of any county shall not be contested in any action unless the action is brought within three (3) months after the completion of the proceedings."

Senate Resolution No. 120

Relative to riding and hiking trails

WHEREAS, In 1945 the California Riding and Hiking Trails Law was enacted (Public Resources Code, Sections 5070-5077) to provide, in part, for "the establishment, development, maintenance, and use of a statewide system of riders' and hikers' trails, both primary and secondary"; and

WHEREAS, This program, as contemplated in 1945, did not envision the great influx of people into California or the resulting loss of trail routes and sites; and

WHEREAS, In 1953 the Senate Interim Committee on Riding and Hiking Trails was established (S.R. 133, 1953 Regular Session) to study this subject and to submit its final report to the 1955 Regular Session, which was done; and

WHEREAS, Riding and hiking trails are of great importance to the State of California because such trails make accessible regions of great natural beauty which could not otherwise be reached; and

WHEREAS, Use of such trails encourages physical fitness, spiritual development, and self-reliance, and aids in reducing juvenile delinquency; and

WHEREAS, The pleasure-horse industry in California accounts for at least $80,000,000 per year in gross revenues; and

WHEREAS, In our efforts to provide highway facilities for our rapidly expanding population, the inherent right of our citizens to travel from place to place by foot, horse, or bicycle has not received full consideration; and

WHEREAS, Our rapidly developing highway systems, and other developments, public and private, are absorbing routes of travel formerly used by pedestrians, cyclists, and equestrians, without providing replacement routes for such use, thereby reducing the utility of the state riding and hiking trail system and interconnecting public and private trail systems; and

WHEREAS, This subject should again be studied; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the Senate Rules Committee is hereby directed to assign the subject matter of this resolution to an appropriate Senate permanent factfinding committee for investigation and study with particular emphasis on (a) the extent of development of the state trail system, (b) the extent to which local public and private trails are, or could be, interconnected with, and used as feeders for, the state trail system, (c) the degree of co-ordination between those public agencies, state and local, which are diverting to other uses property now utilized for riding and hiking trails, with the Division of Beaches and Parks and other agencies administering riding and hiking trails, (d) the degree of co-ordination between the Division of Beaches and Parks and other agencies administering riding and hiking trails, and (e) whether additional financing, legislation, or both, is needed for adequate development of the state trail system; and be it further

Resolved, That the factfinding committee to which the subject matter of this resolution is assigned shall report its findings, together with its recommendations for legislation, further study of this subject, or both, to the Senate not later than the fifth legislative day of the 1965 legislative session.

Resolution read, and referred to Committee on Rules.

Resolution of the Board of Supervisors of the County of TrinityResolution No. 24-63, Re: Proposed Whiskeytown-Shasta-Trinity National Recreation Area

WHEREAS, There has been introduced in the Senate of the United States Senate Bill 734, and there has been introduced in the House of Representatives of the United States House Bill 3618, which bills relate to the establishment of the Whiskeytown-Shasta-Trinity National Recreation Area; and

WHEREAS, Said bills provide for the acquisition of privately owned lands surrounding Trinity Lake and Lewiston Lake, all of which lands are located in the County of Trinity and comprise in excess of 30 sections of land; and

WHEREAS, Land to be taken includes the entire community of Trinity Center, a community of 185 persons which recently was uprooted and moved to a new site by reason of the Trinity Dam Project; and

WHEREAS, Lands being acquired include properties which have been or are presently being developed through private enterprise as resort areas, subdivisions, and related purposes, including but not limited to Trinity Alps Resort, Cedar Stock Ranch Resort, Covington's Subdivision, Scott's Subdivision, Scott's Marina, and Young's Subdivision; and

WHEREAS, Land being taken includes private property of Southern Pacific Land Company and other private owners which is ideally located for development of subdivisions, resorts, and marinas, and includes valuable timber lands; and

WHEREAS, The County of Trinity will sustain grave losses by reason of the acquisition of ownership of said lands by the United States Government by reason of loss of tax base and by reason of loss of private lands which could be developed, thereby increasing said tax base and also increasing business and economic conditions in said county; and

WHEREAS, The United States Government at the present time owns approximately 76 percent of all lands in the County of Trinity, and as a result said county is presently without sufficient privately owned land to provide a tax base to sustain the county; and

WHEREAS, The United States Government has previously acquired privately owned lands in said county in order to construct and operate the Trinity Dam Project, which has resulted in a loss of taxable lands in said county; and

WHEREAS, The development and distribution of electrical power in connection with the Trinity Dam Project has been retained by the United States Government and has not been relinquished to private industry so as to increase the tax base and economy of said county; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Board of Supervisors for the County of Trinity, State of California, that the people of the County of Trinity and their Board of Supervisors hereby adamantly and irrevocably oppose the proposed Whiskeytown Shasta-Trinity National Recreation Area, insofar as the same affects Trinity County, and opposes said Senate Bill 734 and House Bill 3618, and opposes the acquisition of any lands by the United States Government located in the County of Trinity as proposed by said legislation; and be it further

Resolved, That the County of Trinity further informs and advises its legally elected representatives and advises the Government of the United States of America that it cannot continue to function as a county and a political subdivision of the State of California if privately owned lands continue to be removed from the power of local taxation; and be it further Resolved, That the Clerk of this Board shall send a copy of this resolution to Senator Thomas H. Kuebel, Senator Clair Engle, Congressman Harold T. (Bizz) Johnson, Secretary of the Interior, Secretary of the Department of Agriculture, and to Edward P. Cliffs, Chief, Forest Service.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL WELFARE

Hon. Glenn M. Anderson
President of the Senate
Senate Chamber, State Capitol
Sacramento, California

MR. PRESIDENT: Pursuant to Division 1, Chapter 5, Section 404 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as adopted by the 1961 Regular Session of the Legislature, the State Department of Social Welfare submits its report on the progress achieved and the funds expended by County Demonstration Projects through December 1962.

"Titled "The Project Program," the report dramatically illustrates the interest of California communities and the State Department of Social Welfare in finding more effective ways of restoring our dependent population to productive, self-sufficient lives. As of December 1962, public and private welfare agencies had submitted a total of 164 projects for our consideration. Of these, 80 have been approved and initiated and an additional 19 are under study.

As the causes of dependency and poverty grow more complex, so do the means of rehabilitation and prevention. The experience gained from the projects described in this report is already valuable in shaping the policies and goals of welfare agencies at every level of community interest.

We believe that this report clearly reveals that the aims of the Legislature in establishing the County Demonstration Project Program are being realized.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. WEDEMEYER, Director
State Department of Social Welfare

Letter of Transmittal ordered printed in the Journal and the report filed with the Secretary of the Senate.

(a) The director shall not determine that substantial adverse selection exists with respect to a plan or plans heretofore or hereafter submitted for approval pursuant to Sections 3254 or 3255, either in connection with the approval of such a plan or plans or in connection with the continuing approval of such plan or plans upon any redetermination as hereinafter provided, if the sum of the percentages of females and of persons age 50 and over among the employees to be covered by the plan or plans and the employees covered by all other plans insured by the same insurer is no more than 10 percentage points below the sum of the percentages of females and of persons age 50 and over among all employees in employment under this division. Age may be computed in years either regardless of the nearest birthday or to the nearest birthday, and in the latter case, reasonable statistical methods may be used. Percentages of females and of persons age 50 and over shall be computed to the nearest hundredth of 1 percent.

(b) The director shall compute on October 1, 1963, and thereafter on or before July 1 of each calendar year, the percentages of females and of persons age 50 and over among all employees in employment under this division based upon the average of the percentages in employment during each of the most recent four calendar quarters ending with the most recent fourth calendar quarter for which an official compilation computed from a random sample expanded to represent one hundred percent (100%) of all subject employment has been certified by the director. The computation on October 1, 1963 shall be applicable from October 1, 1963, through December 31, 1964, including application to plans approved by the director prior to October 1, 1963. Each computation made on or before July 1 of a calendar year shall be applicable during the calendar year next succeeding the computation. In any computation under this subdivision, the director shall exclude all employees paid wages during the four calendar quarters involved in an amount less than the amount required under Section 2652 to establish a valid claim. The director shall promptly give notice to each admitted disability insurer underwriting voluntary plans of each computation made under this subdivision.

(c) The content of females and of persons age 50 and over among the employees covered or to be covered under a plan or plans submitted for approval pursuant to Sections 3254 or 3255 shall be determined from those in employment at any time during the last completed calendar quarter for which data is available when the application is submitted for approval and who would have been covered had the plan then been in effect, but if information is not available for a complete calendar quarter, the content shall be measured during a current payroll period, which may precede or include the effective date of the plan.

(d) The director may from time to time require the insurer of an approved voluntary plan, as a condition of continuing approval of such plan, to submit data to the department for a redetermination. Such data shall be submitted within 60 days after notice to the insurer, which shall be given not less than 60 days preceding the anniversary date of such plan. Data for such redetermination of a plan shall not be required more frequently than biennially. The director may also require, as a condition of continuing approval of a plan, that the insurer of the plan submit data to the department within 60 days of notice to the insurer for a redetermination if, following a partial acquisition by a successor employing unit, the plan continues pursuant to Section 3254.5 and there is a change of insurer or termination of any portion of the plan involved in such partial acquisition. The insurer in submitting the data for any redetermination shall include the number of employees, the number of female employees, and the number of employees age 50 and over, for the plan or plans involved, for those in employment at any time during the last completed calendar quarter for which data is available and who were covered by the plan or plans. Failure by an insurer to submit data to the department within the time allowed shall constitute good cause for the withdrawal of approval of the plan or plans involved. The insurer may provide data for a biennial redetermination of a plan if the director does not require one, but otherwise no redetermination shall be made except as required by the director. Data submitted for any redetermination under this subdivision shall be recorded by the department as of the first day of the calendar quarter next succeeding the date of receipt of the data by the department.

(e) As a condition of approval of any plan or plans submitted for approval, or continuing approval of plans approved prior to October 1, 1963, each insurer shall file a written agreement with the department, on a form prescribed by the director, to pay into the Disability Fund penalty assessments pursuant to this section. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (i) of Section 3254 and of subdivision

(i) of Section 3255, the director shall not disapprove any plan or plans on the grounds that there would result a substantial selection of risks adverse to the Disability Fund, if the insurer has filed the agreement required by this subdivision. The penalty assessment shall apply to all taxable wages exempt from contributions pursuant to Section 3252 paid by employers whose plans are insured by the insurer during any calendar quarter as to which, as of the first day thereof, according to the information for that day as shown on the department's records not later than 30 days thereafter, the director finds that substantial adverse selection exists. The penalty assessment shall amount to eighty-four one-hundredths of 1 percent (0.84%) of the amount of contributions provided for under Section 984 for each full percentage point that the sum of the percentages of females and of persons age 50 and over is more than 10 percentage points below the sum of the percentages of females and of persons age 50 and over in employment under this division, as determined under subdivision (b) of this section. The provisions of Part 1 of this division with respect to the assessment and collection of contributions shall apply to the assessments provided by this section, except that interest shall not accrue until 30 days after notice of assessment.

(f) As to any insured voluntary plan previously approved by the director and continuing on October 1, 1963, the director shall upon request of any insurer compute, where possible, the percentages of females and of persons age 50 and over covered under such plan from census data submitted to the department prior to October 1, 1963, but an insurer may on or before December 31, 1963, submit census data for any such plan in accordance with subdivision (c) of this section as if the plan were being originally submitted for approval. If data has not been submitted prior to October 1, 1963, the director shall require the insurer of the plan to submit data in accordance with subdivision (c) of this section, as if the plan were being originally submitted for approval, and if the insurer does not submit data on or before December 31, 1963, the director shall terminate the plan as of that date."

PRAYER

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Father Keith Kenny:

Like the multicolored bits of glass tumbling in a kaleidoscope seemingly by chance yet forming exquisite patterns of varicolored beauty in mathematical precision, only to tumble again into new and mysterious forms each successively superior to the last—so too, O Redeeming Lord, do the many mysteries of these most holy days seem ever anew to pattern and repattern changing forms of order and beauty: Mysteries of betrayal and fidelity, of failure and of fulfillment, of vengeance and of mercy, of anguish and of exultation, of fear and of resolute courage, of the green wood and of the dry, of farewell and of eternal presence, of hatred and of love, of death and of life, of Crucifixion and of Resurrection.

In the interplay of all of these and more many-colored pieces, O Lord, we discover not only our salvation, but our personal destiny, the ultimate fulfillment of our existential being—in Thee. AMEN.

CHAPTER 5.6. APPLICATION FOR PUBLIC SOCIAL SERVICES

449. Except as provided in Sections 1557 and 4740 of this code, applications for public social services or public assistance, as defined by Section 425, by any person, or in behalf of any person, shall be made to the county department in the county in which the applicant is living. The application may be made in writing or reduced to writing upon the standard form prescribed in regulations of the department and a copy shall be furnished to each applicant at the time of the application.

449.1. Whenever a former recipient of aid requests restoration of aid before the expiration of one year from the effective date of a cancellation or a discontinuance and if it is determined that he is eligible for such aid it shall be granted to him without the necessity for a new application. Such person shall, however, be required to file a new affirmation of eligibility as required by Section 449.4.

449.2. Application for aid may be made within 60 days prior to the date on which the applicant meets the technical requirements for such aid which have to do with factors other than need.

Application made on behalf of a child deprived of parental support because of separation or desertion may be made within 60 days prior to the date on which he will become eligible.

The application shall be promptly investigated and acted upon but in no event shall the aid, if granted, begin as of a date prior to the date on which he meets such requirements.

449.3. When a recipient or former recipient of public assistance moves from one county to another the determination of the existence of particular conditions of eligibility made by the former county of residence shall be binding on subsequent counties of residence provided that the determination was made within the sound exercise of discretion by, and that no fraud was practiced on, the former county and that there has not been a material change in circumstances.

449.4. Each applicant shall be required before approval of assistance or services to file an affirmation setting forth his belief that he meets the specific conditions of eligibility. Such statements shall be on forms prescribed by the department and, in the case of applicants for aid under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1500) of Part 2 of Division 2, shall contain a written declaration that the affirmation is made under penalty of perjury. Any person signing a statement containing such declaration who willfully and knowingly with intent to deceive states as true any material matter which he knows to be false is subject to the penalty prescribed for perjury in the Penal Code. A copy of the affirmation shall be furnished to the applicant at the time he files it.

A county department may also require like statements to be completed prior to approving restoration of aid as provided by Section 449.1 and may require new statements at any time for purposes of continuing assistance.

449.5. The county shall promptly investigate all applications for public assistance as prescribed by the regulations of the department.

449.6. If the applicant is determined to be eligible, aid shall be granted from the date of application, or from the date on which he is found to have become eligible if later than the date of application, or upon an earlier date if determined by and in connection with a petition for a fair hearing.

The county at the time of receiving an application for public assistance shall determine whether the applicant needs immediate assistance. If it appears that the applicant is eligible for public assistance and a signed affirmation is on file to this effect aid shall be granted immediately. If subsequent investigation establishes ineligibility then the cost of such assistance shall be shared by the state and county in accordance with the applicable sharing ratio after federal contributions are deducted.

Sec. 2. Section 1550 of said code is repealed.

[1550. Except as provided in Section 1557 of this code, application for aid in behalf of any child shall be made to the county in which he is living at the time of application. The county shall promptly investigate all applications in the manner prescribed by regulations of the State Board of Social Welfare and report facts secured by such investigation on forms prescribed by such board. The county shall approve or deny such application. The investigation for eligibility shall be completed promptly, without any unnecessary delay, and with all diligence after receipt of an application with the objective that payment is made to all eligible persons within the minimum possible length of time.

If the applicant is determined to be eligible the aid shall be granted from the first day of the month in which the determination is made that he is eligible, but aid shall not begin prior to the date of application unless an earlier date is required by Section 104.1.

If the investigation is not completed within 45 days, the investigation shall continue until completed and if eligibility is established aid shall begin as of the first day of the month following the month in which the 45th day falls.

The county, at the time of receiving an application for aid, under this chapter, shall determine if the applicant needs emergency assistance. If the applicant meets the county's requirements, county aid shall be granted until the investigation for aid under this chapter is completed.

Every application for aid in behalf of any child shall be verified under oath, or shall contain a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury. A county may require supplementary written statements in connection with an application for aid or the continuation of aid to be verified or signed under a like declaration. Any person signing any application or statement containing such declaration who willfully and knowingly, with intent to deceive, states therein as true any material matter which he knows to be false is subject to the penalties prescribed for perjury in the Penal Code of this State.]

Sec. 3. Section 1550.5 of said code is repealed.

[1550.5. Whenever a former recipient of aid under this chapter whose aid has been canceled or discontinued for any cause requests restoration of aid before the expiration of one year from the effective date of such cancellation or discontinuance and if it is determined that he is eligible therefor, aid shall be granted to him in accordance with provisions of Section 1550. No new application shall be required if restoration of aid is requested in the county where aid was canceled or discontinued.]

Sec. 4. Section 2163 is added to said code, to read:

2163. The cost of hospitalization furnished by a county to a recipient of aid under this chapter shall not constitute a lien against the real property of such recipient, and no lien shall be taken therefor.

Sec. 5. Section 2180 of said code is repealed.

[2180. Application for aid under this chapter shall be made to the board of supervisors of the county in which the applicant resides. An applicant shall apply in person unless he is physically unable to do so, in which event the application may be made by his authorized representative in his behalf. This application may be made in writing or reduced to writing upon the standard form prescribed by regulation of the State Board of Social Welfare, and a copy of his application shall be furnished to each applicant at the time of application. The form shall contain questions, the answers to which will provide the information necessary to establish eligibility for aid under this chapter. All statements in the application shall be verified, under oath by the applicant.]

Sec. 6. Section 2180.1 of said code is repealed.

[2180.1. Application for aid under this chapter may be made within 60 days prior to the date on which the applicant will attain the minimum age of eligibility for such aid, and the application shall be promptly investigated and acted upon; but in no event shall the aid, if granted, be commenced as of a date prior to the date on which the applicant attains the minimum age of eligibility therefor.]

Sec. 7. Section 2180.5 of said code is repealed.

[2180.5. The board of supervisors, directly or through an authorized investigator, shall upon receipt of an application for aid, promptly, without any unnecessary delay, and with all diligence, make the necessary investigation with the objective that payment is made to all eligible persons within the minimum possible length of time after the application is made.

If the applicant is determined to be eligible the aid shall be granted from the first day of the month in which the determination is made that he is eligible, but aid shall not begin prior to the date of application unless an earlier date is required by Section 104.1. If the investigation is not completed within 45 days, the investigation shall continue until completed and if eligibility is established aid shall begin as of the first day of the month following the month in which the forty-fifth day falls.

The county, at the time of receiving an application for aid under this chapter, shall determine if the applicant needs emergency assistance. If the applicant meets the county's requirements, county aid shall be granted until the investigation for aid under this chapter is completed.]

SEC. 8. Section 2180.6 of said code is repealed.

[2180.6. Whenever a former recipient of aid under this chapter whose aid has been canceled or discontinued for any cause, except employment, requests restoration of aid before the expiration of one year from the effective date of such cancellation or discontinuance and if it is determined that he is eligible therefor, aid shall be granted to him in accordance with provisions of Section 2180.5. No new application shall be required if restoration of aid is requested in the county where aid was canceled or discontinued.]

SEC. 9. Section 2180.7 of said code is repealed.

[2180.7. Whenever an applicant for aid under this chapter is found by investigation to be ineligible but it is apparent that such applicant may become eligible within 90 days, the application shall be kept on file in order that aid may be granted from the date of eligibility. However, the applicant shall be required to keep the county informed of any substantial changes in his circumstances which may otherwise affect eligibility.]

SEC. 10. Section 2220 of said code is amended to read:

2220. The board of supervisors may for cause, and upon instructions so to do by the State Department of Social Welfare, shall cancel, suspend, or revoke aid. Upon request of the department, an immediate report of every suspension shall be made to the State Department of Social Welfare stating the reason for the suspension and showing the action of the board of supervisors in approving the suspension.

Eligibility for medical assistance for the blind under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4700) of Part 4 of Division 5 does not constitute cause for automatic cancellation, suspension, or revocation of aid.

SEC. 11. Section 2600.5 is added to said code, to read:

2600.5. The policies established under Section 2600 shall not deny needed care in a county hospital, or contract hospital as defined in Section 4701 of this code, to any person who meets the eligibility requirements for medical assistance for the aged under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4700) of Part 4 of Division 5, and shall not require the application of any property of such a person to his support or the taking of any lien upon that property.

SEC. 12. Section 3045.1 is added to said code, to read:

3045.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, persons receiving or applying for aid under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 3400) of this part but eligible under this chapter and the provisions of Section 3084.5 may instead be granted aid under this chapter without the necessity of filing a new application and be restored to aid under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 3400) at the end of 12 months or such other period as may be authorized by federal law or regulations.

An otherwise eligible applicant for aid under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 3400) of this part may continue to be granted aid under this chapter up to a period of 12 months or such other period as may be authorized by federal law or regulations.

SEC. 13. Section 3081 of said code is repealed.

[3081. Each applicant for aid shall file with the county agency designated to administer aid to the blind an application, accompanied by an affidavit, signed by him, stating, if known, his age, sex, counties of residence during the preceding 10 years, his financial resources and income, the name and address of his spouse and of each of his adult children and parents, the degree of his blindness, where and when he became blind, what employment and education he has had, his general physical condition, and such other data as are necessary to establish his eligibility for aid to the blind. The applicant's sworn statement in his application shall constitute prima facie evidence of the facts stated, except with respect to degree of blindness and residence. This section shall not be interpreted to preclude a full and complete investigation by the agency administering aid to the blind.]

SEC. 14. Section 3082 of said code is repealed.

[3082. The board of supervisors shall immediately investigate into the merits of all applications for aid under the provisions of this chapter and Chapter 3 of this part. Such investigation shall be completed promptly, without any unnecessary delay, and with all diligence after receipt of an application with the objective that payment is made to all eligible persons within the minimum possible length of time.

If the investigation is not completed within 45 days, the investigation shall continue until completed and if eligibility is established aid shall begin as of the first day of the month following the month in which the 45th day falls.

The county, at the time of receiving an application for aid, under this chapter, shall determine if the applicant needs emergency assistance. If the applicant meets the county's requirements, county aid shall be granted until the investigation for aid under this chapter is completed.]

Sec. 15. Section 3082.2 of said code is repealed.

[3082.2. Whenever an applicant for aid under this chapter is found by investigation to be ineligible but it is apparent that such applicant will become eligible within 90 days, the application shall be kept on file in order that aid may be granted from the date of eligibility. However, the applicant shall be required to keep the county informed of any substantial changes in his circumstances which may otherwise affect eligibility.]

Sec. 16. Section 3084.6 is added to said code, to read:

3084.6. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter or of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 3400) of Part 1 of Division 5 of this code, any recipient who has a plan for achieving self-support may retain, beginning July 1, 1963, such additional amounts of other income and resources as may be necessary for the fulfillment of such plan for a period not to exceed 12 months or such other period as may be authorized by federal law or regulations.

Sec. 17. Section 3472 of said code is amended to read:

3472. Any applicant shall be entitled to an amount of aid which, when added to the income of the applicant from all other sources, equals one hundred twenty dollars ($120) per month.

The amount of the grant as set forth in this section and Section 3472.01 shall be adjusted annually by the State Social Welfare Board to reflect any increases in the cost of living occurring after January 1, 1960. The average of the separate indices of cost of living for Los Angeles and San Francisco, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, shall be used as the basis for determining the changes in the cost of living. Whenever the cost of living increases by a percentage which when multiplied by one hundred fifteen dollars ($115) results in a product of one dollar ($1) or more, this product adjusted to the nearer dollar amount shall be added to the monetary amount specified in the preceding paragraph and to the corresponding figure specified in Section 3472.01. The resultant sum shall be declared by formal action of the State Social Welfare Board to be the monthly grants payable under this section and Section 3472.01, respectively. In giving effect to the cost of living increase feature of this section the State Social Welfare Board shall select a base month for computation of the percentage change in the cost of living since January 1, 1960. The same month shall be used annually thereafter. The ordered change in maximum grant shall become effective on the first day of the month following the expiration of a ninety (90) day period following the date of the formal action of the board directing the change.

In computing the amount of income determined to be available to support a recipient under this chapter the value of currently used resources shall be included but the value of earned income which is exempt pursuant to this section and the value of casual income and inconsequential resources shall be excluded.

In any case where it is found that the need of an applicant exceeds the maximum provided by this section an additional amount of aid shall be paid as provided by Section 3472.01 of this code.

Annual net income from any of the following sources of a combined total value not exceeding one thousand [two] five hundred dollars [($1,200)] ($1,500) increased by one half of that part of the recipient's annual income which is in excess of one thousand [two] five hundred dollars [($1,200)] ($1,500) shall not be considered for any purpose:

- (a) Income from applicant's labor or services;
- (b) The value of foodstuffs produced by the applicant or his family for his use or that of his family;
- (c) The value of firewood and/or water produced on the premises of the applicant or given to him by another for the applicant's use;
- (d) The value of gifts;
- (e) The value of the use and occupancy of premises owned and occupied by the applicant;
- (f) The net income from real and personal property owned by the applicant.

Income in addition to the above specified shall be computed on the basis of net income. For the purpose of enabling and encouraging a greater number of recipients of aid under this chapter to become self-supporting, all expenditures incurred by an applicant for or a recipient of aid under this chapter in effecting his plan to become self-supporting, including payments made for the purchase of material for fixtures and equipment needed by him in effecting such plan, shall be deducted from gross income in computing his net income for purposes of this chapter: provided, such payments shall not be more than one hundred dollars ($100) per month.

SEC. 18. Section 3473 of said code is amended to read:

3473. An applicant for aid under this chapter shall in addition prove that he is able to secure and willing to use resources and income he is permitted to retain under this chapter, for the purposes of achieving self-support.

The county shall determine whether the applicant has the qualifications necessary for aid under this chapter and may, despite his application, deny him aid under this chapter, and, if eligible, thereunder, grant him aid to the needy blind under Chapter 1 of this part. [Any applicant denied aid under this chapter may file an appeal with the State Social Welfare Board.]

An applicant granted aid under this Chapter 3 shall not be eligible for aid under Chapter 1 of this part.

At least annually the county shall preview the case of every applicant receiving aid under this chapter and shall redetermine whether he is eligible for aid under this chapter or should be granted aid, if eligible under Chapter 1 of this part. Any redetermination by the county shall be subject to review by the State Social Welfare Board upon the appeal of the applicant.]

SEC. 19. Section 4000 of said code is amended to read:

[4000. When used in this chapter "needy disabled person" means a person who meets the eligibility requirements set forth in this chapter and who has a physical or mental impairment, disease, or loss, or combination of these, that prevents him from obtaining employment to the extent required to produce an income adequate to meet his current needs. To the extent required by federal law the impairment must be both permanent and total.]

4000. When used in this chapter, the following words shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section:

(a) "Needy disabled person" means a person who meets the eligibility requirements set forth in this chapter and who is both permanently impaired and totally disabled.

(b) "Permanently impaired" means that the individual has a major physical or a major mental impairment or a combination of both which is verified by medical findings and appears reasonably certain to continue throughout the lifetime of the individual without substantial improvement.

(c) "Totally disabled" means that the impairment substantially precludes the individual from engaging in useful occupations within his competence, such as holding a job or homemaking. Employment in a sheltered workshop or under an approved vocational rehabilitation plan shall not be considered a "useful occupation" for purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 20. Section 4001 of said code is repealed.

[4001. It is the object and purpose of this chapter to provide persons whose dependency results from disability defined by Section 4000 with assistance and services which will encourage them to make greater efforts to achieve self-care and to enlarge their opportunities for independence.]

SEC. 21. Section 4001 is added to said code, to read:

4001. It is the object and purpose of this chapter to provide persons whose dependency results from disability defined by Section 4000 with assistance and services which will encourage them to make greater efforts to achieve self-care and self-support and to enlarge their opportunities for independence.

In supervising the administration of this chapter the department shall encourage the rehabilitation or employment of the recipient if it appears that with proper care and training such person may become more self-sufficient.

The department and the State Department of Education shall jointly develop plans for the orderly processing of cases referred to the Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation for a determination of feasibility and planning for vocational rehabilitation.

The department and the State Department of Employment shall jointly develop plans for the orderly processing of cases referred to the Department of Employment for a determination of employability and job referral.

The policy shall be followed of granting aid to the recipient in his own home or in some other suitable home of his own choosing, in preference to placing him in an institution.

SEC. 22. Section 4002 of said code is repealed.

[4002. In administering this chapter the Department of Social Welfare shall encourage the rehabilitation or employment of the recipient if it appears that with proper care and training such person may become more self-sufficient. The policy shall be followed of granting the aid to the recipient in his own home or in some other suitable home of his own choosing, in preference to placing him in an institution.]

SEC. 23. Section 4012 is added to said code, to read:

4012. The provision of useful work experience and constructive vocational training for disabled recipients is a matter of statewide concern. Insofar as practical each county department shall establish a community work experience and vocational training program for disabled persons for whom such experience and training is deemed desirable as part of a plan to help them become self-supporting.

Such programs shall be conducted in accordance with standards and regulations established by the Department of Social Welfare as desirable and necessary to qualify for such federal funds as are available.

The cost of materials, equipment and supervision provided by agencies co-operating with the county department in community work experience and training programs shall not be charged as an administrative expense under this chapter or with respect to other public assistance programs.

Projects developed under this section shall be confined to projects which serve a useful public purpose, do not result either in displacement of regular workers or in the performance of work that would otherwise be performed by employees of public or private agencies, institutions, or organizations, and (except in cases of projects which involve emergencies or which are generally of a nonrecurring nature) are of a type which has not normally been undertaken in the past by the State or community, as the case may be.

SEC. 24. Section 4020 of said code is amended to read:

4020. For needy disabled persons qualifying for aid under the provisions of this chapter there shall be paid an amount equivalent to the actual needs of the recipient as set forth in this section but not to exceed an average grant computed statewide for all recipients of aid under this chapter of one hundred dollars ($100) per month. In the event the average grant per recipient [in any month] exceeds an amount of one hundred dollars ($100) the State Department of Social Welfare shall take immediate steps to reduce or curtail payments for attendant services or other special services arising from their disability to the end that the monthly average per recipient for the full fiscal year does not exceed one hundred dollars ($100).

The State Social Welfare Board shall establish a standard of assistance, within the limits set forth in this section, which will enable each recipient to maintain himself in decency and health. The board shall establish a standard to cover actual needs, common to all persons [not to exceed one hundred six dollars ($106) per month]. Within the limit of the average grant set forth in this section the board may provide for payment of an additional sum to those recipients whose physical condition is such that they require the services of a full- or part-time attendant or other special services. In determining whether a recipient is entitled to receive payment for attendant or other special services, the scale set forth in Section 2181 of this code shall be used to determine the amount of income of his spouse that is available to meet his needs for such services. [Allowance for attendant services shall not be made when rendered by a responsible relative with whom the recipient is living.]

The board shall give priority to persons in the greatest need without replacing other public or private resources which can provide the services. Voluntary contributions or grants from other public sources, private agencies, friends or relatives which are specifically and solely provided for such attendant services and which would not otherwise be available shall not be considered as applying toward the actual needs of said recipient.

The State Department of Social Welfare may provide by rule that any change in grant for an amount of two dollars ($2) or less may be delayed not more than two months beyond the month in which the recipient reported the change in circumstances.

SEC. 25. Section 4020.1 is added to said code, to read:

4020.1. The amount of the average grant set forth in Section 4020 shall be adjusted annually by the department to reflect any increases in the cost of living occurring after January 1, 1964. The average of the separate indices of the cost of living for Los Angeles and San Francisco, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, shall be used as the basis for determining the changes in the cost of living.

In giving effect to the cost of living provisions of this section, the department shall select a comparison month for computation of the percentage change in the cost of living after January 1, 1964. The same month shall be used annually thereafter. The determination of whether an adjustment is to be made, and the amount of such adjustment, shall be made by comparing the average index for the comparison month with the average index for January 1, 1964. The product of any percentage increase in the average index and one hundred dollars ($100) shall be reduced by the dollar amount of any cost of living increase currently in effect pursuant to the provisions of this section. If the resultant amount, when adjusted to the nearer dollar, is one dollar ($1) or more, it shall be added to the maximum average grant currently in effect under Section 4020. The resultant sum shall be declared by formal action of the director to be the maximum average grant payable under Section 4020.

The maximum average grant established by this action shall become effective on the first day of the month following the expiration of a 90-day period following the date of the formal action of the director.

SEC. 26. Section 4160 of said code is amended to read:

4160. Aid shall be granted under this chapter to any needy disabled person who comes within all of the following descriptions:

(a) Who has attained the age of 18 years.

(b) Who resides in the State and has so resided [continuously] for at least one year immediately preceding the date of application and for at least three years within the nine years immediately preceding the date of application, has become disabled while a resident of this State, or is eligible under the terms of a reciprocal agreement entered into by the department with another state [immediately preceding the date of application and for at least five years within the nine years immediately preceding the date of application].

(c) Who has not made any voluntary assignment or transfer of property for the purpose of qualifying for such aid.

(d) Who is not at the time of receiving such aid a patient in an institution for tuberculosis or mental disease, a patient in a medical institution as the result of a diagnosis of tuberculosis or psychosis, an inmate of a public institution of a custodial (nonmedical), penal, or correctional character, or an inmate of a federal medical institution. Any such inmate or patient, however, may make an application for aid under this chapter and have his application investigated and acted upon without delay, in the same manner as applications of other persons are acted upon, while he is such an inmate or patient, and, if he is otherwise qualified under the terms of this chapter, such application shall be approved. The aid shall be granted to him from the first day of the month in which the determination is made that he is eligible, but in no event shall the aid commence prior to the date of the application. The applicant may remain an inmate or patient until he receives his first monthly payment, whereupon he shall cease to be such inmate or patient.

(e) Who is not receiving adequate support from a husband or wife, or parent, or child.

SEC. 27. Section 4180 of said code is repealed.

[4180. Application for aid under this chapter shall be made to the board of supervisors in the county in which the applicant resides as specified in Section 4190. All persons wishing to make application for aid shall be given the opportunity to do so and aid shall be granted with reasonable promptness to all eligible persons.]

SEC. 28. Section 4181 of said code is repealed.

[4181. The board of supervisors, directly or through an authorized agent, shall upon receipt of an application for aid, promptly, without any unnecessary delay, and with all diligence, make the necessary investigation and determine whether or not the applicant is eligible for aid except as to disability which shall be handled as specified by Section 4181.5.]

SEC. 29. Section 4182 of said code is repealed.

[4182. If the applicant is found to be eligible, payment shall be made promptly and aid shall be granted to him from the first day of the month in which the determination is made that he is eligible but in no event shall the aid commence prior to the date of application.]

SEC. 30. Section 4183 is added to said code, to read:

4183. In order to assist a disabled recipient unable to manage his cash grant, aid under this chapter may be paid in kind, wholly or in part, or to a guardian, conservator or other responsible person designated in accordance with regulations of the department to act in his behalf. Such method of payment may only be used when it is determined by the county director that the recipient is mismanaging or is unable to properly manage aid payments in cash. The department shall make regulations for the payment of aid under this section and for the selection of designated representatives so that aid in kind will be used only in cases wherein it is shown to be necessary.

Aid under this section shall be paid in accordance with the standards prescribed by Section 4020 of this code. The cost of aid shall be borne by the State and county in the same proportion and up to the same maximums as those specified for state-county participation in aid as set forth in Sections 4020 and 4021 of the code. Aid granted under provisions of this section shall be paid without federal participation whenever federal funds are not provided by the laws of the United States or rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

SEC. 31. Section 4600 of said code is repealed.

[4600. Application for services under this chapter shall be made to the board of supervisors of the county in which the recipient receives public assistance.]

(a) "Medical assistance" means medical care as defined by Section 4502 of this code, which is rendered in behalf of aged persons as provided by Section 4722 of this chapter and the regulations of the State Social Welfare Board pursuant thereto.

(b) "Aged person" means any person 65 years of age or older who meets the following conditions:

1. Who resides in California.
2. Whose average monthly income over the next 12 months is not expected to exceed the costs of his medical care plus the cost of his maintenance as determined by the standard of assistance for a recipient of Old Age Security.
3. Who does not own personal or real property or both in excess of the amount permitted for recipients of Old Age Security.
4. Who is not a recipient of Old Age Security.
5. Who is not a patient in an institution for tuberculosis or mental diseases.
6. Who is not a patient in a medical institution as a result of a diagnosis of tuberculosis or psychosis except to the extent federal reimbursement is provided by Title I of the Federal Social Security Act.
7. Who is not an inmate of a public institution except as a patient in a public medical institution.

(c) "County hospital" means a medical facility established and maintained by the board of supervisors of a county pursuant to Section 1441 of the Health and Safety Code.

(d) "Contract hospital" means a nonprofit medical facility licensed pursuant to Section 1401 of the Health and Safety Code, with which the board of supervisors of a county which does not maintain a county hospital has executed a contract, currently in effect, to care for medically indigent individuals.

SEC. 33. Section 4706 is added to said code, to read:

4706. Whenever an aged person, by virtue of other federal or state statutes or by virtue of an enforceable contract, is entitled to medical care or payment for medical care, benefits payable under this chapter shall be reduced to the extent of his entitlement. Such reduction shall not preclude the use of benefits under this chapter to supplement his entitlement to the point where his medical needs are met.

SEC. 34. Section 4707 is added to said code, to read:

4707. The State Social Welfare Board, in construing statutory provisions regulating the property holdings of recipients of assistance under this chapter, shall adopt the construction most favorable to the recipients. If federal requirements permit a more liberal construction of those provisions for recipients of assistance under this chapter, than is permitted for the construction of the same provisions for recipients of aid under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 3 of this code, the board shall adopt the more liberal construction.

SEC. 35. Section 4720.5 is added to said code, to read:

4720.5. The director of a county agency which administers the provisions of this chapter and also administers medical facilities may not delegate to an employee the decision to authorize or deny aid under this chapter, if he has also delegated authority to that employee to operate or participate in the operation of any such medical facility.

SEC. 36. Section 4722 of said code is amended to read:

4722. The State Social Welfare Board shall establish the maximum allowances for services to be provided and shall prescribe the policies, standards, and scope of services to be provided by this chapter and shall adopt such rules and regulations as are necessary for carrying out every provision of this chapter and not inconsistent therewith.

In establishing the scope and limitations of medical assistance to be provided pursuant to this chapter, the Social Welfare Board shall be limited to providing [long term] medical care to an aged person who requires care in a hospital or a nursing home and outpatient care for such aged person following discharge therefrom.

[Long-term medical] Medical care means medical assistance required [, as defined by subdivision (a) of Section 4701, provided in behalf of persons requiring confinement of more than 30 days] in a medical facility operated or licensed by the United States, one of the several states, or a political subdivision of a state [holding a valid license from the State Department of Public Health as a hospital within the meaning of Section 1401 of the Health and Safety Code), or in a facility exempt from licensure pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1415 of the Health and Safety Code [said code]. Such [long-term] medical care shall include the services of physicians and related personnel as well as the other inpatient services provided by the hospital or nursing home. Medical assistance shall be continued, as needed, on an outpatient basis upon release from the hospital or nursing home.

A transfer from one facility to another shall not be considered as an interruption in the continuity of care.

No cost of care shall be paid for under this chapter for the first 30 days of confinement in a hospital or nursing home except as is expressly provided elsewhere in this chapter.

Upon a showing of favorable cost experience and the approval of the State Department of Finance the State Social Welfare Board may reduce the required period of confinement and the period for which costs of care may not be paid but in no event shall either of these periods of time be reduced below 21 days.

In adopting the schedule of maximum allowances as required by this section the State Social Welfare Board shall not adopt a schedule which offers local public medical facilities a lesser rate of return in comparison to actual costs than is offered to nonpublic facilities. To the extent that rate schedules established for nonpublic facilities include a factor for plant depreciation or replacement, the same consideration shall be extended in determining rates for public facilities.

No cost of care shall be paid for under this chapter to a medical facility unless:

(a) It is licensed by the State Department of Public Health as a hospital within the meaning of Section 1401 of the Health and Safety Code; or

(b) It is licensed by a comparable agency in another state; or

(c) It is exempt from licensure pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1415 of the Health and Safety Code; or

(d) It is operated by the Regents of the University of California.

SEC. 37. Section 4722.1 is added to said code, to read:

4722.1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 4722, payment shall be made for the first 30 days of care if confinement occurs in a county hospital or in a contract hospital or nursing home to which an aged person is transferred from a county hospital or contract hospital.

SEC. 38. Section 4737 is added to said code, to read:

4737. Any recipient of assistance under this chapter who is discharged from a hospital or nursing home, meets the eligibility qualifications for aid under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 3 of this code, and has sufficient income to maintain himself until old age assistance is granted to him, shall be provided with sufficient funds for the cost of his maintenance as determined by the standard of assistance for a recipient of old age assistance. If the recipient's care under this chapter was paid for by county and federal funds only, the grant payable under this section shall be paid entirely out of county funds. If such care was paid for, in part, out of state funds, the state and county shall share in the aid grant payable under this section in the same ratio as they share in the payment of aid grants under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 2000) of this code, and the State's share is hereby appropriated and shall be paid to the county in the same manner as is provided for under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 3 of this code.

Any recipient of assistance under this chapter who is discharged from a hospital or nursing home and who was a recipient of aid under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 3000) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 3400) of Part 1 of Division 5, or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4000) of Part 2 of Division 5, shall be entitled to have his aid grant restored immediately upon his discharge from the hospital or nursing home, and no new application shall be required.

SEC. 39. Section 4753 of said code is amended to read:

4753. Each county shall contribute an amount equal to one-fourth of the total expenditures under this chapter for the care of aged persons who are patients in a hospital or nursing home, except as is hereinafter provided. [No county shall be required to pay any of the cost of medical assistance provided on an outpatient basis.]

The cost of medical assistance provided on an outpatient basis shall be borne by the state, after deducting therefrom such federal funds as are received pursuant to Title 1 of the Federal Social Security Act.

The cost of medical assistance provided during the first 30 days in accordance with Section 4722.1 of this code shall be borne by the county, after deducting therefrom such federal funds as are received pursuant to Title 1 of the Federal Social Security Act.

The county share shall be deposited in the county Medical Care Revolving Fund established pursuant to Section 4604.5 of this code.

Sec. 40. Sections 19 to 26, inclusive, shall become operative on January 1, 1964.

Sec. 41. Sections 16 to 18, inclusive, and Section 12 shall become operative on July 1, 1963.

Sec. 42. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

This act permits the payment of aid to the blind for a limited period to recipients of aid to the potentially self-supporting blind, and will render the state eligible to receive federal assistance toward the payment of aid grants to such recipients, which is not the case now. In order that this State may obtain the available federal funds at the earliest possible time, it is essential that this act go into effect immediately."

Amendments read, and adopted.

Bill ordered printed, and re-referred to Committee on Governmental Efficiency.

PRAYER

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Father Keith Kenny:

Lord, All things visible yield to the inexorable erosion of time, even the everlasting hills are subdued by the centuries. There seems to be nothing of permanence in this life, as today ingests all of our yesterdays, and in turn will be swallowed by tomorrow. There is nothing that endures but Thee, O Lord, all else is vanity. And our works, our aspirations, our lives—whatever we may accomplish here—will only remain if they remain in Thee. From Thee they must take their beginning, in and for Thee they must be wrought, and by Thee they must be blessed, and borne in being. This we ask. This grant, O Lord, in Thy eternal goodness. AMEN.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 1

By Messrs. Darger, Evans, Bullock, and Anderson

A Concurrent Resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives of the 35th Legislature of the State of Utah petitioning the Congress of the United States to call a convention for proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, unless Congress shall sooner have submitted such an amendment, to provide for the election of the president and vice president in a manner fair and just to the people of the United States.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

WHEREAS, Under the Constitution of the United States Presidential and Vice Presidential Electors in the several states are now elected on a statewide basis, each state being entitled to as many electors as it has Senators and Representatives in Congress; and

WHEREAS, The Presidential and Vice Presidential Electors who receive the plurality of the popular vote in a particular state become entitled to cast the total number of electoral votes allocated to the state irrespective of how many votes may have been cast for other elector candidates; and

WHEREAS, This method of electing the President and Vice President is unfair and unjust in that it does not reflect the minority votes cast; and

WHEREAS, The need for a change has been recognized by Members of Congress on numerous occasions through the introductions of various proposals for amending the Constitution; now, therefore be it

Resolved, That application is hereby made to Congress under Article V of the Constitution of the United States for the calling of a convention to propose an article of amendment to the Constitution providing for a fair and just division of the electoral votes within the States in the election of the President and Vice President, and be it further

Resolved, That if and when Congress shall have proposed such an article of amendment this application for a convention shall be deemed withdrawn and shall be no longer of any force and effect; and be it further

Resolved, That the proper officer of this State be and he hereby is directed to transmit copies of this application to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, and to the several members of said bodies representing this state therein; also to transmit copies hereof to the Legislatures of all other states of the United States.

God, All of our lives are so subtly interwoven as warp and woof in the intricate patterns of Thy providence, that what touches upon one touches all. Thus, there is no human independence but only human interdependence. One suffers and all feel the pain, one finds happiness and all rejoice. What we say and do here affects the lives of millions. Lives which intertwine in myriad ways with one another and with our own lives. Grant us, O Lord, the wisdom and integrity to which we aspire and which our high calling demands. AMEN.

"Sec. 5. Section 3257.6 is added to Division 5 of the Education Code as added by Senate Bill No. 718 of the 1963 Regular Session, to read:

3257.6. The plans and recommendations for the formation of a new junior college district formulated by the augmented county committee may include recommendations to authorize the issuance of bonds by the new district in an amount determined by the augmented county committee, all or a part of which may be used for purposes designated by the augmented committee but not in conflict with Article 1 (commencing at Section 21701) of Chapter 7 of Division 16 of this code. The acquisition by a junior college district formed in accordance with plans and recommendations adopted pursuant to this chapter from a high school district or unified school district of junior college facilities of such high school district or unified school district shall be a purpose for which school district bonds may be issued and sold pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing at Section 21701) of Division 16 of this code.

Sec. 6. Section 3257.7 is added to said division of said code as added by said Senate Bill No. 718, to read:

3257.7. A recommendation made pursuant to Section 3257.6 shall be voted upon as a separate proposition at the election for the adoption or rejection of the plans and recommendations for the formation of the new junior college district. The recommendation made pursuant to Section 3257.6 shall become effective if the percentage of votes required for the passage of the bond issue as provided in Section 18 of Article XI of the Constitution are cast in favor of the proposition for issuance of the bonds. The augmented county committee may provide that the proposed districts shall not be formed unless the recommendation provided for in Section 3257.6 is approved.

Sec. 7. Section 3262 of said division of said code as added by said Senate Bill No. 718 is amended to read:

3262. When the augmented county committee includes in its plans and recommendations proposals for the division of the school property of an existing district under Sections 3258 and 3259, the proposal shall be deemed to be an integral part of the plans and recommendations and, except as provided in this section, a favorable vote by a majority of the voters on the question of reorganization, as provided in Article 6 (commencing with Section 3291) of this chapter, shall be deemed to be a favorable vote upon the plans and recommendations as a whole.

If the plans and recommendations require the incurring of a bonded indebtedness within a new district or in any district or portion of a district remaining upon the unification or other reorganization in order to provide funds to equalize the division of the school property among the newly organized districts, then the proposition for the incurring of the bonded indebtedness shall be submitted as a separate proposition to the electors of the district or portion thereof which is to incur such indebtedness at the same election at which the proposition of approving the plans and recommendations is submitted to vote of the electors of the proposed unified or otherwise reorganized districts. A ballot of a different color shall be used for such proposition at the election. The plans and recommendations shall not be deemed to have been approved unless the proposition of incurring such indebtedness is approved by [two-thirds (2/3) vote of the voters of the district or portion thereof which is to incur the indebtedness voting on such proposition at the election] the percentage of votes required for the passage of a bond issue as provided in Section 18 of Article XI of the Constitution cast in the district or portion thereof which is to incur such indebtedness.

The proceedings for the issuance and sale of the bonds shall be taken in substantial conformity with the provisions of Sections 21701 to 21801, inclusive, and Sections 21803 to 22152, inclusive, except that the bond election shall be called and canvassed by the county superintendent of schools and the proposition submitted thereat shall be "Shall _____ District incur a bonded indebtedness in the aggregate principal amount of $_____ for the purpose of paying its share of the equitable adjustment resulting from the reorganization of said school district?"

SEC. 8. Section 3305 of said division of said code as added by said Senate Bill No. 718 is amended to read:

3305. If [two-thirds of all the votes] the percentage of votes prescribed by Section 18 of Article XI of the California Constitution for passage of a bond issue cast in each district at the election on the question of the assumption of bonded indebtedness by a school district created as the result of the unification or other reorganization of school districts recommended by the county committee are cast in favor of the assumption of such bonded indebtedness, the district created shall be liable for the assumption of such bonded indebtedness.

SEC. 9. Sections 5, 6, 7, and 8 of this act shall take effect only if Senate Bill No. 718 of the 1963 Regular Session is enacted at said session, in which event they shall take effect at the same time as Senate Bill No. 718, and Sections 3119.1 and 3119.2 added to, and Sections 3124 and 3168 of, the Education Code, as added or amended by Sections 1, 2, 3, and 4, are repealed."

RECESS

At 3.40 p.m., on motion of Senator McAteer, the Senate recessed to introduce the Consul General of Ireland.

COMMITTEE OF ESCORT

The President appointed the following Committee of Escort for the Consul General of Ireland, Charles V. Whelan: Senator "J" Eugene McAteer, Chairman, Senators Hugh M. Burns, Hugh P. Donnelly, John F. McCarthy, Virgil O'Sullivan, Joseph A. Rattigan, Edwin J. Regan, and George Miller, Jr.

INTRODUCTION BY SENATOR McATEER

Senator McAteer introduced Charles V. Whelan, the Consul General of Ireland, who resides in San Francisco, stating that he was educated at Rockwell College, County Tipperary, and at the University of London. He entered government service in Ireland in 1943, serving successively in the Department of Education and the Department of Health. From 1949 to 1953, Mr. Whelan was in the diplomatic service in Dublin with the Department of External Affairs, then as Secretary of Embassy and Chargé d'Affaires with the Irish Embassy in Madrid, and later First Secretary in the Irish Embassy in Washington, D. C. He became Consul General of Ireland in San Francisco in 1962.

ADDRESS BY CHARLES V. WHELAN, CONSUL GENERAL OF IRELAND

It is not only a very great honor but also a very pleasant duty for a representative of Ireland to address the Senate of this great State. Though far from Ireland, California became a second home for not just thousands but for hundreds of thousands of my fellow countrymen. A visiting Irish journalist in 1867 commented: "There is not a state in the Union in which the Irish have taken deeper and stronger root, or thriven more successfully, than California, in whose amazing progress—material, social and intellectual—they have had a conspicuous share."

The Irish arrived early in California and grew up with the country. Timothy Murphy from County Wexford, known locally as Don Timoteo, was Mayor of San Rafael, during the period of Mexican rule. Another Irishman, Jasper O'Farrell, laid out the first street survey of San Francisco. Some people thought he made Market Street too wide and for his foresight he had to go into hiding across the Bay in Sausalito until tempers cooled. In the events leading to the revolt against Mexican rule, perhaps the most vital Irish contribution was made by Thomas Fitzpatrick, after Jedediah Smith the greatest pathfinder of the West. Fitzpatrick, a native of County Cavan, Ireland, was chosen by Fremont to be the guide, adjutant and quartermaster for the historic second expedition to California over the Sierras that laid the basis for the revolt.

The historic Bear Flag revolt began on the ranch of another Irishman, Martin Murphy, near Sacramento. The Murphy family was the first Irish party to enter California by the overland route in 1844.

What has been called "one of the most soul shocking documents" in American literature, a diary of the horrible, tragic end of the Donner party, was written by Patrick Breen, another emigrant from Ireland.

Following the achievement of Statehood and the opening up of California, Irish emigration greatly increased. Arriving with nothing but their muscle, brawn and native intelligence, they began by building the railroads to the West and rose up to the highest positions in politics and industry. David Broderick, a stoneworker by training, became a member of the first State Senate and in 1857 was elected to the Senate of the United States. Broderick had strong anti-slavery principles, which combined with his humble origin made him the target of extremists. He was challenged to a duel, reluctantly accepted and was fatally wounded in one of the most sensational political incidents of the time.

Shortly afterwards, John Downey, born in Roscommon, Ireland, became Governor of the State of California. His greatest act was to veto a measure which would in effect have handed the San Francisco waterfront over to a gang of freebooters.

The names of Mackay, O'Brien and Flood will always be associated with the discovery of the Comstock lode. Peter Donahue from Ireland built the Union Ironworks, the first heavy industry in California. In another field, Tom Maguire, a colorful character with the theatre in his blood, provided San Francisco with its first opera house.

The peak of Irish immigration in California was reached in 1890 when about eighty thousand people of Irish birth were resident in the State. As economic conditions in Ireland improved, emigration declined and at this date there are probably less than twenty thousand California residents of Irish birth. However, if one adds the second generation, that is those whose fathers were born in Ireland, there are still over a hundred thousand persons of Irish origin in California. If one goes further and counts everybody with an Irish name or whose grandmother claimed to be Irish, I am sure that a large majority of the population of California could be classified as being of Irish origin. Of course, on St. Patrick's Day the whole population claims to be Irish!

The improvement in the economic conditions in Ireland which began with the victory in the land war at the end of the last century continued with political independence. Although deprived of the industrial northeast of the country and starved of industries due to colonial exploitation, the new state forged ahead. Lacking coal and oil, we developed hydroelectricity and peat production. Consumer industries were established to manufacture textiles, footwear, food products, cement, all of which helped to provide the essential needs of the population. Agriculture was diversified. Beetgrowing provided the basis for an efficient sugar industry. At the same time the new state gave priority to the people's welfare with a vast rehousing scheme and modern health and insurance services.

Ireland today is not standing still. Its gross national product is increasing by 5 percent yearly. We are endeavoring to increase opportunities for our people, to raise the standard of living and to bring about a population rise in place of the emigration of the past. We are therefore encouraging the establishment in Ireland of industries by foreign firms of proved industrial experience. Ireland itself, is not short of capital. We are a creditor nation. Nor are we underdeveloped in power and transport facilities. What we need is the technical and managerial expertise to ensure an expanding industrial economy and a modern business psychology. Irish incentives to foreign industrialists are very attractive. However, what appeals most to foreign businessmen is our stable democratic government and our economic planning based primarily on private enterprise.

In Ireland there is an atmosphere of peaceful security that surrounds all our institutions, political, industrial and social. The political parties in our parliament may all be classed as center parties without extremists of the left or the right. Our businessmen and trade unionists are keen and hard-working but are co-operative and not greedy for power. Much of this may be credited to our strong family life, which provides an integrating force in the community. We are a very religious people. At the same time, as any resident in Ireland can confirm, there is a great respect for the rights of minorities, which is reflected in our constitution and laws.

We hold our hands out to our divided Irish brothers in the northeast. We are offering economic co-operation, not only in the hope that it will lead to political unity but principally because they are members of the one Irish nation. Already much has been done in this field to make a living reality of the Flag of Ireland which consists of the green and orange joined by the white, symbolizing peace, truth and unity.

I would like to thank you, the members of this great body, for your courtesy in inviting me to speak here today and in listening to me so patiently.

REASSEMBLED

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, April 18, 1963

*To the Honorable Members of the Senate
State of California
Sacramento, California*

GREETINGS: At Senator Rattigan's request, I am returning herewith, without my signature, Senate Bill No. 295 entitled "An act to add Section 7031.5 to the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Section 3800 of the Labor Code, relating to contractors."

The bill adds to the Contractors' License Law portion of the Business and Professions Code a provision, now appearing in the Labor Code, requiring, as a condition precedent to the issuance of a local agency building permit, that the applicant certify either (1) that he has a valid contractor's license, or (2) that he has an exemption from the licensing requirement, and state the basis of the exemption.

I am informed by Senator Rattigan that the Contractors' License Law clearly exempts work done by a homeowner on his personal residence, but that it is not clear whether the law exempts work done on other buildings located on the same property, for example a home being constructed on ranch property for occupancy by a ranch foreman. Because of this uncertainty, and for the additional reason that the bill eliminates the exemption of work costing less than $100, available under existing law, Senator Rattigan has requested that the bill be vetoed.

Accordingly, I am returning the bill without my signature.

Respectfully submitted,

EDMUND G. BROWN, Governor

Message read and Senate Bill No. 295 ordered to the unfinished business file.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, April 18, 1963

This message is being transmitted to you for your further handling.

PAUL D. WARD
Legislative Secretary

Message read, and ordered printed in the Journal, and the statement filed with the Secretary of the Senate.
